

CITY LABORERS COMPLAIN

Assert They Are Docketed for Time Going to Get Warrants.

PREFER TO WAIT MONTH FOR PAY

Chief Clerk Coburn of Street Commissioner's Office Says No Time Is Lost in This Manner.

Complaints are being made by teamsters and other employees by the Park commission that they are forced to lose an appreciable amount of wages because they have to go to the city hall for their warrants.

The commission has not yet started to pay the men on the weekly plan as directed by the charter, but the employees are objecting to a change, saying that the trip to the city hall every week will be so expensive they would prefer to wait a month or more for their pay.

Park Superintendent Adams has figured it out that a teamster must lose $1.09 every time he comes to the city hall during working hours, and as the commissioner's office is open at no other time, the teamsters and laborers have to lose, as they are docketed for the absence by the park foreman. Four trips each month would mean a loss of more than $4 to the teamster and about half as much to the laborer.

No Time Taken from Men. According to William Coburn, chief clerk in the street commissioner's office and for a long time in charge of the payroll of the public works department, no time is ever taken from the wages of the city employees for journeying to the city hall to procure and cash their warrants. In some cases the men have been required to make up time lost by working overtime, but it seems they always have had the privilege of making the trip for their money.

Most of the men who do not assign their wages are able to get here during the noon hour, when they can get their warrants the same as at any other time of the day," said Deputy Comptroller Coogrove. "The percentage of men who turn over their pay to brokers and draw in advance is large. These men never come out of the city hall to exceed 10 percent of the assignments. Its chief result has been to increase the discount paid to the broker. Formerly 3 percent a month was charged. Now it is 3 percent a week.

Never Heard Complaints. "I never heard any complaint from laborers or teamsters about losing time and wages by having to come to the city hall for their warrants. I have known cases, however, where foremen stood in line in gloves with the money lenders and on failure to induce men under them to assign their pay threatened to dock them for time lost if they went to the city hall. I do not know that any foreman ever carried out his threat, however."

The charter makers planned to reduce warrant shaving by the weekly payment plan, but in this respect the innovation is a practical failure. The men who used to assign their pay whenever they felt the need of a dollar do the same as usual. The thrifty workman who manages to keep a little ahead of the game lets his warrants accumulate for three or four weeks before calling for them. Meanwhile the brokers get rich."

DENIES REGENTS IN POLITICS

Regent Ernst Calls on Rev. Ludden to Produce Correspondence on Which Charge is Made.

"I wish you would say for me," said C. J. Ernst of the auditor's department, to one of the members of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska, "that the Lincoln correspondent has been misled into making statements about the university regents seeking to control the nominations of members to be elected in November, which are unfair and unwarranted by the facts."

"I do not hesitate to say that I am the individual who wrote the letter to Dr. Ludden upon which this charge 'read between the lines' is based, but the letter itself will bear out no such construction. I herewith ask my friend, Dr. Ludden, either to withdraw the charge entirely and unreservedly, in a public manner, or else give out for publication in full his communication to me of July 5, last, broaching his candidacy for regent, and my reply, likewise in full. While this correspondence begun by Dr. Ludden is of a strictly personal nature, I have not the slightest objection to its being submitted to the eyes of every citizen of Nebraska, for it will most convincingly show the very opposite of the present insinuation."

"Not only has the Board of Regents, ever since I have been a member, refrained scrupulously from trying to influence the nominations made for regents, but politics has never been considered in any of the matters which have come up for action."

RAMACCIOTTI AT HIS OFFICE

City Veterinarian Appears at City Hall, but Will Not Assume Duties Till September.

Dr. H. L. Ramacciotti, city veterinarian and food inspector, appeared on crutches at the health office Tuesday morning and reported for duty. He has been off duty several months owing to blood poisoning causing the amputation of his left foot. During his absence City Market Master Gefke has been looking after the food inspection part of his work. The chances are that the doctor will not resume active operations until September 1. He can procure and use an artificial foot he will get about on crutches.

Suit for Entry of Lot.

Little M. Clemons has brought suit for $1000 damages in the United States circuit court against the Nebraska Underwriters' Insurance company. The suit is for the value of forcible entry and detainer and is twenty-two feet of lot 4, block 121, Omaha, of which the plaintiff claims ownership. The defendant claims that the plaintiff's possession of the property in question since November 11, 1904, absorbing all the rentals and profits therefrom, amounting in the aggregate to $1000, is wrongful and that the plaintiff asks the aid of the court, with costs of suit.

FREE DEAFNESS, CATARRH CURE.

Deaf 20 Years—Cured. Twenty years ago I had the Lagrippe and it settled in my ears, causing them to close up and pain me; my ears were sore. I lost my hearing rapidly. At last my ear began to discharge fetid matter and I got deaf as a post in that ear. I tried everything. One specialist treated me one year without result. He said I could not be cured. I treated with another specialist in Des Moines, Ia., without any results. I went to Dr. Branaman. He applied his New Cure and I am now able to hear the clock tick anywhere in the room. The discharge does not bother me. I hear all ordinary conversation splendidly. I have not felt so well in twenty years. I am just splendid in every way and advise all who are afflicted to consult Dr. Branaman.
