Score Four Runs in the Eighth and Three in the Ninth and Come Within One of Tying the Score.

PUEBLO. Colo., Aug. 17.-The Indians Pittsburg Beats Brooklyn by Bunchday and batted out a close game after making a bunch of six errors. Omaha made two runs in the first, but was not able to score again until the seventh, when it braced up and made a finish that looked for a mement like defeat for the Indians. McCloskey came close to winning his own game in the ninth, when he met the ball for three sacks with landed on McCloskey for nineteen hits towhen he met the ball for three eacks with two men on bases. The locals played loos ball after the sixth, the condition of th grounds being such that luck had a goo deal to do with grounder fielding. Th

ITCHES AND BURNS

The return of warm weather means a return of torture to Eczema sufferers. The blood is charged with burning acids and acrid matter which is forced to the surface through the pores and glands, forming pustules which discharge a sticky fluid, and the itching is intense.

The doctors said I had pustular Eccema; it would break out in small white pustules, monthly on my face and hands, discharging a sticky fluid; crusts would form and drop of, leaving the skin red and inflamed. I was tormented with the itehing and burning characteristic of the disease for five years, and during the time used various medicated scaps, cintments and washes, but these applications seemed to make me worse. After taking S. S. S. a short time I began to improve: the itching did not worry me so much. I continued the medicine, and soon all the ugly eruptions disappeared and my skin is now as clear as anybody's. I have not been troubled with any breaking out since.

Urbans, O.

Sometimes the disease is in the dry form, and bran-like scales form on the but the cause is the same-humors in the blood. Salves, cooling washes, powders and the like can do nothing more than relieve the itching, because they do not reach the acid-laden blood, the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. cures Eczema and all skin diseases by neutralzing the acids and carrying them off through the proper channels. When S. S. S. has done this the symptoms pass away, the blood is cooled and the disease is cured permanently. Nothing acts so promptly

FIVE FAST EVENTS DURING AFTERNOON

All of Them Are Won by Favorites Except the 2:04 Pace-Two New Track Records Made.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Aug. 17 .- After lapse of two days during the rainy weather the grand circuit meeting was resumed at the Hudson River Driving park this afternoon with five splendid races. The favorites won all the events except the 2:04 pace, which had six starters. There was the sharpest racing of the day in this event, the first and third heats of which went to Nathan Strauss, while Laconda took the second. Snyder's McGregor's mile in 2:00 flat makes a new trotting race record for the track. Susie N.'s mile in 2:15 in the 2:30 trot is a new track record for 3-year-old trotters. Summary:

Council Bluffs Bont Beaten to the Finish Line.

OSHKOSH, Wis. Aug. 17.—(Special Telegram)—This morning, over a twelve-mile windward and leeward course, the fourth race, class B, at the Inland lake regatts, was taken by the White Hear boat Barracotouts, with the Priscilla, from Council Bluffs, Ia., in second place, 4 minutes and 50 seconds behind it.

At the start the boats rounded the flag for the first windward beat one at a time, with the Barracouta leading and following immediately behind the Oshkosh Junior, the Priscilla, Pathfinder. Leucotha, Flying Fox and Klickitat. The morning was ideal for sailing, with a fair, southeast wind and an easy swell. On the beat to the mark all boats split tacks and the Pathfinder rounded first, followed closely by the Barracouta in a fight for position and was ruled out of the race by the judges.

On the next two beats the Barracouta in the struggle between the Priscilla and the Oshkosh Junior. With the Priscilla sailing under the Junior's kee it failed to get free until just before reaching the finish line, when it forced the sther away to windward and then jibbing about quickly it was in the reverse position and crossed a few second and the priscilla and a few second and the finish line, when it forced the sther away to windward and then jibbing about quickly it was in the reverse position and crossed a few second make the priscilla sailing the priscilla sail sail and the oshkosh Junior. THE DELICIOUS BEER

VISIT OUR BREWERY

Note the scrupulously clean condition of everything-the shining copper brew tanks-the burnished chilling coilsthe floors—the vats—the tanks—all immaculate.

Inspect the choice malt in the towering bins-scrutinize the contents of the aromatic bales of Bohemian hops, held in perfect condition in our cold storage rooms. These hops are imported directly by us and cost twice as much as American hops. They improve the quality of the brew in that proportion.

See the huge hermetically sealed oaken vats in our storage cellars, holding tens of thousands of barrels of beer which is kept at a temperature of 33 degrees Fahrenheit for months until the product is thoroughly matured.

Watch the beer as it is drawn from these vats, filtered through white wood pulp and pumped through our new copper pipe line direct to the bottling department without coming in contact with the air in any way.

Examine our bottling department, the most complete and up to date in the west. Here every bottle is washed seven times and sterilized before filling-filled and sealed at the rate of 72 bottles per minute—then pasteurized by the approved process.

