Fight is Delayed Over an Hour by Wrangle Over the Choice of Umpire—Bets Are Declared Off.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—In a fight that will long stand in a class of its own in the history of ring contests...

It was the story of many another ring contest—the success of the strong, sturdy, enduring fighter against a clever, cool boxer. This in brief is a description of Nelson and Britt's ring characteristics...

Britt's Only Chance. Only once, in the third round, did it appear to those close enough to judge the tide of battle that Britt might win...

Nelson was always the first to begin rounds, though not always the first to land a blow. Time after time he came along after Britt, much after the style of Fitzsimmons...

Britt is Knocked Out. The eighteenth proved to be the last round for Britt. A detailed account of that round, which lasted about two minutes, shows little difference from the others...

Bets Declared Off. Referee Graneley caused much surprise after he had been chosen to act by declaring all bets off...
