

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Angered at Woman Man Throws Her Out of Window.

LATTER REFUSES TO GIVE HIM MONEY

Says He Insisted on Continuing Debauch and When She Objected He Became Abusive and Menacing.

Because she would not give him money to continue a debauch, Mike Segment threw Sophia Matties out of a second-story window at Twenty-fourth and U streets Tuesday.

Along the first part of August of this year the couple came here from New York and it was not long before Segment was placed in charge of the Schiffs saloon at Twenty-fourth and U streets.

This is the story the woman tells Chief Briggs and Captain Shields: "Segment left New York with me during the summer. He deserted a wife and four children. I have been married, but secured a divorce before coming west. I had a little money saved, about $400, which I carried in my clothing at all times. For a week or two Mike has been drinking hard and neglecting his business. While under the influence of liquor he became very abusive to me. Tuesday morning he came to my room here and demanded money. I refused to give him any and he drew a revolver and threatened to shoot me. Seeing I was not frightened at the sight of the pistol or at his threats he began to beat me. As I still refused to give him money he picked me up and threw me out of the window."

For a time after being so roughly treated the woman was unconscious, and it became several hours afterward that she became able to talk. Dr. John Koutsky set the broken bones and left the woman in her apartment, as he did not think it was at that time advisable to move her to the hospital.

By the time the police had been notified and had secured a statement from the woman Segment had several hours of the start. A report reached police headquarters about 4 o'clock that Segment had been seen in Omaha carrying a satchel and it is surmised that he is trying to leave the city.

The Omaha police are assisting in the search of Segment. At the police station the statement was made last evening that the Schiffs saloon company manager in Omaha was also assisting in the search, as an accounting is wanted from Segment.

Dr. Koutsky does not think that the woman is so seriously injured that she will not recover, but he does say that her condition is serious.

Want More Conventions.

In connection with securing more conventions for South Omaha, David Anderson remarked yesterday:

"South Omaha Odd Fellows have decided to attend the state grand lodge sessions at Nebraska City on October 17, in force, and show the members of the grand lodge that South Omaha is capable of handling conventions and to properly entertain delegates and visitors. We feel sanguine of securing the next grand lodge convention, which will be held in 1906, for South Omaha.

About 1500 people usually attend the sessions of the Odd Fellows grand lodge. The two local lodges of Odd Fellows are well prepared to take care of and entertain delegates and visitors. About forty Odd Fellows from South Omaha will go to Nebraska City to explain the advantages of holding the next annual convention in this city."

An adjourned meeting of the city council is to be held this evening. The sewer bond ordinance will come up for third reading and final passage. By passing the ordinance tonight plenty of time will be given for publication and the issuing of the mayor's proclamation calling for a special election on November 7. Councilman Adkins is to report on the Missouri avenue curbing. Mr. Adkins said Tuesday he had not been able to see John McGowan, but expected to today. He stated that he understood McGowan was ready to commence on the curbing just as soon as he completed a large contract he was now working on. McGowan, he declared, has no intention of throwing up the contract. A definite report will be made to the council this evening.

RICHARD P. CLARKSON DEAD

Veteran Iowa Editor Signs Off the Book for the Last Time.

HAD BEEN IN FAILING HEALTH SOME TIME

News Hardly Spread Over City Before Talk is Started Regarding His Probable Successor as Pension Agent.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DEB MOINES, Oct. 3.—(Special.)—Hon. Richard P. Clarkson, for many years editor of the Iowa State Register and for 18 years pension agent for Iowa, died today at 7:30 a. m. at his home in this city of diabetes. He was born April 16, 1850, and at one time was one of the central figures in Iowa state politics and was prominent also in republican national politics. For the last year or more Mr. Clarkson has been failing in health. During all the years that he was connected with the Daily Register of this city with his brother, Ret Clarkson, he always walked to and from the office morning, noon and night. After he was made pension agent he did the same till a year ago this summer he was forced to take to riding in his carriage. Since then he has been in more or less ill health and for some time past has been unable to be at his office only during the afternoons of each day. During the summer he took a trip to the lake and returned considerably better. He was able to be at his office Saturday, but was taken sick Sunday.

The arrangements for the funeral will not be made for some days till all the relatives have reached the city. Besides Mrs. Clarkson he is survived by four children, Frank P. Clarkson, editor of the Ida Grove (Ia.) Eagle; John Clarkson of this city, Mrs. Elizabeth Meek of Fort Worth, Tex., and Mrs. Bertha Schwartz of this city. His brother, James B. Clarkson, but better known to Iowa as "Ret," is collector of customs of the port of New York.

Discussion Clarkson's Successor.

Discussion of the question of who will succeed R. P. Clarkson in the office of pension agent for Iowa started today soon after the news of his death was announced. The impression seems to be that W. V. Wilcox, a prominent insurance man and for some years a candidate for the post-office or pension office, will be in the lead. At the same time there is considerable speculation as to whether or not Ambrose Conger will not enter the race. Past Commander R. P. St. John, who was a candidate for the position of United States marshal for northern Iowa, but was turned down, is also prominently mentioned for the position. The position nominally would be at the disposal of the Iowa congressional delegation, but for some time has been conceded to Congressman Hill.

Representative Manning Resigns.

