FIGHT ON CATALOGUE HOUSES

Kennedy Leads Aid to Commercial Interests Against Numbering Mail Boxes.

CONGRESSMAN APPEALS TO WASHINGTON

With President Wright of Commercial Club He Urges Abolition of Order Issued by Postoffice.

Congressman John L. Kennedy has actively taken up the cudgel for the wholesale and retail business men of Nebraska. Many prominent houses and individuals have written or addressed the congressman verbally, and he has written the fourth assistant postmaster general, asking for a suspension of the order numbering free rural delivery mail boxes. The letter is as follows:

The merchants, jobbers and commercial interests of this district and state are protesting vigorously against the enforcement of the order issued by you, August 7, last, providing for the numbering of rural free delivery boxes, and authorizing the delivery of mail by numbers instead of by names. The enclosed letters from M. E. Smith & Co., E. E. Bruce & Co., and Wright & Wilhelmy company show the feeling on the subject. These houses are among the largest in their line in the west. The letters from the Commercial club of Omaha and the Pittsboro Commercial club register objections along the same line. The Commercial club of Omaha has almost a thousand active, energetic members, who, so far as I can learn, are a unit in opposition to the numbering of mail boxes. The proposed plan will work a great injury to the jobbing and commercial interests of this western country. I presume the department had some reason which was deemed sufficient for the making of the order. Be kind enough to let me know what it was. In the meantime, I hope the order will be wholly suspended until the matter can be fully investigated.

JOHN L. KENNEDY
At present this order is in suspension awaiting the return to Washington of the fourth assistant postmaster general, but the Commercial club is endeavoring to have it entirely done away with. President W. S. Wright of the club has addressed letters to about forty-five commercial clubs of the state, which read in part as follows: Attached please find an order issued by the Postoffice department authorizing the delivery of letters on rural delivery routes by number instead of name. We have studied this order carefully in an effort to locate any advantage that would accrue to the department or to the people served by it. We will notice, however, that the mail order number is taken from the postmaster master the number of the free delivery route and the number of boxes on it to be able to deliver advertising matter to every recipient of mail on the route.

The communication goes on to urge the clubs to send letters of protest to the postmaster general and to ask the senators and congressmen of Nebraska to use their influence in killing the order.

Wright Writes Letters.
Mr. Wright wrote to the postmaster general in the name of the club and also to the six congressmen and two senators of the state. Replies have already been received from Senator Millard and Congressman Hinshaw and Pollard saying that they would take the matter up with the Postoffice department.

The retailers of Nebraska, as well as other states, have been considerably stirred up about the order and have made known their views through the trade press. Such an agitation is now under way that they would take the matter up with the Postoffice department. The fact of the matter is this order is regarded as a means of promoting the interests of foreign catalogue houses and on the principle of "live and let live" the Nebraska firms oppose it. They urge home industry patronage ahead of the catalogue house habit.

Lincoln Term Ended.
The October term of the federal courts at Lincoln, wound up Friday, with the trial of the Herpolsheimer, against Phoenix insurance company case. Suit was brought against the insurance company on a fire loss at Hastings, Neb., for the face of the policy, $3,000. The insurance company wanted to compromise the matter for about $2,000 less, but the plaintiff would not agree, and hence the suit. The court and court machinery returned to Omaha Friday afternoon.

UNION TO WAIT ON COUNCIL

Central Labor Body Asks Chance to Vote on Telephone Franchise.

At the meeting of the Central Labor union Friday night a communication was read from A. E. Hume of the Independent Telephone company commending the action of the union in advocating the granting of a franchise to the independent company. A communication was also read from the Union Collar company urging the purchase of union made goods by union men. The former communication was ordered placed on file and the latter was referred to the committee on union label and home industry.

A resolution was unanimously adopted relating to the tabling of the proposition of the Central Labor union by the city council of Omaha relative to the submission to a vote of the people the right to be heard on the question of "of interest not only to organized labor, but to the whole people." The resolution is as follows: That we brand the action of the Omaha city council a cowardly usurpation of the rights of the people to be heard on the question of public franchise on the exclusion of monopoly thereof, and be it further

Resolved, That we again reaffirm our faith in the proposition of submission to the people of Omaha the question of granting a franchise to the Independent Telephone company, and be it

Resolved, That the entire membership of this body be added to the nomination to wait upon the council and the individual members thereof to the end that said ordinance be considered and that our committee be given the right to be heard.

This resolution was also adopted: That the statutes of the state of Nebraska provide for the submission of the initiative and referendum vote of the people on matters of public policy; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we ask for the submission of the initiative and referendum to the vote of the people at the coming election to the end that the will of the whole people may not be thwarted by a monopoly of the city council.

