

CALM FOLLOWS THE STORM

Peace Dwells Again Between Aged Husband and Youthful Wife.

POLICE EFFECT THE RECONCILIATION

Colored Man of Sixty-Eight Steps Woman of Twenty-Seven When Latter Disturbs His Serenity at Breakfast Table.

December and May were sent on their ways rejoicing by the police magistrate Tuesday morning, when James Watkins, a venerable colored man, voluntarily presented himself before the police judge to answer to a charge of assault and battery he believed his youthful wife would fight against him.

The frosts of many winters have tinged the old man's locks a kindly gray, while the bloom of youth still gently rests on the young wife's cheeks. Watkins is 68 years of age, while his helpmate is but 27. According to Watkins' story the culmination of his recent, domestic troubles came Tuesday morning at the breakfast table. The old man had just impaled his fork into a juicy porkchop and was about to make an incision with his knife, when the wife across the face, just to show her her place in the home. Then the wife donned her bonnet and said she would go to police court and swear out a warrant for her husband. Watkins hitched up his wicker, threw his slatting tools into the vehicle and arrived at station about two lengths behind his wife.

Gads About Too Much. In his story to the police magistrate Watkins said his wife had been in the habit of "gadding about too much," that she went all the way to South Omaha last week without seeing his permission and that she has on several recent occasions paid undue attention to another man. Several of the police officers, who have known Watkins for years as a hard-working bread-winner and husband, say the real trouble in the Watkins home is that the wife is jealous of the husband. It is a matter of record that Watkins has lived in Omaha forty-eight years and has been the father of thirteen children. The latest report is that the Watkins have buried the meat axe and are living but for one another.

OMAHANS MARRIED IN DENVER

R. Beecher Howell and Mrs. Alice S. Cullingham Are United in Matrimony.

The announcement of the wedding of Mrs. Alice S. Cullingham and Mr. R. Beecher Howell, both of Omaha, which took place Tuesday at Denver, will come as a surprise to the majority of the friends of both parties in Omaha. In fact, so carefully have the plans for the wedding been guarded that inquiry at the home of the bride, Thirty-second and Pacific streets, Tuesday, brought only the information that the wedding had taken place some time during the day, probably at one of the churches in Denver.

Mrs. Cullingham and her little son left Omaha last Thursday for Denver to join her mother, Mrs. S. V. Chase, who has been in that city for several months. Mr. Howell departed for Denver Monday afternoon without advising his friends regarding his errand.

Mrs. Cullingham has resided in Omaha since her girlhood. Soon after the death of Mr. Cullingham a few years ago, she and her little son went abroad, living in Germany, where Mrs. Cullingham studied music until about two years ago, when they returned to Omaha. Mrs. Cullingham is an accomplished pianist and is prominently known in musical and social circles in Omaha.

Mr. Howell has held several public offices in Omaha. Some years ago he was city engineer. In the legislature of 1903 he was a member of the state senate and later was elected to the Water board, created by a bill which he introduced in the legislature. His other business is "general insurance." He has an office in the Karbach block.

ALLEGED THIEF IS CAUGHT

Omaha Man Suspected of Stealing Horse Awails Officer at Maryville, Mo.

Harry McBride of Omaha has been arrested at Maryville, Mo., on the charge of stealing a horse from the barn of Bernstein & Wolfson, Thirteenth and Jackson streets. Detective Mitchell has gone to Maryville for the prisoner.

Last Friday the horse was reported to the police as having been stolen. Detectives got a line on the suspected thief and arrested William Lathrop of 613 Pierce street on the charge of concealing a horse. Lathrop is a brother-in-law of McBride.

BAD MIXTURE OF LETTERS

Mail of Rival Concerns Gets Interchanged and Complaint is Made to Authorities.

A complaint has been lodged with the United States authorities to the effect that there has been a bad admixture of mail matter between a couple of rival retail firms in this city. The complaining party alleges that his business has already been damaged over $500 by his rival getting hold of his mail. The matter has been placed in the hands of the postoffice inspectors for investigation. The absence of the postoffice inspectors from the city just at this time will delay the inquiry and names are suppressed for this obvious reason.

MANDERSONS REACH AMERICA

Returns from Europe and Are Expected in Omaha Later Part of the Week.

J. E. Kolby of the legal department of the Burlington, received a message from General Charles F. Manderston Monday, saying the general and Mrs. Manderston had reached the United States from Europe, where they spent the summer. They are now in Philadelphia and are expected in Omaha the latter part of the week. The message did not give any further information as to Mrs. Manderston's physical condition. It will be recalled that she lost the use of one eye while abroad.

GIRLS SNATCHED FROM SIN. Young Women in Their Teens Are Taken Out of Houses by Police. While making the rounds of the proscribed district Detectives Ferris and Dunn brought to police headquarters four young women who gave their names as Bessie Livingston, Nellie Showell and Rose and Nettie Newman. The girls were all charged with being disorderly characters and when arraigned before the police judge Tuesday morning, promptly pleaded guilty to the charges against them. Miss Livingston gave her age as 17. Her case will be further investigated by the police judge. The other prisoners gave their ages 18 and 19 years. Lizzie Burgess and Lizzie Barth were arrested by Patrolman Johnson in the bad lands. Both are young women and came from South Omaha. The police say they are making a determined effort to turn young women from the path of waywardness whenever it is possible.
