adjourned session last evening the city incil listened to the reading of the nended intersection bond ordinance for Twenty-fourth street and referred the document to the judiciary committee. Another meeting will be held today when the ordinance will be passed.

Recently several of the city officials held a conference with A. L. Mohler, general manager of the Union Pacific, in regard to the securing of protection to pedestrians ary 1. teams at the F street crossing. A viaduct was asked for and Mr. Mohler agreed to take the matter up. Last night a letter was read from Mr. Mohler suggesting that an electric bell be placed at the crossing. This suggestion did not meet with the approval of the council and the letter was placed on file. Another visit will be paid to Mr. Mohler with a view to securing a watchman.

George E. Dunscombe was awarded the contract for laying brick sidewalks for the year ending June 30. His bid was 114 cents per square yard for three foot walks, Il cents for four foot walks and 10% cents for five foot walks.

City Attorney Lambert reported unfavor ably on the petition to grade the alley between Twenty-second and Twenty-third that the petition was defective in that a sufficient number of property owners had not signed. The report was adopted.

Ordinances were read the first time providing for the laying of permanent sidewalks on the south side of Washington street from Eighteenth street to Railroad evenue, on Thirty-third street from H to I and on Sixteenth street from I street to the establishment of curb lines on Twentigiving permission to park the street. The fire and water committee was instructed to have some repairs made to fire halls Nos. 2 and 3. One of the important matters was the introduction of an ordinance refunding an issue of $70,000 general bonds at 41/2 per cent. These bonds have been running five years and the council desires to refund the issue in order to cut down the rate November 1 and bids will soon be adversed for. According to the ordinance the per cent interest will cease on Novem-

A large number of permanent sidewalks were ordered laid where property owners had been notified and have failed to comply with the orders of the council.

the convention will last for three days.

Joseph Koutsky Seriously III. Joseph Koutsky is seriously ill in Denver-Telegrams from there to Mayor Kontsky are to the effect that Joseph is suffering from appendicitis. - Last Thursday Mr. Koutsky went to Denver to buy some feeder cattle. Monday forenoon a telegram was received by the mayor giving the information that his brother was in bad shape, -Later a telegram reached the mayor directing that he have Joseph's wife and his brother, Dr. John Koutsky, start for Denver at once. Dr. Koutsky and Mrs. Koutsky left Monday afternoon for Denver, and expect to arrive there this morning.

City Warrant Call. City Treasurer Howe issued a call Monday for city warrants aggregating $7.000. This call is for general fund warrants up to and including registered No. 3,684, fire fund warrants including No. 1,398 and street repair warrants to and including No. 644. Interest on these outstanding warrants causes today. The city treasurer would like to have these outstanding warrants presented for payment as soon as possible.

Rain Delays Work. All out of door work had to be suspended Monday on account of the rain. The open conduit trenches of the telephone company filled with water and necessitated the laying off of the men. It was the intention Parks, Johnson & Parks to start tearing up the asphalt pavement on Twenty-fourth street, but nothing could be done. If the weather clears today men and teams will be put at this work. For the same reason Contractor McGowan found it impossible to make a start toward the curbing of Missouri avenue. The specific charges against Foster are that he was the principal in the Storey Cotton company, which is alleged to have defrauded a large number of persons throughout the country, and that he was also connected with the Provident Investment bureau. Shortly after the jury had been selected to try Francis United States postal inspectors placed William C. Byram, a lawyer of Bradley Beach, N. J., with offices at Belmar, under arrest on the charge of attempting to unlawfully influence witnesses summoned to appear at the trial. Byram was in the courtroom when taken into custody and was given a hearing after court adjourned for the day. The principal witnesses against Byram were Gertrude Sundheim and Margaret Hoke, who were formerly employed as bookkeepers by the Storey Cotton company. They testified that Byram had attempted to have them eliminate "local color" from their testimony and make it as mild as possible without telling an untruth. They were to be rewarded, they said, by being given lucrative positions in other cities. He told them he came in the interests of a Mr. Harper. who, Miss Sundheim explained, was no other than Franklin Stone, or Marin, a fugitive from justice.