The following were elected and obligated as members of the Central Labor union: J. J. Delahanty and L. O. Pierson from the Stationary Firemen's local; Gus Mottler and Ed DeLong from the Brewery Workers' local; J. E. Wittel, H. Anderson and E. Olson from the Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' local.

TREASURER FINK IS UPHELD

Sustained by Supreme Court in Refusing Bid for Land Sold.

RIGHT ON TAX CERTIFICATE CASE

County Attorney and Treasurer, Expecting Nothing Else, Are Gratified at the Ruling of the Court.

The supreme court has upheld Treasurer Fink in his refusal to accept a bid for land sold for taxes, which was less than the amount of the tax certificate, in an opinion handed down Thursday afternoon. The sale of the land was under the terms of the scavenger tax law.

W. A. Saunders bought two tax certificates, making a bid for less than the amount of taxes due on the property. Treasurer Fink refused to issue him the certificate and then Mr. Saunders appealed to the district court for a mandamus to compel the treasurer to act. The lower court upheld the treasurer and now the supreme court has affirmed the lower court.

In the opinion the supreme court held that the treasurer is not authorized under the scavenger law to issue a tax certificate owned by the city or county when the property to be sold fails to bring the amount of money due for taxes, together with the interest due thereon.

While expecting such a decision, the county attorney and the treasurer are both well pleased and say that it will mean much to the county. Were the property upon which taxes are due to be sold to the highest bidder regardless of whether the amount bid was more or less than the taxes, it would deprive the county of considerable money any at the same time boost the game of dealing in tax certificates.

REPUBLICANS IN COMMITTEE

Friendly Controversy Over Positions Expected at Meeting of the County Organization.

A more or less friendly controversy in the republican county committee is billed for the meeting Saturday afternoon over a proposal to reorganize the executive committee to include the members of the body last week requiring the officers of the body and the members of the executive committee to be members of the county committee.

This rule has caused dissatisfaction with certain ambitious aspirants, first with reference to a secretary the executive committee personnel of the executive committee, recommendation of a secretary, treasurer and executive committee was left to Chairman Gibson and the candidates, subject to the approval of the entire committee.

Hand in hand with these vexed questions is one to enlarge the executive committee to fourteen members, so as to provide representation from every Omaha ward, one from South Omaha and one from the country. This will probably go through without opposition.

For secretary C. W. Britt and E. H. Westerfield of Dundee have appeared as candidates among the members of the committee. If that officer is chosen from outside the selection is said to be between M. J. Gray and Dave Christie.

Arrangements will be made to open headquarters and to prosecute an active campaign.

WOMAN MISSES HER LOVER

Former Comes from Arkansas to Meet Fiance, but Fails to Find Him.

Disappointed in not meeting Martin Oldbacker, whom she expected to find at a passenger depot in South Omaha Friday morning, Miss Cleo Munroe called at the Omaha police station in the afternoon to confide to the police her suspicions that something may have befallen Oldbacker.

Miss Munroe is about 22 years of age and came to Omaha from Newport, Ark., to meet Oldbacker, who lived for many years in Newport and recently was working in Yankton. He sent the young woman money for a ticket and other things a week ago and it is gathered from the remarks of the young woman that the couple was to have been married in Omaha soon after the meeting at South Omaha. Miss Munroe is quite worried over the matter, as Oldbacker has always appeared a man of his word. Miss Munroe is staying with the police matron.

of securing the funds for the building of the hall, Mrs. Adams, president of the National Women's Relief Corps will deliver the principal address and at these exercises General Culver will "also speak."

ONE OF FINEST MONUMENTS

Such is General Culver's Estimation of Shaft Erected by G. A. R. at Randolph.

Adjutant General Culver was in Omaha a short time Friday morning en route to Lincoln for a trip to Randolph, Cedar county, where he had been as the personal representative of the governor to deliver the address at the unveiling of a monument erected at that place by the members of the Grand Army of the Republic post the Women's Relief Corps. The day was observed as a holiday by the schools and business men of Randolph and people from Wayne, Bloomfield and other neighboring towns took part in the exercises, fully 3,000 people being in attendance. The parade to the cemetery was a half mile in length. Commander Booth of the local post acted as master of ceremonies.

The monument was erected at a cost of $3,000 and consists of the figure of a soldier, life-size, erected over four pedestals. Beneath the pedestals is a marble cannon. The work was done by a local marble dealer and in the opinion of General Culver, the monument is one of the finest in the state, if not the very finest.

Tonight General Culver will go to Republican City, where Saturday he takes part in the dedication of the new hall constructed by the members of the Women's Relief Corps. Mrs. Luce, wife of Representative Luce, has had charge of the work

Officers were elected as follows: Dr. C. E. Atzen, Omaha, president; Dr. Bowers, Lincoln, vice president; Dr. Runyon, Seward, treasurer; Dr. C. W. Farwell, Omaha, secretary.
