SIOUX DROP ANOTHER PAIR

Packers Lose Two to Omaha Before a Large Sunday Crowd.

KELLY WELCH SHOWS UP IN GOOD FORM

New Pitcher from Grand Island Makes Favorable Impression by His Work in the Second of the Contests.

The Champs took both ends of a doubleheader at the Vinton street park Sunday afternoon before a goodly crowd of fans the first contest going to ten innings and being won by the score of 4 to 3. The second game was annexed by the one-sided score of 19 to 3. Both McCloskey and Kelly Welch, the Frenchman, were in good form. The latter made a good impression on his first appearance on the Omaha diamond in a Champ uniform.

McCloskey was opposed by Jarrott in the first contest. Jarrott held the Champs to three hits, while the Sloux tribe made a baker's dozen from McCloskey. But the Bloux played bad back of the Rulo boy, while McCloskey was given grand support, although three errors are recorded. Three double plays were executed by the Champs and all were fast. Carter caught a fly from the bat of Pulsifer and nalled Newton at the home plate, the other two doubles being a third strike which Gonding caught and then nailed a runner at second.

Thiel is out of the game with a broken rfb. He was hit by a pitched ball at Des Moines Thursday, but the Des Moines physicians assured him that nothing was broken. Sunday morning he was examined by Dr. Porter, who immediately declared his rib broken, so he will be out of the game for a week at least.

How Omaha Scored.

Omaha made the first run in the third inning, when Lawler led with a single, was sacrificed to second by Gonding and went to third on Carter's single. Carter then started out to execute his part of a double steal and so played the game that Lawler trotted home. In the next inning Welch walked and scored on Quick's triple. A regular comedy of errors scored one more the seventh. After two were out and Gonding on third Jarrott juggled Carter's attempt to bunt and Gonding walked home.

The Sloux tied the score in the ninth inning. Noblit led with a single, Collins, who had replaced Carney who was put Lawler, but it was too easy and as he attempted to toss it to Captain Dolan to re- McGilvray, of 4 1 2 0 0 Reynolds, rf. 4 0 1 0 0 tire the side, he threw the ball over Dolan's head and Jarrott trotted home.

Omaha won the game in the tenth inning, when O'Hara gave Dolan a life by dropping a fly from his bat. Dolan went to second when Welch was hit with the ball and scored on Jarrott's error.

Second Won in the First.

The second game was practically settled in the first inning. Voltz was sent in to oppose Keliey Welch, another of Pa's finds from Grand Island. Voltz lasted just long enough to pass the first three men who faced him, and was then sent to the stable. Hatch was called on, but before he could stop the carnage five Champs had crossed stop the carnage five Champs had crossed the plate, which was more than enough to win the game. Hatch struck out nine men, but was hit safely eleven times with two errors for his team, one of which he made himself. Welch was steady throughout, and after the first fright had worn away pitched magnificent ball. But four men faced him in each of the last four innings. faced him in each of the last four innings and he struck out three men in the sixth the second game, when the captains agreed to quit. Denver lead, 10 to 4.

Denver Wins Both Games.

The second game was apparently lost to Pueblo in the first inning, when the visitors scored four runs on a couple of bases on balls and three hits. In the fourth inning the Cubs swened up the account on singles by Randall and Perrine, passes to Beiden and Everitt and errors by Shriver and Bader. The sixth inning proved the Water-loo of Pitcher Hutter, a recent Pueblo importation. Five hits, a base on balls, several stolen bases and a bunch of errors allowed the Cubs to tally six runs, and caused Shriver to agree to call the game off as hopelessly lost in the seventh inning. Hickman pitched his first game for Denver since his illness and, considering his condition, did creditable work. Engle pitched steady ball in the second game, Miner was the best of the twirlers that performed during the afternoon, but went into the air in the eighth and came down too late. Score, first game:
