N. Y. Life Insurance Co.

New York, October 10th, 1905. To the Trustees of the New York Life Insurance Company: Gentlemen—On September 23d, and again on September 29th, I addressed you asking that you join in my demand for the resignation of President McCall and Vice President Perkins.

OMAHA, Oct. 14, 1905. The wheat market was firm early on smaller northwestern receipts and on buying of local interests. This took the market to a level of 50c, but support was apparently withdrawing and the market returned to a level of 48c.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The bank statement proved an enigma again today, as has been the case for several days. The statement showed a large decrease in the loan item, but the market remained impassive.

The conservative and independent New York Evening Post, in an editorial published Oct. 5, entitled "Outraging the Moral Sense," concluded with these words, in referring to Mr. McCall: "But the time has come, we submit, when the policy holders, agents and directors of the New York Life must seriously ask whether its control can any longer be left with safety or honor in the hands of a man who has so grossly affronted the uncontaminated moral sense."
