CHANGES IN HEALTH BOARD

Dr. Sward of Oakland Succeeds Dr. A. B. Somers of Omaha.

SPALDING IN TOWNE'S PLACE AS INSPECTOR Struggle Which Has Been Going on for Several Months Ended by Governor Mickey Coming Over to Sward.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Sept. 25 - (Special.)-After having served as a member of the Board of Secretaries of the State Board of Health for about five years, Dr. A. B. Somers was replaced this morning by Dr. E. J. C. Sward of Oakland after a contest lasting for two months. Dr. R. C. Towne, a brother-in-law to Dr. Somers, who for the same length of time has been health inspector at a salary of $1,800 a year, was replaced by Dr. S. K. Spalding of Omaha, who was unanimously chosen upon the motion of Attorney General Brown. When the board was called together this morning Governor Mickey, who was the first one called upon to vote, cast his vote for Dr. Sward of Oakland, thus leaving Dr. McConaughey of York, whom he had voted for more than a thousand times. McBrien, of course, stayed by Sward and Attorney General Brown voted for Dr. Andrews of Holdrege. This elected Sward and the long contest was at an end. Attorney General Brown then moved that Dr. Spalling of Omaha be elected health inspector and this carried unanimously. Dr. Spalding formerly lived within a few tiles of where Governor Mickey resided in Iowa and they have been intimate friends since the war. Dr. Sward, who succeeds Dr. Somers, is chairman of the county republican committee of Burt county, and the day of the state convention Congressman McCarthy, Judge Sears, John Piper and Representative Smith, with others called upon Governor Mickey and urged his appointment. Governor Mickey realized it was useless to longer attempt to land Dr. McConaughey of York and to settle the controversy he voted for Dr. Sward.

The matter was then left to Attorney General Brown for a legal decision, but before the legal department had an opportunity to report General Culver made an investigation and found the government would pay the claim and withdrew it.
