Afternoon at Country Club Spent in Sports Whose Delight Lies in Absurdity of Their Nature.

About Abble.

Abbie Ben Adams, may her life be spared.
Awoke one night and felt a trifle scared;
For on her shirtwalst box, cross-legged,
sate
A Vision writing on a little slate.
Exceeding nervousness made Abbie quake;
And to the Vision limidly she spake;
"What writest thou?" The Vision looked appalled

appailed
her presumption, and quite coldly
drawled
list of Our Best People who depart watering places sumptions and "Am I in it?" asked Miss Abbie "No*" The scornful Vision said, "You're poor,

" said Abbie; "I go where It's cheap.

I can't afford mountains or prices steep.

But are you leave, just dot this item down.

I never leave my cats to starve in town.

The Vision wrote, and vanished. Next night late.

He came again and brought his little state.

And showed the names of people really best.

And lo Miss Abbie's name led all the rest —Carolyn Wells in Life.

Social Calendar.

MONDAY-Miss Nell Guild entertains at cards for Miss Mary Read of San Fran-cisco, Miss Faith Hoof's luncheon for the Misses Brack of Hastings, Neb. The Nebraska Ceramic club meets Monday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Wilson.

TUESDAY-Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cald well's dance at Country club, evening.
Luncheon by Mrs. Robert Gilmore for Mrs. Christiancy at Country club.
WEDNESDAY - Donahue - Borghoff wedding. Ladies' day at Country club. Dinner and dance at Field club.

The last week has been well filled with social events, the most notable, of course, being the gymkhana given at the Country club yesterday, which was well attended and acknowledged a brilliant affair. Practically all the smart set were represented. The clubhouse and large porch were one floral bower of garden flowers, which overooked the green velvet-like sward, making an artistic background for the exquisite gowns worn by the women. The secret of the entire success of the program for the day may be attributed to the fact that so-ciety, while "dressed up," did not assume that attitude, but put aside all formality and company nunners and entered into each and every stunt, no matter how ridiculous or ruffling to one's dignity, with so much vim and energy that fun and hilarity reigned unceasingly the entire afternoon and evening. This makes the third gymkhana held at the Country club, and each one has been distinguished equally for the novelty and absurdity of its features.

No less conspicuous for a thoroughly good time were the two dancing parties given this week, one by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. But. Wednesday evening at the Country club, in honor of their niece, Miss Ann Brown of Tennessee, and their son, Mr. home of Mrs. John J. Bourke, for her street. A large reception will follow the daughters, the Misses Ann and Sarah Bourke. Both of these dances were largely the winter in Chicago, returning to Omaha attended by the young college set, who are now making their plans to return to their different schools. By the middle of September most or them will be gone, and their absence will be greatly felt, as they evening at the home of the bride's cousin, have enlivened society to a great extent

The popular girl of today is the one that is up and doing, full of energy and enthusi- lege this year, while Miss Spear is well asm; not sitting idly waiting for something known in musical circles. Mrs. Rose E. Strawn and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McConnell, who are touring Europe together, wrote last Sunday from "Off the Isle of Wight." They said they would land upon "king's soil" Monday, after having a glerious passage. Several other Omaha. people were on board, including Mrs. Joseph Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Greene, Mrs. Elia Nash and Mrs. Lewis They reported all were well, no iliness on board and weather fit for the "gods." Mrs. Strawn and Mr. and Mrs McConnell will go to Ireland and then to the continent, landing in Holland. Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Greene will go to Spain and to "Gibraltar." PRED G. ELLIS GIVEN HIGH PRAISF His Singlag Highly Complimented by Great Paris Teacher. Word has been recently received from Fred G. Ellis of the Normal Conservatory, who went abroad a short time ago to take vocal instruction under M. Boudy. of Paris, the greatest living teacher of the voice. Mr. Ellis was asked by him to sing "Dio possente," aria from "Faust," which was rendered in such a fine manner which was rendered in such a fine manner as to bring forth great praise from the renowned teacher, and later when asked to sing "Evening Star," aria from "Tannhauser," the gentleman went into raptures over Mr. Ellis' voice and method. Great credit was also given Prof. Pease. Mr. Ellis' former instructor. He was told that he would have nothing to unlearn, but could go on with him where he left off with Prof. Pease. Mr. Ellis is studying oratorio music, and was a member of the faculty of Detroit Conservatory and a member of the Detroit Central M. E. church choir when he left for his trip abroad.
