ORDER IS ONLY TEMPORARY

Sutton Refuses to Make Permanent Injunction in Gas Ordinance Matter.

HEARING TO COME OFF NEXT WEEK

Judge Offers to Modify Order to Let Council Make Contract with

Gas Company, but Connell Obtects

Over the opposition of Attorney Connell. for the Omaha Gas company, who desired that the order issued by Judge Sutton some time ago restraining the city council from passing the $28 gas ordinance be made permanent, so that he could go to the supreme court with the case at once, Judge Sutton Tuesday morning issued a temporary injunction against the council, which will be heard at the convenience of the attorneys some time next week.

Judge Sutton offered to modify his order so that the city council could enter into a contract with the gas company for lights not to exceed the money now available to pay for them, $13,725, with as many more lights added from time to time as the money accumulated in the city treasury. Connell objected to this,

Failing in securing the consent of the court to make his order permanent, Connell submitted the following modification of the order:

of the order:

Provided, That for each of said years covered by said contract the number of said lamps shall not, under said contract and under contracts now existing for street lighting for lamps ordered or placed at the time of the passage of this ordinance, be in excess of the limits of the funds authorized by law for lights on the streets and public grounds of the city, and no expenditure from the specified fund for street lighting shall be made in excess of 30 per cent of the amount of such funds, unless there be additional money in the treasury credited to such fund, and for the purpose of keeping said fund within said limit the mayor and council shall have the right at any time to order out any lamps in excess of such limit and require the same not to be lighted during such time as the authorized fund shall be insufficient to make payment for the same.

Meeta Instant Disapproval.

Meets Instant Disapproval. This proposition met with the instant disapproval of Judge Sutton. "Some members of this city council do not intend to follow the law or ordinance, and I think I am justified in making the remark," he said. "If I were to allow that modification some one would have to come into court and compel the council to take out lights when the lighting fund became exhausted." *

Connell then seriously objected to the time or from being influenced by it, charged the electric light company with trying to delay matters and forage off the gas company after the court had bound and gagged it. This brought Attorney Giller to his feet with a denial that he was acting for the lighting company, but that he was trying to "save money for the people of Omaha." Judge Sutton also took exceptions to the remarks and denied that he was being used as a catspaw for the lighting company and said the councilmen could, at any time, pass an ordinance regarding street lighting if they would do it under the terms of the city ordinances.
