ABELL WINS RICH STAKE

McDonald Drives Brown Mare to Victory in Kentucky Futurity Race. SUSIE N, THE FAVORITE, IS SECOND

LEXINGTON, KY., Oct. 2.—The thirty-third annual meeting of the Kentucky Horse Breeder's association was successfully inaugurated today. The feature of the opening day was the $25,000 futurity for 3-year-old trotters. As has often been the case, this year's futurity was a delicate upset to the talent. Before the race Susie N, sold at $20 to $30 for the field and after she had taken the first heat in comparatively easy fashion she sold at $50 to the field's $15, but she was not destined to add the rich monetary value and the rare distinction of the futurity to her string of victories that honor won by Miss Abell, a comparative outsider in the betting. Susie N won the first heat with comparative ease. Up to well within the stretch in the second heat she seemed to have the race at her mercy, but McDonald brought Miss Abell up from the rear and captured the heat. The third heat was a photo finish which killed Susie N's chances and proved the splendid condition of Miss Abell. The two raced like a team for the first half, traveling the second quarter in 31 1/2 seconds. It was too fast for Susie N, and she dropped back beaten. Miss Abell came on and won and took the next heat and race comparatively without contest. The Tennessee stake attracted much interest. Maud Keckwick won the first, second and sixth heats and race.
