Windy City Team Lost the Game and Probably to Pennant. CHICAGO USES THREE PITCHERS

Philadelphia, Sept. 29.—The American league leaders scored their second straight victory over Chicago today in the crucial series for the championship. The home team outplayed the visitors all round. The Philadelphia batter's hand, Chicago using a third pitcher, was twisting a steadily effective game. Except in the fifth inning when Chicago scored its only run on two doubles, Bender kept the hits scattered. Attendance, 19,087, making the attendance for the two games 39,453. Score:
