

NEWS OF THE WEST FROM IOWA

COUNCIL BLUFFS

MINGE MENTION.

Devis sells drugs. Stocker sells carpets. Plumbing and heating. Fixby & Son.

Dr. Woodbury, dentist, 20 Pearl street. Woodring-Schmidt, undertakers. Tel. 233.

Leffert's improved tonic gives life and vitality. Evette's laundry, 522 Pearl. Lowest prices.

Pyrographic artists and supplies. C. E. Thayer, 22 Broadway. Fall term Western Iowa college opens August 7.

County Surveyor Thomas Testevins is seriously ill at his home on Park avenue. Duncan, 22 Main st., guarantees to do the best shoe repair work.

Received a large shipment of picture moulding. Boywick, 211 S. Main St., Tel. 983. Harmony chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold its annual memorial service August 28.

Dr. Lucella E. Dean, homoeopath, diseases of women and children. Room 4, Brown Bldg., 208 N. 10th.

Mrs. Mabel Taylor of East Broadway is home from a visit with relatives at Red Oak and Iowa.

Mrs. and Mrs. E. Wright of Fourth avenue have as their guest Miss Daisy Major of Des Moines.

Fred Shaw, a young lad, charged with assaulting Thomas Pilling, was discharged in the Circuit court yesterday.

Charles E. Baldwin and Ross L. Marsh, both of Omaha, were married in this city yesterday.

John Henry, the negro arrested with several postoffice money orders in his possession, is being held for investigation.

A building permit has been issued to John Reno for repairs costing $7,000 on the building recently purchased by him on Pearl street.

Lost—Between Leffert's jewelry store and the Third avenue, a gold brooch set with pearls and diamonds, valued at $100.

The Odd Fellows in the lodge of this city will hold their annual picnic tomorrow afternoon in Fairmount. A number of prizes will be given and a basket dinner will be served at 4:30 o'clock.

In the case of E. S. Sampson against W. J. White, Justice Field yesterday handed down his decision, ordering the defendant to remove the fence within thirty days from the twenty-nine lots in Sampson's addition.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

Under a special permit from Deputy Fish and game warden E. C. Brown, employees of the motor company are today engaged in deepening the river at the last overlook below Lake Manawa. All fish that thus caught are returned to the lake.

Burglars succeeded in raiding C. E. Brown's place at Lake Manawa the night of August 1, getting away with the cash box containing about $60. The box broken open and its contents were scattered about the basement of the building. The fact of the robbery only became known by the receipt of a street fair carnival committee, following the custom of former years, sent up a number of tickets to the fair, to be used in the purchase of prizes.

WATER WORKS BILL PASSED

Council Refuses to Entertain Proposition from the Water Company.

DISPUTE OVER SIDEWALK CONTRACT

Wickham Refuses to Sign it with the Penalty Clause Attached and Finally Carries His Point and it is Left Out.

The city council last night passed the ordinance providing for the municipal ownership of the waterworks either by purchase of the existing plant or the construction of a new system.

The ordinance, which had passed to its third reading at the previous session, was taken up section by section and several slight changes made in some of the sections.

The most important change made was to increase the interest rate on bonds to be issued for the plant from 4 to 5 per cent.

This change was made at the instance of Alderman Weaver, because of the "uncertainty of the money market."

Just prior to the ordinance being brought up Alderman Olson, chairman of the standing committee on waterworks, handed the city clerk a communication from the waterworks company and asked that it be read.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

To this Alderman Weaver objected and insisted on the ordinance being read first and then carrying his motion to amend.

On the conclusion of the reading he moved the final passage of the ordinance Attorney Wright on behalf of the waterworks company asked that the communication be read before the motion was put.

DEMANDS DETENTION HOME

Blame for Failure of Juvenile Court Law Laid on the City Council.

SPACE FOR STOCK AT FAIR ALL TAKEN

Exhibitors Ask for Place to Put Up Tents, but Management is Unable to Grant Even that Privilege.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Aug. 21.—(Special.)—In the hopes of getting something done toward a detention home as provided for in the juvenile court law, Mrs. Isaac Hill, wife of the ex-mayor, went before the city council today and asked that unless another detention home was found and the matter was to be dropped, the law provides that cities and counties can provide a detention home as a part of the punishment for children and provides that they cannot be kept in jails or penitentiaries. It is held that the law cannot be given a proper experiment without a home. Mrs. Hill said some very sharp things to the council today and said that the supervisors would not let Tracy home if the city would extend the lease for six months, that lawlessness was growing with the children because they could not be detained and that the blame for this was on the city council for not acting sooner.

No Cut Rates Yet.

Representatives of various railroads in Iowa state today that they have thus far no instructions to cut rates on grain to the Gulf to meet the competition of the Great Western, but expect such instructions in a short time if the Great Western keeps up the cut rates.

