WATER PRESSURE BELOW PAR

Such is Decision of Engineer Making Test for the City.

STREAMS NOT UP TO REQUIRED HEIGHT

Demonstrations Will Be Continued Today Under Direction of City Engineer at Water Board's Order.

Less water pressure at Fourteenth and Farnam streets than is demanded by the contract of the Omaha Water company with the city was found yesterday afternoon at a test held under the direction of City Engineer Rosewater, Benezette Williams, a hydraulic engineer and water expert of Chicago; Assistant City Engineer Craig and Dean Stout of the engineering department of the State university. A big crowd, including Mayor Moores and other notables, gathered at Fourteenth and Farnam streets about 3 o'clock when eight streams of water simultaneously were thrown into the air.

Engineers Rosewater, Williams and Stout were stationed on the roof of the Board of Trade building at Sixteenth and Farnam streets. They were equipped with two leveling telescopes. The measuring point was the flagstaff of the Western Union building on Fourteenth street, the ball of which is two feet higher than 110 feet above Fourteenth and Farnam. The streams were raised on Fourteenth street north of Farnam. The hydrant contract specifies that the water company supply pressure sufficient to send eight one-inch streams to a height of 110 feet, and that it must be done at the same time.

"Not a single stream at any time reached a height of 110 feet," said Engineer Williams. "At times the spray of one, and sometimes two, streams mounted higher than 110 feet, but it was the impulse and not the stream itself that reached the required altitude."

"A stream," said John L. Webster, special counsel for the Water board, "is a continuous flow of water. Spray and detached particles don't count. This test proves that the contract is not being filled in this condition. I estimate that the average height of the streams during most of the time will be found not much more than eighty feet."

No Stream High Enough.

The three engineers agreed that except occasionally no stream got as high as 110 feet and that no more than two of the eight streams cast spray above 110 feet at any one time.

To supplement the observations from the roof the engineers will compute estimates on the showing made by the water gauges attached to the nozzle of one line of hose from each hydrant. Four hydrants were used, two streams being sent from each. These hydrants were the nearest ones to the intersection. The one on Farnam street between Thirteenth and Fourteenth had 250 feet of hose for each nozzle and the pressure ran from sixty-six to sixty-four feet; the hydrant on Farnam between Fourteenth and Fifteenth had 200 feet of hose and registered from seventy-four to seventy-one pounds pressure; the hydrant at the northwest corner of Fourteenth and Farnam showed a pressure running from eighty-four to eighty feet at the end of fifty feet of hose; the hydrant on Fourteenth between Farnam and Douglas with 150 feet of hose marked up a pressure of from eighty to seventy-six pounds on the gauge.

Weather Conditions Perfect.

Weather conditions were perfect and there were no perceptible air currents.

Stockton Heth, treasurer of the water company, declared that the pressure was not accelerated in any way, but remained the same as usual.

Governor Boyd, chairman of the Water board, most of the members and other city officials witnessed the test from the street.

Fire Chief Salter personally superintended the work of hose companies 3, 4 and 5 from station No. 3 at Eighteenth and Harney streets. Water was running through the nozzles for two periods of about fifteen minutes each.

Assistant City Engineer Craig had charge of the work on the street.

Other tests will be made by the engineers today, but just what kind and at what locations was not determined yesterday afternoon.

BAD BLOOD
INVITES DISEASE

The blood supplies nourishment and strength to every part of the body when it is rich, pure and healthy. When from any cause it becomes diseased or weak it cannot supply the nutriment the system needs, and the body is unable to resist the diseases and troubles that are constantly assailing it to break down the health.

I have used S. S. S. and found it to be an excellent blood purifier and tonic. My blood was weak and impure, and as a result my system became very much run down and debilitated. I lost twenty or more pounds in weight, had no appetite and was in bad shape. Seeing S. S. S. advertised I began its use, and am well pleased with the results after using it for some little while. My system and general health have been wonderfully built up, and I no not hesitate to give S. S. S. the credit for it. H. MARTIN. Warren, O., 60 Second St.

Rheumatism, Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Catarrh, Old Sores, Malaria, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are the results of bad or diseased blood, and until this vital fluid is cleansed and made pure, strong and healthy, these diseases will continue. The greatest of all blood purifiers and tonics is S. S. S. It has been curing all diseases of the blood for more than forty years by going down to the very root of the trouble, forcing out all poisons and impurities and building up every part of the system by its fine tonic effect. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Catarrh, Old Sores, Malaria, Contagious Blood Poison and all other blood troubles, and cures them permanently. S. S. S. is the acknowledged king of blood purifiers and the greatest of all tonics. Books on the different diseases, and any medical advice you may wish will be given without charge.

