At this point City Solicitor Snyder took a hand in the game and with some warmth disputed the statement of Wickham that in relaying granite block paving all of the original blocks could not be replaced. The city attorney insisted that if the workmen were given sufficient time they could relay every block. This brought Wickham to his feet with an offer to bet the city attorney $500 that he could not relay a block of granite paving without leaving out a number of the blocks. Mr. Snyder declined to accept the bet, although still maintaining that he was correct in his assertion.

At the suggestion of Alderman Tinley, Captain, J., J., Brown was appointed insector of the work, his compensation to be paid by Independent Telephor pany, which it was incidentally stated during the discussion, was responsible to the city and not Wickham, for any defect in the relaying of the paving over its con-
