POSITIVE PARAGRAPHS FROM BOYLES

BEING ONE THAT BUILDS A BID FOR PATRONAGE ON BOYLES BUILDING.

Let us be reasonable. Let us claim just what we can PROVE. The largest business college in the United States is NOT located in Omaha. largest business college in Nebraska-and the ONLY business college building in Nebraska devoted wholly and solely to business college purposes—IS located in Omaha. That building is The Boyles Building, and it is occupied by

BOYLES COLLEGE

There is not a cheap point in the construction of the Boyles Building any more than there is a cheap teacher in the employ of Boyles College, or any more than there is a single cheap stenographer, cheap bookkeeper or cheap operator that ever graduated from Boyles College. The high grade reputation that has always been enjoyed by Boyles College could not be sustained by a low grade building. The environment of a student during the day, when he or she is acquiring his or her training for business, has more to do with his or her success in after life than is usually imagined. Here in Boyles College everything that could possibly contribute to the student's enjoyment of his or her studies is included in our equipment.

If you don't realize that it pays to have it known that you graduated from the most successful business college in Omaha, just ask one of our graduates just what his or her experience has been in gaining a GOOD situation and you will understand where the proof of attending Boyles College comes in.

Send for free catalogue. Or, better yet, come in and talk this whole matter over with us. We will be glad to see you any hour any day.

BOYLES COLLEGE, H. B. BOYLES, President.
