County Attorney's Office Awaits for Transcript of Proceedings in Police Court Before Filing Information,

Two men charged with murder in the first degree were among the prisoners arraigned before Judge Day in the criminal court Saturday morning. Pat Crows was not brought in to plead, as the county attorney's office has not received the transcript of proceedings had in the municipal court; hence the formal information in the case is not yet filed. Following are the arraignments, with pleas:

Joseph Kozlowski of South Omaha, charged with the killing of a negro named William Rollins, July 30, in a saloon fight; not guilty; out on $5,000 bond.

John K. Thomas, colored, charged with the shooting and killing of Lulu Sadler on August 5; not guilty

Harry Spencer, assault with a knife on Charles Moore; not guilty. Charles Gordon, assault and mayhem, in eves on October 2; not guilty. George Strong, stealing railroad velocipede from Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific; not guilty; mental condition to be examined

James Barnett, colored, stabbing Gersidered the plot of such importance to at that box notify the railroad man. The Cudahy kidnaping at Omaha, occurred several weeks

According to Pinkerton investigation went to show that Crowe had threatened is conducted in that manner.

"The whole thing is laughable and with out one grain of truth. Pinkerton has been knocking me right along and if I ever tell what I know about him he had better watch out. I am in Omaha now and anything Pinkerton wants to say about me will not hurt. I may have taken a little gold from a few rich men, but, thank God, never shot a workingman in the back and allowed widows and orphans to suffer." It was not difficult to perceive that Pinkerton's reputed statement did not have a soothing effect upon Crowe. Crowe took occasion to embellish Mr. Pinkerton in a too rare to print. But it was plainly manifest that betwixt one Pat Crowe and W. A. could not be broken with a crowbar.

When they were after me here five of the reward offered.

Pinkerton is not allowed in the state of Nebraska and you may put it down that I will be leading an honest life right here in Omaha when this so-called great detective will not be allowed to operate here."

DEATH RELIEVES SUFFERING Hugh Brown, Found Unconscious Few Days Ago, Passes Away at Clarkson Hospital.

Hugh Brown of Council Bluffs, the old man found early last Tuesday morning at Twenty-fifth and Howard streets by Harry Walsh and John Kosters in a semi-con scious condition, crawling on his hands and knees, died Saturday morning at Clarkson hospital after having lingered between life and death since located in Omaha. The body was taken to the home of Brown's son-in-law, E. Hicks, at Council Bluffs. Burial will be at Kansas City.

Just what happened to Brown may never be known. He left his home last Monday evening without any money and was next of in Omaha. He was subject to fits of absent-mindedness and the belief is he just wandered away and fell down and injured the back of his head. His relatives searched in Council Bluffs all last Monday night for him and notified the Omaha police. Brown was 65 years of age.

BIG MULTITUDE OF VISITORS Close to One Hundred Thousand People Landed in Denver G. A. R. Week.

For the benefit of many inquirers within and without the organization of veterans, & Rio Grande railway has compiled the following figures of the attendance at the recent Grand Army of the Republic encampment held in Denver:

In addition to the above no less than 7,500 passengers to and from the Pacific coast passed through Denver encampment week, nearly all of whom stopped off. These tickets are not included in the above figures. They would bring the aggregate attendance to 92,726. Gerrit Fort, assistant general passenger agent of the Union Pacific, has returned from Denver and reports the people of Denven have all kinds of money since the recent Grand Army of the Republic encampment. They are pleased with the result of causing the loss of one of Fred Miller's the encampment and figure at least $2,000,000 was left there as a result of the influx of people. This is figuring on a basis of $20 per person who visited Denver during that time. He said: "Denver is beginning to realize the immense benefits from reunions of this kind. trude Barnett on July 5; not guilty; out on All of the merchants as well as the hotel proprietors made money in chunks. They will all work together in the future for

REASON FOR ISSUING ORDER Explanation of Action in Numbering Rural Mail Boxes Instead of Using Names.

Congressman Kennedy and Senator Millard received from the fourth assistant postmaster-general, a letter giving the easons which actuated the Postoffice department in making the order providing for the numbering of mail boxes on rural free delivery routes, and authorizing the delivery of mail by numbers instead of by names. The letter says the department has found it difficult to make prompt deliveries of mail on rural routes, where CHICAGO, Oct. 14.-William A. Pinkerton | there are several families of the same name declared today that Pat Crowe, the al- residing on the routes, and in order to leged kidnaper of Edward Cudahy, jr., was overcome the difficulty and enable the postsuspected of complicity in a well organized masters to furnish the carriers with complot to kidnap and hold for $50,000 ransom, plete rosters of pairons on their routes, it the child of a prominent New York railroad | was thought best to number the boxes and magnate. The name of the magnate was show opposite the number of each box the refused by Mr. Pinkerton, but he con- names of all persons entitled to receive mail

The department suggests that the order made, simply extended to the holders of after the New York plot was discovered, rural boxes the privilege given holders and as the plan followed there was along of boxes in postoffices, under the postal exactly similar lines, Crowe's name was laws and regulations, which provide mail never entirely removed from the investibox may be delivered to the holder, so long as no improper or unlawful business

SIMPLE LIFE AT CITY HALL Rural Homes Popular Among Officials -John W. Fead Buys a

Little Farm

The trend of city hall denizens toward the simple life has received a fresh impetus bond clerk in the office of the city treasurer and one of the best paid appointees word picture of the rarest English, a little at the hall, that he is building a house and stable and sinking a well on a modest little farm at Forty-eighth and Martha streets. Pinkerton there is no chord of love that | Some time ago Mr. Fead bought five acres of land. He has set out fruit trees and vines on part of it. The remainder will be years ago Pinkerton wrote to me and said devoted to vegetable, garden truck and if I would let him have the honor of ar- chicken raising. In addition to the comresting me he would give me every cent fort, exercise and health he expects to derive from his rural holdings Mr. Fead is hopeful of material results which will go a long way toward paying taxes and replenishing the coal bin. The house and stable are now in course of construction and the well is making rapid pace toward water, so that high or low rates will have no effect on the pocketbook of the owner Mr. Fead plans to move onto his new place before the wintry winds begin to howl.

MAN PAYS ONLY HIS OWN FINE Remits to Police Court and Leaves Wife to Languish in Jail.

When Mr. and Mrs. McCready were ar raigned in police court Saturday morning on charges of disturbing the peace by fighting both were fined $1 and costs by the police judge. The husband paid his own fine and left his wife to languish in jail At the time of the arrest a few evenings ago McCready furnished a cash bond for his own release until the trial, while the woman remained in jail all night. The next morning she offered her gold watch for security and was then released. The trouble is said to have been caused by little domestic difference.