BLACKMORE TRIAL IS PROCEEDING

Evidence Taken Behind Closed Doors and Nothing Given Out.

FALLS CITY, Neb., Sept. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—The Methodist conference was opened this morning with an address by Bishop Hamilton, and then settled down to routine business. The first was the reading of the annual reports by the presiding elders, who are J. R. Gettys, Beatrice; Richard Parson, Hastings; J. F. Kemper, Lincoln; G. I. Wright, Nebraska City; W. B. Alexander, York. The reports show that the conference is in an excellent condition and the church work progressing nicely.

Dr. Edward Thompson, secretary of the American Sunday League; Dr. C. B. Spencer of Kansas City, Mo., with the Central Christian Advocate; Mrs. J. I. McLaughlin, superintendent of the Nebraska Methodist hospital, and Dr. J. W. Jennings, manager of the Western Methodist Book Concern of Kansas City, addressed the conference. Dr. Jennings presented the conference with a draft for $1,200 for the fund for superannuated preachers, from the profits of the book concern. Dr. C. M. Shepherd of Pawnee City presented a draft for $150 for the superannuated preachers' fund, from the Nebraska Epworth League.

The trial of F. B. Blakemore, who was suspended from the ministry while in charge of the Tecumseh church, is going on now, and from present indications will last until the middle of next week. The meetings of the committee are behind closed doors and the utmost secrecy is maintained as to the evidence introduced and what is taking place. All that can be learned is that each side has a large number of witnesses and a hard fight is certain. Today was put in trying to introduce evidence attacking the character of the accusers of Blakemore.

J. W. Scott was elected secretary, and named as his assistants O. T. Moore, N. A. Martin and H. G. Wilcox. A. C. Crosswaithe was elected treasurer, and on his motion G. M. Jones, L. F. Smith, H. P. Young, J. W. Embre, Henry Zernecker and I. W. Kenagy were elected assistants. G. I. Knight and A. E. Chadwick were elected postmasters. E. D. Gibbeon was elected statistical secretary, and A. V. Wilson, C. L. Meyers, D. W. Wilt, K. W. G. Hiller, B. F. Summers, R. D. Wattman, H. P. Young, A. A. Kirber, J. M. Reed and J. H. Still were made assistants. P. H. Smith was elected railroad secretary.

A number of standing committees were named, and among other matters of importance brought up was the subject of caring for superannuated preachers. A committee was appointed to prepare a plan for such work and submit it to the conference.

SISTERS ARE NOW REUNITED

Separated in Kansas, Neither Knows of Other's Existence.

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 21.—(Special.)—Mrs. Margaret Utter, living on East High street, has just returned from Garnett, Kan., where she went to visit a sister whom she had never seen and of whose existence she had no knowledge until a few weeks ago. The story reads like a romance. In the year 1873, near Independence, Kan., lived the family of Cabel Piper, consisting of father, mother and three children, the oldest a boy of 7 named Samuel, and two little girls, the elder 3 and the younger a babe of only 11 months. Like many others, he met with reverses at that time. He was a man well advanced in years, his wife being much younger than himself. To double his misfortunes he suffered a stroke of paralysis and his wife was unable to maintain the family. Under these conditions the children were given homes with friends, while Mr. Piper went to live with his son by a former marriage. Belle, the older girl, was adopted by T. C. Brunson and has been reared and educated as though she were their own daughter, she being the only child in the family. The younger of the two girls was adopted into the family of Captain Carroll, who at that time lived at Independence, but who removed to Beatrice a short time afterward, bringing the little girl with them, where she was reared and educated in the schools of Beatrice as Margaret Carroll. Captain Carroll died some years after coming to Beatrice and Mrs. Carroll and Margaret removed to Chicago. As Mrs. Utter's foster parents were very fond of her, she being the only child, they never told her of her adoption. After her marriage she again became a resident of Beatrice, and it was by accident that she learned of her real family history and discovered her identity.

Mrs. Utter, after learning that she had a sister, has been trying to locate her for some time, but as she had changed her name by marriage the task was not an easy one. Less than a month ago she finally succeeded in locating her sister at Garnett, Kan., and hastened there to meet her. The two sisters will now attempt to find their brother, whom they feel sure is living in Iowa.

Railroad Gets Right-of-Way.

