ACHIEVEMENTS OF MAGIC CITY EXPLOITED

City Treasurer Howe Has Envelope with Information Printed on Back to Send to His Ont-of-Town Correspondents.

City Treasurer Howe is advertising the Magic City by means of data printed on the back of the envelopes he uses in his ffice. According to the information gathered by the treasurer the city has twentyone and a half miles of water mains and seven miles of paved streets. Ten miles of street car tracks are in use and the same umber of miles of gas mains. There are 152 street are lights and 225 fire hydrants. The public school property is valued at $538,000, the postoffice at $100,000 and the public library at $50,000. Viaducts costing $150,000 are in service. At the present time thirty-three miles of graded streets are in good condition. The assessed valeation for 905 is $21,125,000, and the tax levy is 7% At the present time the general bonded debt of the city is $601.188. Ten railroads enter the city. For the year ending July 31, 1905, 300 building permits were issued, representing an expenditure of $336,660. These envelopes are used especially for outof-town correspondence, and were printed for the purpose of letting non-residents know what is going on in the city.

Improving Lewis Block. Contractor Fluor started Wednesday makng some repairs and alterations to the Lewis block, Twenty-fourth and L streets. Another story is to be built after the roof has been raised, and light shafts are to be placed in the building. It is expected that F. J. Lewis, the owner of the property, will spends about $3,000 in improving this property. Stores now occupy the ground floor and when completed offices and living rooms will be arranged for the second and third floors.

Big Price for Range Beeves. There was considerable stir at the stock yards yesterday when forty head of Wy oming beeves averaging 1,300 pounds sold for $5 the hundred weight. The cattle were the property of Clark & Carpenter of Lit tle Bear, Wyo., and attracted a great deal of attention on account of the quality and finish. Most of the herd were 3-year-olds. and besides being well bred were dehorned. Mr. Carpenter brought the shipment in and was more than pleased with the results. He said that instead of being turned out on the range last winter the herd was kept up and fed plenty of hay. Mr. Carpenter appeared so well pleased with this market that he asserted that he could see narkets with their cattle.

Announcements of the Theaters. "Sunday," the play by Thomas Race-ward, in which Ethel Barrymore will open the season at the Boyd on Monday evening. is based on incidents in connection with life in a mining camp during the early days. Sunday is a girl who has grown up amid the rude surroundings, and who suddenly comes to realize that she is a woman. About the same time this dawns on the men who have been her companions. The incidents are beautifully soven together to make a most interesting and dramatic story. The engagement in Omaha is for two nights only. Seats are now on sale.
