GOOD DAY FOR THE LOCAL STABLES

McCord and Brandeis figure largely in the winnings on Wednesday. A fairly good attendance was the record for the Wednesday afternoon horse show.

Stallions on Parade

In the opening event, the stallion class for 4-year-old or over Constantine clearly outclassed the others. Constantine is one of the most really bred light horses in America on both sire's and dam's side.

Some Local Competition

Alice Wilkes, owned by T. C. Byrne, was given the blue ribbon in the local leader class, while W. W. Mace's bay mare was given second, and Mr. Guilo's Daisy third.

THE ARMY RATION

A Good Suggestion From an Old Soldier. The government has been experimenting for some years with a condensed food to be used by soldiers in case of emergency when the army shall cut loose from its base of supplies and cast off its wagon trains and the troops shall carry their rations for a number of days in their haversacks.

When the Ponies Come

In the pony class, there were ponies of all sizes and descriptions. Large were small boys, and there were some girls, too; that is, two girls, Leola Brandeis and Alice Cudahy.

surface in the jump class, Murray winning with his beautiful Confidence. Winners of Awards. Stallions, class 4, 4-year-old or over: First, 25, Constantine, King-Hill Stock Farm, 25; second, 20, Baron Alton, Fred Puffenberger, South Omaha; third, 15, Billy Paxton, Fred Goodwin, South Omaha.

At the Evening Show. All were in readiness for the park horse class, the opening number of the evening show, with a program which was pleasing to all concerned.

Considerable time was consumed in making the decision in the gaited saddle horse class. The entries consisted of the finest of the country. The blue ribbon was given to King Lee, a beautiful horse with a prettier head.

W. H. McCord was the winner in the park park class, horses alone considered, driving his Storm, Queen and Kimball. An equal prize was given to the exhibition of horsemanship and put his horses around the turns in a manner that made some of the women tremble lest the whole outfit would roll over into the promenade.

Prepare Yourself for Success Let the motto be your motto. It was the above of Carnegie, the Scotch millionaire, who, having been a poor boy, is not ignorant of the many restrictions as well as the opportunities of poverty. His life and success demonstrate the fact that: Do not be content, therefore, to plod along and do just that which is assigned to you. Keep yourself prepared to do something a little more difficult every day and you are sure to obtain success.
