COMMON WORSHIP

New Code Does Not Suit All Presbyterian Ministers in Omaha-

SOME WILL ADOPT IT ONLY IN PART

Ur. Burdick Criticises Form Advocated by General Assembly as Being too Formal and Rity. Hatto.

The "Book of Common Worship," which was compiled by ministers and elders of the Presbyterian church, is just off the press and is being distributed to the churches over the country. Its use is optional with the churches, and just how far it will become popular in Omaha is yet to be determined. At present it looks as though the Omaha churches will not reach unanimous conclusion on the subject. Two ministers have expressed themselves for it and one against it.

The service is too formal," said Rev. Newman Hall Burdick, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church. "I do not think we shall adopt th?

"We shall use it, or at least parts of it," was the statement of Rev. Edwin Hart Jenks of the First Presbyterian church. Rev. W. H. Reynolds, pastor of Castellar Street Presbyterian church, said his church would select parts of the book.

The publication of the book was authorized at the general assembly at Winona Lake, Ind., last May. Its strong advocates were mainly from the east, a large part of the western ministers being opposed to the tendency of ritualism embodied in the book. There was a long and heated debate, in which the adoption of the service was left with the pastor and the ruling elders of each church.

Ne Pledge for Woman.

Prospective brides will be likely to select for the solemnization of their marriages those churches which choose to observe the new form, as in the marriage ceremony as given in the book, the bride is not required to pledge herself to obey. The word does not appear in the vows of the groom, nor is there any equivalent expression in Complete forms of service are given for the celebration of the communion, the administration of baptism and the burial of the dead. The "Treasury of Prayers" is another departure from the old method.

The new morning service is radically different from the old and is somewhat similar to the order of morning prayer of the Episcopal church. The service is opened by the reading by the minister of a few sentences of scripture, followed by invocation. Then comes a "confession of sins" and an "assurance of pardon." This differs from the absolution of the Episcopal church in that "you" and "your" are changed to "us" and "our," making absolution more impersonal.

The service is designed to obviate the difficulty of variety of forms observed in he churches. It has directions for rising, altting and bowing in prayer, so that its general adoption would do away with confusion which has resulted in the churches since the departure from the old prayer, hymn and sermon features of worship.

FREE TREAT FOR CHILDREN

Plente Given by Salvation Army to Five Hundred Little Ones at Riverview Park.

The officers of the Omaha and South Omaha branches of the Salvation army gave 500 poor children of the two cities an open air treat at Riverview park Thursday. Each child received a box filled with good things to eat, besides being served with ice cream and lemonade. Childish pastimes were indulged in and the little people enjoyed themselves to their hearts' The picknickers were taken to content. the park in chartered street cars, a large number gathering at the hall, Seventeenth and Davenport streets. The children took possession of the park with an abandonment that was good to see.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Dinrrhoes Remedy, Better

Than Three Doctors, 'Three years ago we had three doctors with our little boy and everything that they could do seemed in vain. At last when all hope seemed to be gone we began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and in a few hours he began to improve. Today he is as healthy a child as parents could wish for. We feel that we cannot afford to be without this medicine in our home."-Mrs. B. J. Johnston, Linton, Derivation of Garage. George P. Bemis has received this letter, which he thinks will be of much public in-

Mr. George P. Bemis—Dear Sir: Will you please pardon the delay in replying to your esteemed letter of July 19, which was occasioned entirely by an oversight.

According to good authorities, the word "garage" is derived from the French word "garage" is derived from the French word "garrer." to put aside or out of the way. It was used for a considerable time before automobiles appeared to designate a building in which carriages or other wheeled well-less were stored, and infrequently the word was used to designate a roundhouse. When automobiles became numerous the word was speedily adopted to describe a building for housing such vehicles. Faith-ord was used to became number has automobiles became number has automobiles became number has automobiles became number has automobiles. Faith wilding for housing such vehicles. Faithfully yours,
