

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC DENVER

SEPT. 4-7, 1905.

VIA

UNION PACIFIC

$10.75 FOR THE ROUND TRIP.

Tickets on sale August 30 to Sept. 4, inclusive.

ON SEPTEMBER 2d AND 4th Special Trains Leave Omaha 11.30 P. M.

EVERY DAY, AUG. 30th TO SEPT. 4th

Trains Leave Omaha 7.45 A. M. Trains Leave Omaha 4.10 P. M.

Trains Leave Omaha (via Cheyenne) 4.20 P. M. Provided with extra chair cars, extra tourist cars, extra standard sleepers, etc.

$10.75 FOR THE ROUND TRIP.

Tickets on sale Aug. 30 to Sept. 4, inclusive.

Stop-overs allowed on all through tickets to attend celebration of

FRONTIER DAYS

CHEYENNE, WYOMING

Sept. 2, 4 and 5, 1905.

ONLY LINE TO DENVER VIA CHEYENNE.

INQUIRE AT CITY TICKET OFFICE, 1324 FARNAM ST. 'PHONE 316.

BROWN FILES WOODMEN SUIT

Asks Supreme Court to Order Assessment of Reserve Fund.

STATE BOARD HOLDS UP NUMBER OF BILLS

Secretary Shaw to Address the Next Convention of the Nebraska Bankers Which Meets at Lincoln in October.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Aug. 31.—(Special.)—Upon behalf of Governor Mickey, Attorney General Brown today filed a petition for a peremptory writ of mandamus to compel County Clerk Drexel to docket county tax returns.

August Bills Allowed. The State Board of Public Lands and Buildings met this afternoon and allowed all claims for maintenance for the month of August and thus saved the remainder of the 1904 appropriations from lapsing.

Shaw Talks in Lincoln. Leslie M. Shaw, secretary of the treasury, will deliver an address in Lincoln October 24 before the meeting of the Nebraska State Bankers' association.

Drug Bills Held Up. The Board of Public Lands and Buildings held up the claim of A. M. Clark, a Hastings druggist, for two gallons of cascara sagrada for $20 and will settle with the druggist providing he is willing to take $8 in full payment.

Use the Best FULLY GUARANTEED For any use where good coal is desired.

Advertisement for Keystone Coal and Supply Co., featuring a logo and contact information.

gallon." Under the contract this would have made the bill for the two gallons $8 and the druggist was so notified by Record Clerk Adair Galusha. In explanation the druggist cited the board's attention to another item in the contract which read, "Fluid extract cascara sagrada $1.25 a pound." He then said at $1.25 a pound the two gallons would amount to $25, there being eight pounds to the gallon.

Spends All of Appropriation. By strenuous hustling the university registers managed to wipe out the remainder of an $8,000 appropriation for the purchase of books today before it lapsed back to the state treasury.

Plans for Labor Day. The labor unions of Lincoln met last night and decided on the order of their lineup in the parade to be given in Beatrice on Labor day.

State Fair Notes. Everybody and everything will be at the State fair. The biggest corn, the finest wheat and, in fact, the best farm products ever exhibited in the state will be there.

Objects to Prisoners' Diet. OSCEOLA, Neb., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—About twenty days ago Judge Ball of the county court sentenced Oscar Erickson and Earl Hare to the county jail, and the last twenty days of the sentence was to be on bread and water.

Paying Out Inheritance Tax. While the county judge of Douglas is holding that the inheritance tax law is unconstitutional, and while the attorneys are arguing on testing the law in the courts, State Treasurer Mortenson is all but through paying out the little less than $10,000 which under the old law was paid into the state treasury.

BAPTISTS IN CONVENTION

Fifty Delegates Present Representing Churches in Eastern Part of State.

SEVERAL INTERESTING ADDRESSES MADE

Rev. George Van Winkle of South Omaha Elected Moderator and Rev. B. F. Fellman of Omaha Clerk.

WAHOO, Neb., Aug. 31.—(Special Telegram.)—The Omaha Baptist association, comprising the Baptist churches of the central district of eastern Nebraska, met at the Wahoo Baptist church and was called to order by the moderator, Rev. George Van Winkle of South Omaha.

The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. B. F. Fellman of Omaha on "The Mission of the Church." He asserted that the church, scripturally constituted, is a body of saints, whose mission is not to be construed at a time.

Rev. Samuel Z. Batten, D. D., of Lincoln gave an exposition of the first chapter of Revelation. He said that the book was an unveiling of Jesus Christ and one containing most important truth for the church.

