A restraining order was issued by Judge Bethea of the United States district court enjoining Rosenfeld from moving any of his assets, including his alleged contract with the defendant company, from the jurisdiction of the court.

Tomorrow an attempt will be made to have the petition filed today against Rosenfeld, referred to a bankruptcy referee and if this motion is granted, Rosenfeld can be compelled to take the witness stand and testify concerning the assets be has in his possession. It is charged in the bankruptcy petition that Rosenfeld owes more than $32,000 in judgments held by Harriett Russell Dewey, Brady's Bend, Pa., Elizabeth Beck, Brunswick, Germany, and Kate Clark, Washington, D. BURKETT CALLS ON PRESIDENT

Consul Bachr Accompanies Senator on Visit to the White

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—(Special Tele-gram.)—President Roosevelt had hardly setled himself this morning in his "adobe" ouse, as the office building in connection with the executive mansion has been called when a tide of visitors began to arrive ome to see him on business, some to pre sent invitations, some to talk over features of the president's message, some to present constituents, all to pay respects and good wishes. Among the first visitors to greet the president were Senator Burkett and Max J. Bachr of St. Paul, American consul at Clenfuegos, Cuba. The reception accorded Senator Burkett and Mr. Bachr by the president was most cordial. Mr. Baehr stated that he desired to shorten his vacation in view of the troubles reported from Cuba incident to the approaching presidential election in the island, which expression greatly pleased the president. From the White House Senator Burkett escorted Mr. Bachr to the State department, presenting

YOUNG GIRL DIES SUDDENLY

Police Are Called, but Case Not Such as to Warrant Any Arrests.

Mary Vanechock, a Bohemian girl, died uddenly at 1 o'clock this morning, under circumstances that were thought to be suspicious by the police. A call was sent for the wagon and Captain Haze went out to investigate. He found that the girl was keeping house for Ferdinand Steits, an old Bohemian. Early in the evening the girl appeared to the old man to be ill and he nd her groaning in the closet a little later. He advised her to go to bed. Near it o'clock he was awakened by a fall in the kitchen and found the girl lying on the floor. He helped her to bed again and half an hour later he was again awakened by her falling. This time she was unconcious and died before a doctor arrived. There was no evidence that there was anything unnatural about the death, but the coroner took charge of the remains and will make an investigation later,

SHAW TALKS IN VIRGINIA

Secretary of the Treasury Discusses Tariff Issue at Richmond.

DINGLEY LAW PERFECT IN PRINCIPLE

It Will Be Amended by Republicans in Due Time, but Protection Feature Will Not Be Changed,

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 2 .- Secretary of the Treasury Shaw in a speech at a republican mass meeting in the Academy of Music in this city tonight in discussing tariff issues declared that all that the principle is perfect, that it will be amended never be amended under a republican administration.

for the choice of Judge Lewis as governor. ened.

Mr. Shaw Speaks.

Secretary Shaw said in part:
You must bear in mind there was never a tariff law enacted that was perfect or that anyone claimed was perfect. No two congresses would ever enact the same bill. Every tariff law is an aggregation of compromises. All the republican party ever claims for any tariff law is that the principle is perfect. The rate will be too high here and too low there, but protection will be founded in its every feature. The opposition party never claim that their tariff measures are perfect. They only claim that the principle of free trade, on which they profess to construct their tariff. is the correct principle. They claim to eliminate every element of protection from their tariff laws as England eliminates protection from its tariff laws. England provides a tariff for the sole purpose of revenue and the democratic party profess to do the same. They have openly and repeatedly denounced protection as robbery—they strike at the principle.

While the republican party never claimed for any tariff law that it was perfect and mover promises to enact a perfect tariff law, it does claim that all its tariff laws are builded on the principle of protection. It has never sacrificed one industry for the sake of building up another and never will. Neither will it prejudice one locality in the interest of another. It will be national and not provincial. It will protect the south as well as the north; the east as well as the east.

All that the republican party claims for Secretary Shaw said in part:

him to Mr. Bacon, the new assistant secretary of state, who qualified today. Mr. Bachr has made an enviable record in Cuba and it is predicted that he will receive a promotion shortly after congress convenes. While with the president Senator Burkett taiked over a number of matters in which Nebraska is interested. On the subject of railroad rate legislation Mr. Burkett learned that the president had not changed his mind in the least that the fifty-ninth congress should deal with this question in Protects All Interests.

Board of Education Completes Arrangements for Starting the Work.

COMENIUS AND KELLOM THE PLACES

Practically the Same Force Teachers on Last Year Will Be In Charge of the Work.

Arrangements for opening the night chools in the Kellom and Comenius schools October 23 were made last night by the Board of Education. The term will extend over five school months and the session will be held on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Principals will receive $40 a smonth and teachers $32. and all will be taken from the regular day force. Miss Louise Adams will be principal at the Comenius school and Miss Hulda Isaacson at the Kellom. The teachers will be Amelia Brown, Mima Doyle, Ruth Ho-gan, Cabella Schaffer, Alta Peacock, Carrie Rebertson, Helen Thompson and S. B.

Potter. Objections to using the teachers in the day schools was made by Member Detweller after the fact was mentioned that there were three times as many applicants for positions in the night schools than there are places to fill. He said he thought night school teachers should be selected from unemployed persons on the assigned lists.

"I do not believe it is right to give the work to teachers who labor all day in their class rooms," said he "I fail to see how they can do justice to either the day or night work under the conditions."

Member Rice said that the night school staff was picked on the point of fitness for peculiar and difficult work and on the strength of previous demonstrations to this

"This same question was raised by Mr. Detweller in the committee room last year, said Superintendent Davidson. "I am ready to indorse the proposition provided we have material suitable to supply the night schools. This we have not. For that reason we are forced to select from the day forces strong teachers who are able physically and mentally to stand the extra work and at the same time render efficient servce. The thought has been to make the night force stronger by not changing the eachers. With one exception these ten about these matters. were in the night schools last year and proved themselves capable of performing well the tasks imposed."

This ended the discussion and the recom mendations of the committee on teachers were adopted.

Harding in Lower's Stead Charles Harding was elected by a unaninous vote to serve out the term of Ed K. Lower, resigned, which expires at the end of the year. Mr. Harding is a nominee on the republican ticket to serve a year re maining of the term of H. L. Krieder and the board chose him for the vacancy existing on the theory that he would probably be elected in November. The afternoon of Wednesday, the day of Ak-Sar-Ben's big daylight parade, will be a half holiday in the schools so that no subject, however small, will miss any of the sights.

He thought it would be better for the kindergarten grades if the children began with the classes rather than to come in late. Members McCague and Lindsay opposed the idea on the ground that the law forbids it. Mr. Detweller withdrew his reso lution before it was voted on.

Member Lindsay lost out in an attempt to amend the rules so as to increase the wages of George Chapman, janitor at the Central Park school, from $46 to $50 a month, or to a aix-room building rate, only five rooms are in use at the school. Mr. Lindsay said that the services Chapman performs entitles him to the raise, but the other members could not see Superintendent Davidson was authorized to permit the absence Friday of principals wishing to attend the annual meeting of superintendents and principals, under the auspices of the Nebraska Teachers' asso ciation, at Lincoln this week.

ST. PAUL PRINTERS ARE OUT About Two Hundred Men Quit Work to Enforce the Eight-Hour Day.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 2.-About 200 job printers in St. Paul are on strike today, because the employers have refused to grant the demands of the printers' union for an elabi hour day, effective January 1.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 2.-The job printers strike on the eight-hour day began here today. Nonunion men are being put to

MITCHELL, S. D., Oct. 1 .- (Special Telegram.)--The anticipated strike of the printers of this city took place at noon, when eight walked out of the Daily Republican office and three from the South Dakota Educator office. W. T. Lafollette, editor of the Gazette, declared his office an open shop Saturday night, laid off the union men and had two nonunion people in his office this morning. One of them was persuaded to join the union shortly after she went to work, and walked out two hours later. The same grievance prevails here as in all other parts of the country on the eighthour schedule. The Daily Republican and Educator proprietors both refused to sign the eight-hour contract and the printers struck, against the advice of the state organiser. The Daily Republican was issued this afternoon as usual and arrangements have been made whereby it will not be hampered. The employing printers maintain they will not yield to the demand

DAYTON, O., Oct. 2.-Three hundred employes of the National Cash Register company were notified that they had been discharged when they reported for work this norning. Fellowing the decision to refuse the demands of the Typographical union for an eight-hour day in the printing department the company ordered all employes to report in the assembly hall a few minutes before closing time Saturday to listen to addresses by the company officials on the labor situation. The men discharged today are those who failed to attend the meeting.

WHEN ITS PROFITS SUFFER Bell Telephone Monopoly's Methods of Stiffing Competi-

"The entry of a competing telephone comsany into this field must threaten a heavy reduction in the profits of the Bell monop oly, when they will resort to the disreputable methods they have, for the purpose of finding something to be used against the new company," said A. B. Hunt, of the Independent Telephone company now seeking franchise for its entrance into Omaha.

"General Manager Lane, of the Nebraska nonopoly, is circulating the story that he has the documents to prove that the attempt of the independent company to secure a franchise here is a stock-jobbing scheme, and that he has the contract that I have entered into with the parties who expect to finance the undertaking. I am not surprised that we are compelled to neet misrepresentation at the hands of the Bell monopoly, but I hardly supposed they would go to the extreme of stealing papers or hiring it done. However, they cannot injure us by presenting any facts concerning our proposition, no matter how they may secure them. "The truth is, and Mr. Lone knows it. that he has no such contract as he claims. He undoubtedly has a contract, and probably three of them. These facts are known to the Bell company, but it serves their purpose to misrepresent the situation as to one document and to wholly suppress the others. I have no hesitancy in saying that I did have an agreement as to what money should receive for my legitimate expenses in securing a franchise last year, and there was also an agreement or contract relative to the company as to local stockholders and officers, and the management of its affairs. It will not, however, suit the purpose of the Bell company to tell the truth "What better evidence is needed to show the good faith of the independent company than that it was ready to put up the money to meet all legitimate expenses and defray the cost of a special election? "So far as the Bell methods are con erned, they were shown at Kansas City. when the independent company was working to secure its franchise there. nonopoly went to the pitiful extremity of buying from a colored janitor the contents of the waste paper baskets in the offices f the new company, and for the wretched sum of 50 cents per basket, in order that they might patch together the forn letters and papers, so as to see just what the independent company was doing and to learn with whom the company was it ommunication. It does not look as if the Bell people were satisfied to rest their case on a fair and full presentation of the facts to an impartial public, when procedures of this kind are fellowed. "The independent company seeks its fran chise on the merit of its proposition and the logic of the situation, and we are satisfied to try our case before the people of Omaha. We want them to say whether they want telephone competition or not. and we ask the city council to submit the stion to the citizens. We take the posttion that the people themselves are better able to pass on that question than any