Governor Cummins has received from Hon. Eli Manning of Lucas county his resignation as a member of the legislature from that county. The governor after consulting with the republican members of that county will call a special election to fill the vacancy. The resignation makes six vacancies to occur in the house since the last session of the legislature.

Cash Balance Lower.

There is now but $40,123.77 in the state treasury in cash. July 1 there was $1,375,022.77. During the same month the state has received $54,290 and has expended $569,109. The big decrease in cash is due to the large amount of building at the state institutions and the repairs in the state house.

ONAWA GIRL COMMITS SUICIDE

Fear of Reform School Sends Minnie Fisher to Her Grave.

ONAWA, Ia., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—Minnie Fisher, granddaughter of Mrs. Malone, a widow woman living in the old Onawa house, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by taking carbolic acid. She was about 14 years of age and lived with her grandmother in the old hotel, which is not now used for hotel purposes. Some time yesterday, it is alleged, she stole a sum of money from her grandmother's pocket-book. Being charged with the crime and told that unless she mended her ways and ceased to steal she would be sent to the reform school, she immediately left the room and took a large dose of carbolic acid, saying that she was tired of living and wanted to die. Aid was summoned at once and physicians worked over her nearly all night, but she died at 3 o'clock this morning.

Rev. Callen Changes Parishes.

WATERLOO, Ia., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—Rev. Samuel J. Callen, for seven years pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, has resigned to accept of the Fourth Presbyterian church at Pittsburg, Pa. He desires to be released from his present charge in time to enter upon his new field by November 1. Mr. Callen has many friends in Waterloo, who deeply regret to have him leave. He is a man of unusual ability and came here from Cedar Falls, where he held a more successful pastorate. He has received $2,000 per year here, but the church to which he goes pays $4,000. A new Presbyterian church is soon to be organized in West Waterloo and over 100 names have already been subscribed toward the new church membership. This movement is necessary to meet the demands of the growing city. The First church is located in East Waterloo.

Editor Antagonizes Telegram.

IOWA CITY, Oct. 3.—(Special Telegram.)—Judge A. V. Jackson of Muscatine, who is hearing the Heath will case, today instructed the jury that the editorial of David Brant appearing in the Iowa City Republican today he thought might be in contempt of court, and should be disregarded in returning a verdict. The editorial favors the plaintiff, who is contesting the will of her father. The estate involved amounts to $50,000. Brant is a prominent politician, well known throughout the state. It is believed Brant will be ordered into court and fined for alleged contempt thereof.

ACCOUNTS ARE CHECKED UP

Postoffice Books Are Subjected to Investigation by Department Inspectors and Show Up Well.

A force of half a dozen postoffice inspectors has been employed for a week in checking up the accounts of the Omaha postoffice and completed the work Monday morning. Their findings are highly creditable to the management of the Omaha office, all accounts being found in correct condition and the general conduct of the office excellent. This inspection is the first given the Omaha office for two years and is supposed to be made annually. The inspectors came here at the special and urgent request of Postmaster Palmer made several months ago. "There is not the slightest truth in the report that the inspection at this time was the result of the recent embezzlement of Assistant Superintendent J. J. Riley of the money order department of St. Paul."

The inspectors are unanimous in their findings regarding the first-class condition of the Omaha office and speak in the most complimentary terms of the entire office management. The defalcation of Riley was found to be but approximately $900 and is attributed to the dishonesty of a man who was thought to be implicitly honest and the defalcation is in no way attributable to any lax methods of supervision or accounting.

Four Bodies Awaiting Disposition at the Hands of the County's Coroner.

An inquest will be held today.

An inquest has been held over the body of Lars Olson, who was found dead in the back room of a saloon at Eleventh and Farnam streets Monday morning. The jury found that Olson came to his death through acute alcoholism. A number of the man's Omaha friends will bury him.

The coroner is still holding the body of an unidentified man found dead on the tracks in the south part of the city last week.

DOCTORS FOR MEN. Everything has to have a beginning, and one of the most prolific sources of the disease and weakness so prevalent among men is the result of abuses in early life or neglected or improperly treated pelvic diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, etc. While Gonorrhoea is considered one of the simplest contagious diseases, yet through neglect it develops into Stricture and Gleet, individually progressing and tenaciously fastening itself upon the system until it has invaded the kidney, bladder and prostate glands, rendering it so complicated as to be incurable in some cases. Perhaps the first symptom was a little discharge, which if properly treated, could have been cured in a few days. Rheumatism is another result of improper treatment of this condition, producing not only excruciating pain, but it frequently warps and twists one or more of the joints in the body, producing horrible deformities, frequently depriving the individual of the ability to earn a living for himself, leaving him a helpless and tortured cripple for life. Another deplorable result of this disease when improperly treated is swollen glands that are not only painful, but they gradually destroy a man's sexuality, and in many cases physically. When this disease through neglect or improper treatment by its extension has caused a cystitis invasion of the bladder, (shown by its situation up the ureters to the kidney; it there produces results that are indeed lamentable. Some men through ignorance of the consequences which are sure to follow neglect or improper treatment, consider this a trifling ailment and rely upon patent medicines, druggists and unskilled doctors in an effort to secure relief for the cost of a bottle of medicine, and by this procedure allow the disease to make such serious inroads upon the sexual and nervous systems that it incapacitates them for the physical, mental and sexual duties of life, and the patient pays dearly for his economy or the selection of incompetent attendants.
