

HEARING LINCOLN PROTEST

Threat to Double Valuation of Merchandise in Omaha.

LANCASTER OFFICIAL'S IDEA OF VALUES

Adjutant General Culver Goes to Kearney to See Camp in Readiness for the National Guardsmen.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, July 31.—(Special.)—This afternoon during the hearing before the State Board of Equalization and Assessment on the complaint of under assessment of Douglas county merchandise, Judge Tibbets, representing the Lincoln merchants, offered to stop if County Assessor Reed would agree to a 25 per cent increase. He asserted that otherwise he would introduce evidence which would justify an increase of 50 per cent in the merchandise. Later John E. Miller, president of the Lincoln Commercial club, asserted that the increase would be 100 per cent. Reed did not accept the offer, but when Governor Mickey asked him what the merchants would do if an increase of 25 per cent was made he indicated that he thought it was too high, because of the small merchants who would be hurt.

"It may hurt the smaller fellows," said the governor, "but it will force them to see that the law is complied with next year and they will bring pressure to bear on the county board to that end."

Governor Mickey suggested that it would be as well to have the evidence in the record and members of the board indicated a desire to subpoena the Omaha merchants. The charge, to which it was admitted there was truth, was that the large merchants in some instances had formed the habit of making out statements of low value under the old law and when the new system was put in operation they were impudently to keep the assessment down on account of the city tax, he said.

"They got in the habit of returning it at a smaller figure than the true value," said Reed.

"Did they learn it from the railways?" queried the governor.

Mr. Reed, under examination by Judge Tibbets, stated that he had only in a few instances seen the invoices of merchants when making assessments. He said that they would often bring papers to him, but it was difficult to tell what was invoice and what was not. He said that sometimes he had not consulted the insurance policies and admitted that various data had been withheld. In several instances, he declared, he had sought the policies and had been unable to get them.

He was asked as to the amount of money listed by various firms, Judge Tibbets declaring that the sum was entirely too small in many instances.

Assessors Cannot Agree. In response to a question by Governor Mickey Reed denied that he had stated last year that he had been unable to get at the merchandise values because he was busy with real estate. He said that there was any arrangement whereby the assessors were to list such property at less than its actual value. He said that he had nothing to conceal.

County Assessor Miller of Lancaster county, who was first placed on the list, confessed that he had sought to get the true value in every instance, using invoices, insurance policies and other data as the basis for the assessment. He stated, however, that he had advised the complainant.

Women Obtain Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Help. She Has Guided Thousands to Health—Now Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Fred Seydel.

It is a great satisfaction for a woman to feel that she can write to another woman, tell her the most private and confidential details about her illness, and know that her letter will be seen by a woman only, a woman full of sympathy for her sick sisters, and above all, a woman who has had more experience in treating female ills than any living person.

Over one hundred thousand cases of female diseases come before Mrs. Pinkham every year, some personally, others by mail, and this has been going on for twenty years, day after day. Surely women are wise in seeking advice from a woman of such experience, especially when it is absolutely free.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of women, and every testimonial letter published is done so with the written consent or request of the writer, in order that other sick women may be benefited as they have been. Mrs. Fred Seydel, of 412 North 54th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "Over a year ago I wrote you a letter asking advice, as I had female ills and could not carry a child to maturity. I received your kind letter of instructions and followed your advice. I am not only well, but now I can carry a beautiful baby girl. I wish every suffering woman in the land would write you for advice, as you have done so much for me."

Just as surely as Mrs. Seydel was cured, will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female ills. No other medicine in all the world has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Therefore no prudent woman will accept any substitute which a druggist may offer. If you are sick, write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and always helpful.

A BARREL OF OIL $3.50

John E. Miller, in applying for a reduction when he saw that other firms were being lowered by the county board. Miller had $20,000 cut from his original figures of $24,000. The county assessor swore, however, that the reductions were made because of positive evidence showing that the assessments had been too high. He repeated the statement that Reed had told him that the big merchants at Omaha would not be assessed too high, or they would have to move across the river. He said that the Douglas county assessor told him this year that he thought the assessment was about all some of the firms could stand.

What Tibbets Wanted to Show. Tibbets stated shortly before the close of the hearing this afternoon that he intended to call experts in the various lines who could testify as to the value of the various houses at Omaha. He had figures showing the stocks over $100,000 in value. He called J. H. Harpham, a Lincoln harness jobber, who testified that Marks Bros. of Omaha, assessed at $100,000, was only half high enough, and that J. H. Harney, assessed at $20,000, was also only 50 per cent of the true value.

County Clerk J. R. Plasters of Gage county, who was in the city today, was directed to complete the action of the State Board of Equalization in making a 10 per cent increase in the average assessment of sewing machines in the country. They were assessed at an average of $2 and the result of the increase will be to necessitate the addition of 20 cents to the assessed value of each machine worth $10, and varying sums for machines worth other prices. This Plasters claims is a mistake, since assessing officials have never been required to consider cents. He asserts that, heretofore, it has been customary to place the assessments in round numbers for convenience in figuring. He does not contemplate any appeal to the board. He expressed his anxiety to have the work of the state board completed so that the work of extending the assessments may be taken up in the counties. The board promised to take the matter under advisement.

