Mason was sentenced to ninety days by Police Judge Berka. The prisoner was charged with vagrancy and disorderly conduct and when arraigned in police court said he was drunk at the time of the intrusion on the young women. The tent that Mason entered was occupied by Miss Lillie Youngquist, sister and mother. The sisters were asleep in one bed and the mother in another. Miss Lillie Youngquist testified against Mason, saying: "At 4:30 this morning I was awakened by the smell of chloroform. I saw that man (pointing to Mason) bending over me with a sponge over my mouth. I called to my sister and we both screamed. The man tried to get into bed with us, but when we gave the alarm he became frightened and ran away."
