a diary. Her parents' house was searched, inasmuch as her elder sister was suspected of revolutionary tendencies. The diary of the younger girl was found and it contained the usual extravagant remarks on the small events of her life, such as lessons and punishments, as well as notes concerning the commissions she had executed for her elder sister. The police drew the conclusion that she had obtained papers and books of a forbidden character for her sister. Both girls were arrested and they have been obliged to spend weeks in the company of women arrested on the worst of criminal charges.

"THE ONLY WAY" TO RIPRAP

It costs no more to riprap with the wire mesh system than it does to fence your farm. It makes a nice smooth bank with gradual slope. Nature grows it to cottonwood, willow and underbrush.
