SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 18.—One of the largest coal operators in this region, who has just come from Philadelphia, where he had a conference with President Hays of the Reading, today declared unhesitatingly, and for publication, that the operators would not, under any consideration, grant the demand of the mine workers for an eight hour day and that they proposed to agree only if the present agreement shall be continued. Announcement to this effect would be made, he said, after the miners held their convention in Shamokin December 14.

REPUBLICANS OFFER

John McLaughlin, Sheriff, Thomas J. Flynn, Charles Leslie, Judge J. W. Woodruff, Hermon B. Bodwell, Clerk, John H. Bralley, E. J. Bodwell, Treasurer, Wm. Fleming, E. J. Bodwell, Superintendent.

Republicans Offer: John McLaughlin, Sheriff, Thomas J. Flynn, Charles Leslie, Judge J. W. Woodruff, Hermon B. Bodwell, Clerk, John H. Bralley, E. J. Bodwell, Treasurer, Wm. Fleming, E. J. Bodwell, Superintendent.

DEMOCRATS OTHERWISE HAVE A DECIDEDLY TAME TIME OF IT—VOTE IS LIGHT EVERYWHERE AND COUNT SLOW.

The big fight in the republican ranks was over the nomination for sheriff and here it was a three cornered contest, the anti being united for John McDonald and the regular organization divided between Fred Hove and Tony Donahue, although centered chiefly on the former. The count proved to be close with surprises for each in many places. The figures, with four city precincts and three country precincts missing, give McDonald a lead over Hove of 158. The table follows:

Ward, Donahue, Hove, Mc. Flynn, 118, 121, 121, 121; Second, 41, 212, 98; Third, 61, 118, 290; Fifth, 246, 145, 217; Sixth, 231, 213, 342; Seventh, 23, 118, 228; Eighth, 96, 126, 178; Ninth, 66, 294, 291; Tenth, 208, 229, 94; Eleventh, 68, 170, 337; Twelfth, 48, 106, 281.

Lower Part of Ticket. The next interest attached to the county judgeship. Here also the anti were united and the regular divided and the division proved fatal to all the regular candidates, giving the nomination to Leslie, although by a decided minority of the total.

The other places went almost by common consent to the winning candidate, the only brush being for sheriff and coroner. The old soldier strength pulled the balance strongly for Haverly against Beal.

In the Fifth commissioner district W. G. Ure had an easy task in heading off Henry Ostrom.

For county treasurer Robert O. Fink, who had no opposition, polled 388 votes. The vote on the other officers was:

FOR COUNTY CLERK: Haverly 3,384; Beal 2,927. Haverly's majority 457.

FOR COUNTY JUDGE: Dickinson 1,404; Hall 1,848; Leslie 2,028; Thomas 1,127.

FOR COUNTY SUPERVISOR: Leslie's plurality 148.

FOR CORONER: Beal's majority 63.

FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT: Bodwell 4,094; Clarendon 2,129.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER—FIFTH DISTRICT: Ure 1,681; Ostrom 704.

FOR POLICE JUDGE: Crawford 2,611; Ten Eyck 1,979.

Justices and Constables. In the scramble for justice of the peace Judges Foster, Long, Altstadt and Eastman are nominated, with the other two places hovering between Anderson, Bachman, Baldwin, Cockerill and Fields.

The successful constables are Church, Hensel, McKinnis, Simpson, Stein and Wickersham.

The republican school board ticket will be listed as follows: W. H. Butts, Dr. W. H. Christie, David Cole, Alfred Kennedy, George T. Hill, for full terms, and Charles Harding for short term. There was practically no opposition to this combination.

Democratic Results. On the democratic side Tom Flynn defeated Sheriff Power by a vote of 856 to 683, thus springing something of a surprise.

For police judge Judge J. W. Woodruff more than doubled the vote for his competitor, the figures standing 966 for Woodruff to 494 for former Police Judge Gordon.

Confusion and uncertainty marked the opening of the polling places and many of them were not doing business until 8 o'clock and after. Not a few supervisors of registrars and clerks failed to report at 8 o'clock and policemen had to be sent for them or new men appointed in their places. This difficulty, however was slight compared to misunderstandings about the details that should be observed in carrying out the arrangements, prescribed by the Dodge law. To complicate matters still further County Attorney Slabaugh issued opinions directly opposite to opinions given out by City Attorney Breen. The former
