STIMMELL BALKS CHAMPS

Elongated Twirler from Pueblo Gives Good Imitation of Pitching.

OMAHA SHUT OUT IN SECOND GAME

Locals Win First Game by a Score of Three to One, but Could Not Hit Successfully in the Second.

Archie Elongated Stimmell was all that stood between the Champs and another double win at Vinton Street park Saturday afternoon, when an even break was secured with the Pueblo bankers and business men who formerly worked for Tom Stimmell.

All sorts of changes were seen in the Omaha lineup during the day. This was back in the game for the first time, as was also Hall, who had his shoulder cracked a couple of weeks ago. Thomas was out of the game with a throat trouble and Howard was back in Omaha for the third time playing second.

For the second game Carter was added to the list of the injured by being hit on the thigh bone with a pitched ball in the first game and Quick was sent into right garden.

Hall was opposed by Lindsey in the first contest and gave good reason for his reappearance on the diamond. Each pitcher allowed but five hits, although Lindsey hit Carter so as to keep him from the second game and also hit Hall on his lame shoulder, but the big southerner struck it out.

Stimmell a Trifle Better. The second game was a pitchers' battle through and through. McCloskey and Stimmell were the opposing handers of the ball, and Stimmell had considerable the better of the argument on this, permitting to three, to Sluggo Bill and one to Captain Joe Dolan. McCloskey was touched up for a total of eight, but they were so well scattered that no harm would have resulted but for an error that Freese made at the wrong time.

For six straight innings but three men to an inning faced Mr. Stimmell and not a man was left on bases. Pueblo made its only rally in the fifth inning, when Bill Schriver staged, went to second on Graham's single and came home when Stimmell singled to Quick. The latter returned the ball in plenty of time to catch Schriver, but the Butcher dropped the ball and the winning score was 1-0.

For a time in the ninth the hopes of the fans were in the air, when Dolan doubled, Welch's out put him on third and Sluggo Bill the mighty came up—the only man who had hit Mr. Stimmell at all, except the double that the captain had just made. He looked like the man who was to tie the score. He hit the ball hard enough to knock Stimmell down, but the sphere glided into the territory covered by Mr. Knabe and the game was over.

Umpire Mace had a sore throat and Old Man Bill Schriver insisted on calling balls and strikes for him until Mace quit the game. Rourke, however, induced him to return. Stimmell had the same pocketful of resin which he had on his last trip and used the resin ball continuously.

The same teams will play a double-header this afternoon at the same place, the first game to be called at 2:30. Score, first game:
