 Stop in Omabs.
 Percy Megargel and D. F. Fassett two transcontinental globe frotters, arrived in the city Monday evening in the 'Reo Mountaineer' muchine, enroute from New York to San Francisco via Portland.
 Megargel, who has engaged to furnish the Motor league with data regarding the routes from sea to sea, including a map of bridge, ford, desert and mountain pass, couditions and the facilities for securing oil and water, has been on the road about four weeks.
 He says they are not encountering the rough and wet roads which they did on the $1,000-race last spring when 'Old Scout' and 'Old Steady' raced to the Portland exposition. home they will leave with Mr. Bryan and the youngest child for a long tour of the orient and Europe. The family will sail September 27 on the Manchuria from San Francisco, landing first in Japan about October 15. All the principal eastern countries will be seen and something