Rev. L. C. H. Biggs of Omaha declared that the world never more than today needs the truths taught by the Bible. Men may be conscientious, but are only free as they know the truth.

M. G. MacLeod of Omaha spoke from the standpoint of the teacher and lamented incompetence in instruction and especially a tendency to disregard the nature of boyhood.

The following officers were elected: Moderator, Rev. George Van Winkle of South Omaha; clerk, Rev. B. F. Fellman of Omaha; treasurer, George Haskins of South Omaha.

Holdups at Beatrice. BEATRICE, Neb., Aug. 31.—(Special Telegram.)—C. F. Kimberly, while en route home from the railroad yards this morning and lodged in jail, suspected of being implicated in the holdup.

WOODMEN DAY AT THE CARNIVAL

Fallade Succeeds in Taking Liberal Share of Prizes.

M'COOK, Neb., Aug. 31.—(Special Telegram.)—Woodmen day brought a largely increased crowd to the carnival today.

The log rolling for prizes Fallade camp first in the wood cutting contest. He also won last year. William Stock of Culbertson was second.

SPRINGFIELD, Neb., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—Born in slavery in Clay county, Missouri, in the year 1860, at the home of Ashby Peters, sold at auction along with his mother and five brothers and sisters, but through the intervention of Madam Peters not delivered to his new masters, remaining upon the old homestead, and finally going as a present to the elder son of the family.

Old Master and Slave Meet. SPRINGFIELD, Neb., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—Born in slavery in Clay county, Missouri, in the year 1860, at the home of Ashby Peters, sold at auction along with his mother and five brothers and sisters, but through the intervention of Madam Peters not delivered to his new masters, remaining upon the old homestead, and finally going as a present to the elder son of the family.

Oakland Man Commits Suicide. OAKDALE, Neb., Aug. 31.—(Special Telegram.)—J. S. Dewey, one of the pioneer settlers of Antelope county, and for many years engaged in the hardware business at this place, committed suicide today by shooting himself in the head with a revolver. He was 48 years of age.

OSCEOLA.—There is considerable grain coming to market here, and while the quality is growing better every day, yet the price declines in wheat, oats and corn. The market today is: Wheat, 61c; oats, 19c; corn, 14c; hogs, $3.50.

NEBRASKA CITY.—The unveiling of the Grand Army of the Republic monument at the Soldiers' Home will not take place until some time in October.

BEATRICE.—About fifty members of the Grand Army of the Republic, of this city, went to Wynora yesterday to attend the interment of the late Mrs. J. W. Williams, who died here last week.

BEATRICE.—Yesterday at noon at the home of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. J. E. Cobbe, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lucille Cobbe, to Mr. J. William Thomas, a newspaper man of Kansas City.

DAKOTA COUNTY SEMI-CENTENNIAL

Large Gathering Helps Old Settlers Celebrate the Event.

DAKOTA CITY, Neb., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—Today marked the twenty-fourth time the pioneers and old settlers of Dakota county have gathered together in their annual reunion and picnic to recount the hardships endured in the early settlement of Nebraska to make the state what it is today.

Reed's Fourth regiment band of Sioux City opened the exercises by discoursing music along Broadway, when at 10:30 the exercises were commenced at the park, being opened with music, followed by a prayer by Rev. J. W. Prizzell of the First Congregational church, Sioux City.

OSCEOLA.—There is considerable grain coming to market here, and while the quality is growing better every day, yet the price declines in wheat, oats and corn. The market today is: Wheat, 61c; oats, 19c; corn, 14c; hogs, $3.50.

NEBRASKA CITY.—The unveiling of the Grand Army of the Republic monument at the Soldiers' Home will not take place until some time in October.

BEATRICE.—About fifty members of the Grand Army of the Republic, of this city, went to Wynora yesterday to attend the interment of the late Mrs. J. W. Williams, who died here last week.

BEATRICE.—Yesterday at noon at the home of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. J. E. Cobbe, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lucille Cobbe, to Mr. J. William Thomas, a newspaper man of Kansas City.

BEATRICE.—The funeral of William Cook, who was drowned in the Blue river northwest of Beatrice Tuesday afternoon, was held this afternoon from the family home at 4 o'clock.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

PLATTSMOUTH—A stranger purchased a handkerchief at the clothing store of William Holly yesterday, after which he was granted permission to go to the rear of the store to remove an electric bell.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

WOOD RIVER.—The dry wind of the last few days puts the country in need of another rain, although there is nothing suffering. Corn in some instances is already dented and out of the way of frost, but there are some late planted fields that have not matured yet.

Advertisement for A. Hospe Co., featuring a logo and contact information.