in the Doubles.

Again was the west victorious in the tennis tournament at the Field club when Haves of Toledo, Ia., defeated Peters, the crack representative from Chicago, who had been picked as the favorite at the tournament. The Sloux City contingent, however, not only picked Hayes as a winner, but also backed their opinion with the coin of the realm. Hayes won the respect of the Sloux City players in Hayes also used his long reach to play closer to the net, and it seemed as if Peters could not place the ball beyond his Peters did not seem to play with the vim that he displayed in his match the day before with Gilman, and did not put the steam into either his serves or his re-

Pueblo Swats the Ball.

Pueblo Swata the Ball. PUEBLO, Colo., Aug. 35-With a swat-fest that was almost slaughter the Indians annihilated the Saints today with the one-cided score of 18 to 3. After a batting slump extending over a period of three days the locals got into form again and rolled up a total of iwenty-iwo hits off Fair and Lieb-hardt. Faurot, the Pueblo twirler who was given a tryout by Schriver last week and won a brilliant game, duplicated his work. He played a heady game and held the Saints down to six hits. Score: PUEBLO, ST.