BLAIR, Neb., Sept. 21.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the city council last night an order was passed granting the right-of-way for a spur switch from the main track of the Minneapolis & Omaha railroad to the canning factory, owned and operated by Martin & Nurrie. Though not on the same location, this is the same switch controversy that the city and the railroad company had a fight over during the term of W. D. Haller as mayor a few years ago. At that time the railroad officers had their men run a large amount of material into the yards here and at night put on a large force of men and had the track laid by 12 o'clock, when Mayor Haller ordered the fire company out to drown out the entire force of workmen and take up the track and stack the rails and ties, which ended the attempt to lay it at that time. The right-of-way granted now will not damage any private property, which was claimed at the time before, and will be a great convenience to the factory.

Celebrate Silver Wedding.

SHELTON, Neb., Sept. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Twenty-five years ago this evening, at Gibbon, Neb., occurred the wedding of Mr. M. A. Hostetler to Miss Ella Daggett. A pleasant evening was spent in social chat and punch. Quite a number of out-of-town guests were present, including Judge B. O. Hostetler and family from Kearney. Mrs. Hostetler is one of the leading club women of Nebraska, and is now holding an office in the state organization, and also has been the grand representative to the grand lodge, Degree of Honor. Mr. Hostetler is the state president of the Commercial Clubs of Nebraska, and during all this quarter of a century The Omaha Daily Bee has been their household newspaper.

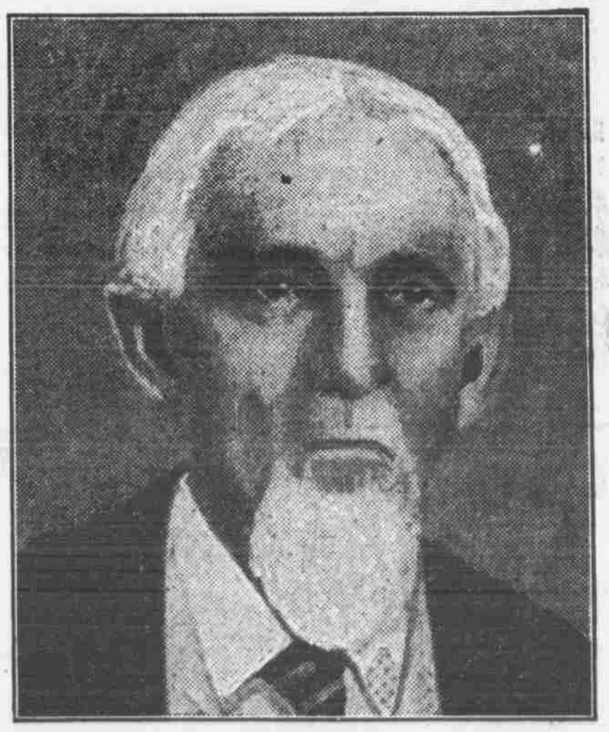
Celebrated 62d Wedding Anniversary

Mr. Aquilla D. Sharp Celebrated the 62d Anniversary of His Marraige, and Says His Sturdy Old Age Is Due to the Regular Use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

"It Has Done Me a World of Good, and is Truly a Grand Medicine and Tonic for Old Age.



AQUILLA D. SHARP.

Mr. Sharp recently celebrated his 62d wedding anniversary at his home in Ocean City, New Jersey. He writes: "I am eighty-five years old, and have been a user of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a tonic and invigorating medicine for years, and am sure it has done me a world of good. I am pleased to recommend it as truly a grand medicine where a tonic is needed in old age, and I find it especially good for coughs, colds and stomach troubles and all run-down conditions."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is the perfect tonic-invigorator for the aged, and the safeguard of the young. More than 4,000 old people state that their rugged health and sturdy old age are due to the regular use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It is prescribed by leading physicians, recommended by ministers of the Gospel and indorsed by temperance workers the country over as a reliable medicine and a sure preventive of disease. Duffy's is the only positive cure of consumption, pneumonia, grip, bronchitis, coughs, colds, sore throat, malaria, low fevers, dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation and every form of lung, bowels and stomach trouble. It aids digestion, induces sound and wholesome sleep, enriches poor and impovished blood, quickens the heart's action, tones up and improves the circulation and brings the body back to normal health and strength by going to the source of the disease, killing the poisonous germs and driving them from the body.

CAUTION—Duffy's is the only whiskey recognized by the Government as a medicine. It is absolutely pure, contains no fusel oil, and is sold in bottles only. You will know the genuine by the "Old Chemist" trade-mark on the label. See that the strap over the cork is unbroken. Refuse substitutes and imitations sometimes offered by dishonest dealers. They are harmful and will not cure you.

No other medicine has such a record. You can get it at all druggists and grocers, or direct. Price $1.00 a bottle. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.