The chairman of the county board of Red Willow county was in the city today to protest against the increase on horses ordered by the board, making the average assessment of equines about $11. When he was shown the average of $14 in the agricultural counties he withdrew his protest.

Appropriation May Not Lapse. Deputy Auditor Cook said today that he believed payments would be made on existing contracts from appropriations made by the legislature of 1933, even after August 31, when the appropriation would ordinarily lapse. He said that he believed in the intent of the law that such bona fide contracts are binding, notwithstanding the provision as to lapses.

Some of the state officers are talking of asking the secretary of the State Printing board to act as an official indexer for the various departments in order that the reports issued may be properly indexed for reference use. It is claimed that Secretary Frazier would have ample time to do the work in addition to his duties in connection with the letting of contracts.

Prize for Superintendent. The State Buildings and Buildings, which has returned from a trip of inspection to the Hastings asylum, is unanimous in its praise of Superintendent Kern who has charge of the institution with its 1,000 inmates. The members of the board say that it seems like a small city.

Exchange Bank Corporation. The Exchange Bank of Winlock has been incorporated by C. W. Gishwiller, D. C. Sheiler, L. H. Jordan, E. M. Crannell and A. L. Clarke. The authorized capital stock is $10,000.

The Jones Farm company of Indiana with an authorized capital stock of $20,000 has filed articles of incorporation in the office of the secretary of state. The concern has power to operate farms in Nebraska and other states.

Attorney General Norris Brown stated today that it would be several days before he could render an opinion as to the validity of water works bonds issued under the existing statute. The question as to the validity of the act was raised by R. E. Moore, a Lincoln investor.

Preparing for Camp. Adjutant General Culver will establish brigade headquarters at Kearney, Thursday, Friday, so as to have everything in readiness for the national guard encampment, which is to begin next week. A detachment from the signal corps, acting as engineers, will lay out the camp. Arrangements have been made to sink fifteen miles of pipe to sheet water in order to insure a pure water supply. The sand is counted on to act as a filter bed. Under the general direction of the medical corps the sanitation of the camp will be attended to with the utmost care.

Colonel C. J. Bills, the inspector general of the regiment, will be placed under service orders. He will inspect the site of the camp before the troops are moved out, and during the progress of the encampment will inspect the camp twice daily, reporting derelictions from the rules to the commanding officer of the regiment concerned.

Arrangements have been made for the installation of a telephone system in the camp, connecting the various organizations. The brigade headquarters will be at a considerable distance from the regimental headquarters, and the plan of play of land to permit of this arrangement.

Must Have Twenty Days Notice. The bond clerk in the office of the auditor has found it necessary to return a considerable number of bonds to the school districts and other subdivisions issuing them because of the fact that the statute does not hold after the twenty days' notice required by the statute, as interpreted by Deputy Attorney General Thompson. According to that official, the twenty days must be computed without including that set apart for the election, that on which notice was given. This opinion is based on a decision rendered by the supreme court. It is stated that the bonds received indicate that much misapprehension exists as to the requirements of the statute, and the department has not been advised whether any bonds will be invalidated on that account.

An estimate by Bond Clerk Lawrence indicates that the total registration of public bonds of all kinds has been more than $1,000,000 since December 1, 1934, as compared with $1,122,774 for the entire biennium preceding. It is stated that the big increase is in the bonds of cities and villages.

Merchandise Equalization May Fail. Secretary of State Galusha, who has been the leading spirit in the movement to equalize the assessment of merchandise throughout the country, gave the idea a setback today with the announcement that the Douglas county assessor would not be required to equalize the assessments, but would have some authentic data in his possession.

New Towns Springing Up. ASHLAND, Neb., July 31.—(Special.)—With the rapid building all along the Great Northern right-of-way, activity in the two newly projected towns between this point and Fremont has begun. The sale of lots in Pleasant Valley, the station seven miles north of Ashland, has begun and also in Estina, the station across the Platte from Fremont. A bank at the latter place, in which officers of the Commercial National bank of Fremont are interested, is projected. A number of Fremont persons are also preparing to establish stores at Estina. Both towns are in a rich and thickly settled farm community.

Processess Falls in Plan. FREMONT, Neb., July 31.—(Special.)—According to the story told by Pearl Ulrich, a girl of 17, residing at Lead, S. D., an attempt was made by a woman to kidnap her and force her into a house of ill-fame in this city. The girl, who is good looking, but apparently not well versed in the ways of the world, says that she has been working in a hotel at Lead. She had only been there a few days when a woman, calling herself Mrs. Kemp, a rather sharp, smooth, middle-aged woman, came there and offered her much larger wages if she would come to Fremont and work for her in a hotel she claimed to be running here. On the arrival here Mrs. Kemp attempted to compel her to become an inmate of a house of ill-fame. She refused emphatically to accompany the woman, though promises, threats and every means outside of actual force were used. Becoming alarmed, the Kemp woman left for parts unknown, leaving the girl in a strange lodging house without friends and penniless. This morning she told her story to Chief of Police Dougherty and he at once wired the woman whom Lead claims to be running here.
