

OMAHA WINS DOUBLE-HEADER

Champions Outplay Des Moines Both Games Before Six Thousand Fans.

CANTILLON CANNOT STAND DEFEAT

Visitors' Manager Abuses Umpire Caruthers, Who Quits After First Game and Sends Hoffman to Grounds.

Just to satisfy the 6,000 fans who had turned out to witness the double-header at Vinton street park Sunday afternoon the champions took both games from the league leaders, the first game by the score of 5 to 3 and the second by the score of 6 to 4. Both games were filled with lively incidents from start to finish.

Hall and Chappelle were the opposing slugs in the opening of the first game, but the champions secured three hits in each of the first two innings so that Wolfe, who had been catching, was put in to pitch out a game that was supposed to be lost. Hall held the underwriters without a hit in the first inning, gave them four hits with three tallies in the second and then shut them out without a hit or run in the third, when he was forced to retire with an injured shoulder caused by a collision at first.

The loss of Hall will make the team short for the balance of the Des Moines series, for Pfeiffer is out of the game also, being slightly indisposed. Rourke has secured Kelly, another find from Grand Island, the town which has turned out some good ones, and he will report today, which may help out some.

Omaha Makes Two in First.

Omaha made two runs in the first inning by hitting the bases. Thiel singled and Carter bunted safe. Dolan sacrificed then on a notch and Welch scored them both with a single to right. In the second inning Dolan and Hall singled. Thiel was given a life on Hoggie's error and Carter's single scored Hall. Goding having come home on Hoggie's error, Dolan bunted safe, scoring Thiel, and Welch hit a high one to McGilvray. Carter scoring on the throw. Two more were added in the third and another in the sixth, at which Manager Cantillon of Des Moines, a poor loser and coarse bluffer, was ordered from the grounds for abusive language to the umpire.

Omaha made two fast double plays in the first game and otherwise played well in spite of the error committed by Dolan. Quick and Manke were sent in to do the honors for the second game and it looked for a time as if the honors would be won by Mr. Manke, for he did not give a Champ a sign of a hit until the sixth inning, when they jumped on him for fast. Des Moines had made a tally in the second inning when McGilvray singled, went to second on a passed ball and scored on McNichols' single.

Eddie Lawler's Double.

Thiel started the great sixth inning by striking out Carter hit one that McNichols juggled and Dolan singled. Welch hit a hard drive to the right field fence that looked like it would do the business, but McGilvray extended that elongated form of his against the Illinois Central sign and pulled it down from the glove mitt. Schipke was hit by a pitched ball, which filled the bases with two out. Thomas stepped into the breach with a single which scored Carter and Dolan and then Eddie Lawler, who played a great game, brought Schipke and Thomas home by a double to left.

Des Moines made two more in the seventh inning on a hit, a base on balls and two errors. One more was made by the underwriters in the eighth, which tied the score. Hoggie hit one that Schipke Bill could not handle, went to second on Long's out and scored on Roseman's single, which came near to scolding Quick.

Dolan led off with a single in the eighth and was sacrificed to second by Welch. Schipke hit one. McNichols which the latter could not handle, Dolan coming home on the play, but Schipke went out at second when Thomas hit the ball to the pitcher. Thomas stole second and Lawler hit for a third time, scoring Thomas, making Omaha two to the good, which was the score when the game ended.

Cantillon's Hoodlumism.

A most regrettable feature of yesterday's proceedings at Vinton street park was the resignation of Bobby Caruthers as umpire at the close of the first game. He was urged to continue, but said he could not stand the vile abuse heaped on him by Manager Mike Cantillon of the Des Moines team. Caruthers put Cantillon off the bench about the middle of the game on account of the continued stream of profanity and obscenity that was flowing from the Des Moines manager. As he walked off the field Cantillon applied the vilest epithets in his vocabulary to the umpire and threatened in most scurrilous manner to Caruthers to stay and umpire the second game, promising him protection in the discharge of his duties, but Bobby said he would not continue in the employ of a league in which such a man could hold his position as manager.

Cantillon when put off the field, but seemed to enjoy the notoriety he had achieved. His departure from Omaha this evening will be little regretted, for he has really done the game great harm by his antics since he became a manager. He is the only manager who comes to Omaha who is thoroughly detested by the patrons of the game.

Today will be ladies' day and also the last game of this series on the home grounds. Score, first game:
