HOLDING COMPANY FORMED

Possession of Portion of Byron-Reed Estate. The Terminal Land company composed of a number of Omaha's wealthy citizens remember it only takes an extra stroke or two of the pen to mention the ract that you saw the ad. in The Bec. filed its artigles of incorporation with the country clerk Monday morning. The capital stock of the company is $350,000, all of stock of the company is $350,000, all of which is to be paid up before the corpora are A. L. Reed, G. W. Wattles, R. S. Hall, J. R. Webster, William D. McHugh and the officers are A. L. Reed, president; W. D. McHugh, vice president; J. R. Webster. secretary, and G. W. Wattles, treasurer. While it is set out in the articles that the object of the corporation is to buy and company was organized as a holding corporation and it has come into possession of the 80-acre tract of land which was a portion of the Byron Reed estate and and Terminal company. The property has been in litigation for a number of years and a compromise recently was effected is small-2 cents per word in small type, or $2.80 per inch if set in large type. and this company was organized to put arrangements to utilize the land. The new corporation will distribute the shares of stock of the company among the persons who were parties to the compromise, according to the interest held in the land lands than the semi-arid regions of any of the adjoining states. "We are beginning to get good crops off much of the land that was formerly con-sidered desert, and this even without irrigation," said Mr. Wallace. "We are learning how to cultivate so as to conserve our moisture. Down in Thomas county there is a man who paid $750 for 160 acres of land. This year it cost him $1,000 to plow it and plant it in wheat. He raised 3,850 this sort or thing in western Nebraska, and the land is cheaper than in Kansas or Colorado. There is any amount of land in the state as good as the Kansas and it can be bought for much less money. It will raise crops just as large. The farmers of western Nebraska are just waking up to the fact that they can profitably cultivate their Franchise of City. Indications that the old fight of the minority council members against a rate as high as $28 for gas street lighting is shown by the reappearance of representatives of the Cleveland Street Lighting company with sample lamps and the announcement that the consumption of gas per lamp is to be tested by them.

The Cleveland Street Lighting people here are: George R. Doughty, who was with Mr. Gregg, and Superintendent Lewis, They have with them six boulevard pattern lamps and burners, which they propose to install for exhibition and testing pur-poses. Tonight, under the supervision of Chairman O'Brien of the lighting committhat neither the new or the old burners consume more than from two and one-half o three cubic feet of gas an hour to proluce a sixty-candle power lamp, or one equivalent in lighting power to those supplied by the Omaha Gas company.
