

APOSTLE OF THE RANGE MEN

Rev. John Crosswell of Wyoming Preaches Two Sermons in Omaha.

Rev. Dr. E. R. Curry, Discouraging on "Sacrifice," Asserts the Strength of Man Rests in His God.

Rev. John Crosswell, the cowboy preacher of Arvada, Wyo., preached Sunday morning and evening at the People's church.

The reformer and cowboy is a great religious power in the cattle country. Not long ago he instituted a revival at Clearmont, Wyo., and about half the people in the town professed religion.

His talk showed that he has made a thorough study of the different types of men and women, not only those who habitually are before the bar of justice in police court.

BOOM ON SAN PEDRO LINE

Typical Western Fever Rampant in Nevada with Headquarters at Las Vegas.

H. M. Fulmer, vice president of the California Gold Mining company, is a guest at the Merchants while in the city for a few days.

The new San Pedro line is working great things for our country. Take, for instance, the town of Las Vegas, which is just seventy days old.

Las Vegas is now the distributing point for such mines as the Bullfrog, Searchlight, Calveada and a dozen others in the Goldfield country.

J. Ross Clark and Mr. Grace have constructed a private road from Las Vegas to Bullfrog, a distance of 100 miles.

After evading the authorities for three weeks, Miss Minnie Arndt admits her several offenses.

The woman is charged with grand larceny and is connected with three thefts. She has confessed. When arrested she was wearing a diamond ring stolen from the home of M. J. Carmen.

It was reported August 10 that Miss Arndt took a diamond ring, two purses, $10.18 in money, a silk skirt and other articles from the Carmen home.

Miss Arndt is 39 years of age and was raised near Benson, where her father works as a bartender.

POPE REJECTED AS LEADER

Colored Preacher Who Starts Organization of Church Rebuked by Laymen.

PEOPLE SAY HE IS UNFIT FOR SERVICE

Accused of Twice Attempting Suicide and Admits Discouragements Impelled Him to Think of Self-Destruction.

From present indications there is likely to be a hitch in the launching of the new Colored Presbyterian church of Omaha.

Immediately following the regular devotional exercises of the afternoon, at which Rev. Dr. Pope preached, from the text of John 1:18, Mr. W. J. Johnson, one of the best known and highly esteemed colored men of Omaha and one of the leaders in the movement for the organization of the church, stated that he had, from the start, been deeply interested in the new movement and had hoped to see it succeed.
