The first annual report of the South Omaha Public Library association has just been issued. This report is in pamphlet form and is printed on heavy calendered paper. An excellent half-tone of the building is shown and also a number of interior views. The donation of $4,000 by Andrew Carnegie for a library building is mentioned along with a statement showing how and to whom the money derived from the Carnegie was spent. Completed, the building cost $20,715.80. President McCullough concludes his report by thanking the mayor and council for the board for the generous and hearty co-operation of this branch of the city government.

Their heads were crushed and their throats cut with a knife or razor. Officers were informed at once and the entire county is out on posse in search of the murderers. It is supposed there were two of them. Dogs have been sent for.

WORKING WOMEN

Their Hard Struggle Made Easier—Interesting Statements by a Young Lady in Boston and One in Nashville, Tenn.

Miss Frankie Orser and Miss Pearl Ackers are two young women who have written interesting letters to the editor of the Bee regarding the struggle of working women. Miss Orser, of Boston, tells how she avoids such suffering. She writes: "I suffered misery for several years with irregular menstruation. My back ached, I had bearing-down pains, and frequent headaches; I could not sleep and could hardly drag around. I consulted two physicians without relief and as a last resort I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and to my surprise, every ache and pain left me, I gained ten pounds and am in perfect health."

OUR LETTER BOX

Just a Word.

OMAHA, Sept. 28.—To the Editor of The Bee: I shall engage in no controversy with Mr. James Richardson or any other person in the matter of the Train school abuse of corporal punishment. But when Mr. Richardson says that the proof does not show a call for serious complaint, he had better be reminded that the proof was not from the boy. In fact, no proof was necessary. The severity of the punishment was publicly admitted by Superintendent Davidson and by my most capable and worthy friend, Miss Mason, the principal of the Train school. As to blaming teachers, my article in The Bee showed that I blamed the vicious principle more than I did the teachers.

Omaha is getting all of the desirable entries for its horse show in spite of the fact that St. Louis is to hold a show during the same week. Omaha is giving $10,000 in purses, all in good coin, while St. Louis has hung up $2,000 mostly in plate. Men who are in the horse business as a business can use coin to much better advantage than they can silver plate and all sorts of cups. And Omaha has secured the big stables of Crow & Murray and Pepper & Co. in spite of the opposition of St. Louis. The Bit & Spur recognized as the official horse show paper of the country, had this to say of the St. Louis show: St. Louis has announced that it will give a horse show in the Coliseum for the week of October 9 to 14. With the return of August a horse show in the Coliseum has been thrashed out and the eyes among the horsemen in the town have been turned to Omaha. This will mean an effort to have an open show at the fair grounds, as earlier planned, with capital stock at $10,000, not more than one share being sold to a purchaser. Backache, rheumatic pains, urinary ill and languid or nervous spells follow, and there is an ever-increasing tendency toward fatal diabetes or Bright's Disease. There is no real help for the sufferer at any time except kidney pills. Doan's Kidney Pills is the one kidney specific that acts directly upon the kidneys, makes lasting cures, and is endorsed by people you know. It is purely vegetable and contains no dangerous drugs. It relieves inflammation and congestion, restores healthy kidney tissue, and rids the sufferer permanently of his ailment. Price, 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Prop's.