At the office of the Board of Control today it was stated that there were no new cases of diphtheria at the Soldiers' Orphan's home at Davenport and it is believed the disease is in check and there will be no new cases.

No Rooms for Tenants.

At the office of the secretary of the state fair today a telegram was received from one of the largest breeders of Berkshire hogs in the country asking for space to pitch a tent in which to make an exhibit, as the pens in the sheds are all taken. It was found that no space could be furnished even for a tent. One entire exhibit of Clydesdale horses was refused also because of there being no room even to pitch a private tent for an exhibit.

He Is Very Low.

A telegram was received from Toronto late today saying that E. H. Hayes, secretary of the Iowa State Traveling Men's association and also secretary of the Catholic order of Knights of Columbus, is lying between life and death at that place. He was sent home from an international gathering of insurance men in Canada when he was taken with severe hemorrhages some days ago. It is feared now he will not recover. He was born at Mount Pleasant, Ia., in 1862 and has been secretary of the Iowa Traveling Men's association since 1890.

File Petition Monday.

F. X. Matthes said today that the brewery petition would be filed with the city council Monday. It is claimed by Secretary of the state Anti-Saloon league that the petition has been given up by getting enough signatures. It is claimed by Matthes that signatures will be kept in the field till Monday and that enough signatures will have been secured by that time.

Appoint New Trainmaster.

F. W. Rosser, trainmaster of the Rock Island with offices here, has been transferred to the Illinois division to take the place made vacant by W. G. Heid, taking the position of superintendent of construction. Fred H. Patten, of Des Moines, has been appointed to succeed Mr. Rosser. Mr. Patten has been in charge of the Rock Island at Estherville.

Romance is Exploded.

In the local papers some days since there was printed a story that Miss Fannie Freeburg, a waiter at Nisley's cafe in this city was to be married to a wealthy French ranchman of Arizona and that they would go there to live. Today it was given out that the ranchman was merely the French chef of the Chamberlains hotel and that neither his wife and children here nor Miss Freeburg knew where he is. The wedding was to have been held last Thursday.

Governor Talks at Wick.

Governor Cummins will deliver an address tomorrow at Wick in Warren county, at an annual affair that is without parallel in this state. It is called a field day meet. The contests are with the farmers and their wives in plowing, pig baking, and other similar events as the attractive features. Hundreds of entries have been made and prizes are given.

Editor is Missing.

C. H. Peterson, former editor of the Wesley News-World, has been missing since he came to Des Moines two weeks ago.

When Peterson reached Des Moines he had $40 on his person, and his Wesley friends believe that he may have been waylaid and robbed.

Three weeks ago Peterson went to Minneapolis for a short visit with friends. Remaining there a few days he went to a small Illinois town and later intended coming to Des Moines.

Colored Pythians Meet.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 21.—The thirtieth biennial session of the supreme lodge, colored, Knights of Pythias, of North and South America, Europe, Asia, Australia, the Hawaiian Islands and the West Indies, convened here today. The organization was formed forty-two years ago as an offshoot of the white fraternal society of the same name. It has a membership of over 60,000 persons, in which are included many of the leading educators, professional and otherwise prominent men and women of the race.

Government to Breed Horses.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The Department of Agriculture has decided to establish other breeding stations besides that at Fort Collins, Colo., and will send mares of a selected type to Indian City farm, Fontana, Ill., to be bred to Axford, the greatest son of Astell and regarded as one of the best types in the country to beget horses known as the Bureau of animal industry intends to co-operate with breeders of other states who have horses of the conformation and they preferred to produce a national standard of general utility horse. A number of horsemen called at the department today and offered Dr. D. E. Salmon their support.

HYMENEAL.

Banta-Sherwood.

OXFORD, Neb., Aug. 21.—(Special.)—A quiet wedding ceremony was the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sherwood last evening united their eldest daughter, Miss Grace, to Richard L. Banta. Rev. John Taylor of Holbrook officiating.

Cotton Census Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The census bureau today issued a supplemental report on the quantity of cotton ginned from the crop of 1904, showing a total growth for the year as fixed by the ginners to be 13,972,775 bales, counting a round bale as a one-half bale, instead of 13,667,782 bales.

WITH THE BOWLERS.

The Krug Parks won two games and finished twenty-four pins in the lead in a match with Captain Snyder's All Star aggregation last night. The Krugs were running easy at the end of the second game, but the Stars rolled the highest game yet bowled for their third and came near winning the match with a score of 212-190.

KRUG PARKS.

1st. 2nd. 3rd. Tot. City..... 207 192 151-550 Zimmerman..... 175 174 151-500 Hull..... 131 169 203-501 Residual..... 188 212 259-659 Tot