"Did you serve any dinners or suppers to members late at night?" Witness answered "yes," but he did not attend many of these himself, as he had other work to attend to. He paid the bills however, at the hotel cafes. How much these amounted to be could not say, as all the records had been destroyed. When asked why they were destroyed, Mr. Worrall said he did not think it was right to keep them, as some of the work done might be considered wrong. Then Mr. Smith asked: "Isn't it a fact that you did not expend all that money, or anywhere near all of it, and didn't you, as a matter of fact, keep $4,000 for yourself?" The lawyer had not finished the ques tion before the witness was pointing his finger at him, saying: "No, sir; it is not a fact. Every cent of that money was spent as I have stated, every penny of it." "Why did you give those dinners and suppers?" asked Smith when the tiff had did not specify. He said they had succeeded in killing all the bills but one that "were not in the best interest of the Nebraska Grain Dealers' association." On another line Mr. Smith brought from witness the admission that on a capital of $5,000 the Worrall Grain company had made $3,000 in the first six months it was in business. And the witness said all the time the company was irregular. "Well, it pays to be irregular, it seems. If I ever go into the grain business I shall be trregular as h-L' "That all depends on circumstances," replied Mr. Worrall calmly, as he put a match to a new cheroot and stepped down. C. T. Peavey followed and was crossexamined by Mr. Learned on behalf of the Omaha Elevator company. He stuck to his story of rebates and the cross-examination was largely a sparring match between the attorney and the witness. Mr. Peavey was brought to the point of admitting, however, that much of his information was not exactly personal and that some of the things he stated on direct examination were based on what others had told him.

At the conclusion of the cross-examination of Mr. Peavey the further taking of depositions was adjourned until Friday, August 25, at Lincoln.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Aug. 17 .- (Special Telegram.)-The board of directors of the Farmers' Grain and Live Stock association held a lengthy conference tonight with former Chief Justice Sullivan, representing the state, and Attorney F. S. Howell, representing Tom Worrall in the grain case now on. A discussion of the evidence aiready taken in the case and the procedure to secure more evidence was the theme of the conference. The grain men assured Judge Sullivan they would stay in the fight to the finish and assist the state in every way possible, Attorney General Brown could not be present tonight and another meeting will be held in the morning.

The taking of depositions in the case set fer tomorrow has been postponed for one week by mutual agreement of the attorneys. The grain men present tonight were J. C. Canaday of Minden, O. G. Smith of Kearney, L. S. Deets of Kearney, James T. Brady of Albion, D. W. Baker of Benedict, J. M. Ellers of Gretna and D. J. Gates of Albion, composing the entire membership of the board of directors.

Trial of George Haecke in Justice Foster's Court Will Be Lengthy. The case of attempting to commit arson filed in Justice Foster's court by Andrew Wellman of McArdle precinct against his ong-drawn-out affair. The entire afteroon yesterday was taken up by the proserution in presenting but a part of its case. The case will be continued in Foster's court next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Haecke is charged with firing a strawstack owned by the plaintiff, Andrew Wellman, who is lessee of the Cremona stock farm, which is about nine miles west of the city. The stack was burned about 3 p. m last Saturday while Mr. and Mrs. Wellman were in Omaha.

Announcements of the Theaters. On Tuesday evening next May Irwin will make her first appearance in Omaha for ome seasons, coming this time in the play that lured her back to the stage, and which was such a great success last year in New York. "Mrs. Black is Back" is from the pen of George V. Hobart, the well known ing a gambling house. numorist, and was written to afford the buxom May a chance to display her well known fun-making abilities. She sings some songs in the course of the play, and generally has her own way. The company is the same that supported her on Broadway, and the production is the same, so that the play will be given as perfectly as possible in the matter of detail. The engagement is for one night only, Tuesday, The point was not pushed and witness

AT THE PLAY HOUSES.

'The Human Slave" at the Krug. A play that is as good as its name, and no better, and a company that is equal to the play and no more, opened at the Krug for the last half of the current week last night. "The Human Slave" is one of the modern type of melodrama that purports to afford a climax at the end of every act, with plenty of heroic action for the hero and his wife and an equal amount of dasneighbor, George Haecke, promises to be a tardly and futile villainy for the villain and his coadjutor. It does this, without regard to consistency or probability. The heroics are loudly applauded and the villainy is hissed with equal enthusiasm. The piece will be played again tonight and tomorrow will be given at a matines and evening performance.

Poker Joint Raided.

Poker Joint Haided.

The police made another raid on a poker joint at 1866 Howard street last night and arrested Carl Clark the proprietor, on a charge of keeping a gambling house, and five men who were in the room at the time on a charge of being inmates of a gambling house. When the officers entered the place the six men were sitting around a table with all the paraphernalia requisite to the carrying on of a real poker game. The patrol wagon was called and all were taken to the station. Clark is now under bonds to appear before the district court at the next session to answer to a charge of keeping a gambling house.

Had Too Many Trousers. Patrolman John Shepherd is of the opinion Patrolman John Shepherd is of the opinion that if a man has twenty-one pairs of trousers in his possession at one time he is getting beyond the limit in that line, and for that reason he arrested one Joseph Myers, who claims St. Paul, Minn., as his home. Myers admits having disposed of the trousers to a South Tenth street dealer, but claims that he was in Ames, Neb., and traded an old watch for them, but the police believe that he secured them by some other means. He was sent to the station on a charge of being a suspicious character.
