GARFIELD CONTAINS NO MERCHANDISE

Assessor Will Be Asked to Look Around and see if He Cannot Locate at Least One Store.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, July 34.-(Special.)-The State Board of Equalization worked today on the valuation of household goods and discovered during its meanderings over the tabulations of property that eighteen counties in the state had returned no sizis banks, the erection of machinery goes forward while Garfield county returned no merchan- with vim and energy. The refinery is now dise. This county last year returned merchandise to the value of $8,600. The counties which have returned no state banks will be called upon to explain, while Garfield county will also be asked to come in with a store or two at least. It has not been so low in many years. The jobbers here are selling granulated sugar to retail dealers 55 cents lower that they did a month ago. At the same time they are afraid to buy and their stocks are very low The trouble started with the cuttting of is a prominent member of the New England Women's Press association, and is promirates by the railroads. The eastern roads were cutting their rates on sugar to Misnent in Daughters of the American Revolu souri river points and the Illinois Central tion circles, besides being on the staff o several papers and magazines, This gave and other Mississippi roads began cutting too. They wanted the sugar to come over opportunity to keep the name of John Paul Jones before the public, and she lost not their lines by way of the gulf. Several cuts have been made. The same rate cutting exists in coffee but it does not occasion the same complications as in sugar, for the reason that the coffee holders do not lower their prices with the cut.

Jobbers consider the bearish attitude of the refiners pecultar. They think the refiners are using the rate cutting as an excuse to force the prices below normal, thus in will be its last resting place. fluencing the market in raws, and allowing them to fill their depleted stocks at low

No Consting in Autos for Omaha" Chief Executive After His Sanday Trial,

Mayor Moores took an automobile ride Sunday. He sat on the front seat of a big white touring car, looking very chic in his familiar cap, and Mrs. Moores occoupled a rear seat. They were "in the hands of their friends," the mayor never more so literally, in his long and arduous political career. The party sped west or Farnam street.
