Possibly four players of the Wanderers' club, Chicago, der the auspices of the Omaha Tennis club. Each year since 1901 this meet has been 5 growing larger and larger, until now it and a number from the Kenwood and Aztec clubs will come.

It is expected that both Denver and Colorado Springs will send players and the possible prospects from these points are C. P. Dodge, the Grahams, C. E. Fen-nessy and a number of others, whose names have not been learned as yet.

Sloux City, Des Moines and a number of the other lowa towns have their cracks and will send teams.

Nebraska, with its score of good players, will be the best represented. Many ontries are expected from towns yet to hear from, like St. Joe, St. Paul, Milwaukes, Minneapolis, Brookings, S. D., and Grand Forks, N. D. This year's meet will be a truly well representative one.

Will M. Wood is chairman of the committee and all comunications relative to the tournament should be addressed to him, care Swift and Company, South Omaha, Neb.
