OMAHA. Oct. 21, 1865.

The first hour the market was dull, but very firm. Later bull activity developed, which carried prices up. The news, while strong in some particulars, was hardly as important a factor as sentiment and the cash situation. Minneapolis reported a good cash demand. All the mills are expected to run tomorrow. Reports from the southwest indicate that millers and others are buying wheat on the dry weather prevailing. The farmers are experiencing difficulty in obtaining supplies at reasonable prices. Cables were firm. December closed at $7687\c. May at $7\cdot\text{2}\text{e}\text{c}\text{. May at Si\cdot\text{e}\text{c}\text{ and July at $3\cdot\text{e}\text{c}\text{. those who have watched the wheat market closely for several days say the seling at Chicago has been for the northwest and by the local talent, who fear that they will be unloaded upon every time the wheat weakens. The bull leaders, they say, have not disturbed their holdings and have simply scalped.

Many houses are full and unable to do busness, notwithstanding that the railroads are doing their utmost to relieve them."

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS Features of the Trading and Closing

Prices on Board of Trade.

Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31—Reports of damage to fall sown wheat in Kansas and Oklahoma helped to strengthen the wheat market today. Another buillish factor was continued excellent demand for American grain for export. At the close wheat for December delivery was up % to 3c. Corn and oats are up ½ to %c. Provisions are practically unchanged.

With the exception of a slightly easier feeling at the start, the tone of the wheat market was firm throughout the entire day. The volume of business on the whole was rather small. At the opening December was unchanged to ½c higher at 85% 50% c. Influenced by clear weather in the northweast and by increased receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth, pit traders were inclined to sell. Demand from commission houses, however, absorbed the offerings at only slight losses. December eased off to 85% c. At the end of the first hour a firmer tone developed on covering by shorts. Fresh reports of drouth damage to the new sown crop in the southwest started the buying. One message from Kansas City said: "The dry weather situation in Kansas and Oklahoma is worth giving attention to. It is learned from reliable sources that the complaints of damage are well founded." Another factor that created some apprehension in the minds of shorts was continued urgent demand from exporters for American corn and oats. The demand from foreigners for grain tended to strengthen faith in the numerous reports alleging a shorting of feed stuff in Europe. For December wheat the highest point of the day was reached at 87%. The market closed strong with December at $7657%. Clear-sines of wheat and flour were equal to 271,000 bushels, compared with 1.344,000 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Doluth and Chicago reported receipts of $34 cars, against 76 cars inst week and 794 cars a year ago. Notwithstanding ideal weather conditions for the new crop, the corn market was firm the greater part of the session. Early in the day there was a little selling by pit traders who were influenced by the clear, cold grade.

The oats market was firm the entire session. Trading was fairly active with considerable covering by shorts. The enormous sales already made for export, and the continued demand from exporters was the chief buillsh influence. December was unchanged at 25% o. sold up to 25% and closed at 25% c. Local receipts were 302 cars.

closed at 294c. Local receipts were scars.

The feature of trading in provisions was renewed seling of lard and ribs by a local packer. Early in the day the market felt the effect of these offerings, but later steadled on the strength of grain. At the close January pork was up 24c at $12.40. Lard was unchanged at $6.774,08.80. Ribs were up 24c at $6.50.

Estimated receipts for Monday: Wheat, 152 cars; corn 158 cars, oats, 420 cars; hogs, 29.000 head.

The $5,000,000 in gold shipped from India for the account of the Indian secretary was landed in Egypt and a corresponding sum was set aside by the Bank of England for the currency note reserve. Trading on the Stock Exchange was cheerful. Prices hardened with the cessation of liquidation, although there was the usual week end slackness, in addition to which the nearness of the settlement checked dealings. Consols were steady, sustaining first class securities. Home rails were strong. Americans opened steady, improved on New York support and hopes of a good New York bank statement and closed firm and inactive. Japanese imperial & of 1904 were quoted at 107%.

portance here, at least not enough to make a market. As will be noted from the tables above, the receipts of cattle this week have been somewhat heavier than last week, but smaller than two weeks ago by close to 5,000 head. As compared with a year ago there has been a gain of not far from 5,000 head.

The week's trade in beef steers opened rather unfavorably for the sellers. There was a large run on Monday, over 400 cars, and large receipts and lower markets at other selling points. Under such circumstances it was not surprising that buyers made the most of the opportunity to pound prices good and hard. From Monday on the receipts were only moderate and the market gradually strengthened up until the loss was fully recovered. Now, at the close of the week, it is safe to say that the market on corn-fed steers is fully steady with a week ago, while western treatments. the loss was fully recovered. Now, at the close of the week, it is safe to say that the market on corn-fed steers is fully steady with a week ago, while western steers are a little higher, some would say as much as 10615c higher. The market after Monday was in a good, healthy condition all the week; that is, the demand was fully equal to the supply, and on most days the movement was fairly active, so that the receipts were disposed of without very much trouble.

Cows and heifers also sold off a little on Monday for the same reason that beeves were lower; that is, large receipts and

 DRUIDING'S FINANCIAL REVIEW

For the information of parties who may be interested in speculative securities we have made arrangements with Mr. F. G. Druiding of Chicago, an expert writer on financial topics and delineator of stock exchange probabilities, to furnish a weekly review of the salient features of current financial topics gleaned from the various are considerably inconvenienced and as a result Wall street is very likely to suffer by it.

Trading yesterday was somewhat more active, but it was the characteristic excited entire in the past. Reading United States Steel recovery and resulted in fractions of the particular control of determined efforts of the stockholders in the Corn Products company, and observe the rise in value of the shares of Erie, Kansas City, Southern, Toledo, St. Louis & Western shares. It will be seen at a giance that the stockholders are beginning to take an interest in the affairs of the companies to whom they have given their money for commercial use, and it will be apparent at once that these same stockholders are becoming interested enough to travel hundreds of miles to sit at a directors' meeting in order to familiarize themselves with the business affairs under discussion.

discussion.

This changing tendency is very apt to spread with great rapidity, in which event some of the autocrats which exercise their regal powers in the dummy directorate change probabilities, to furnish a weekly review of the sailent features of current financial topics gleaned from the various exchanges.

We desire, however, on the part of The Bee to disclaim all responsibility for the accurateness of any forecast Mr. Druiding may make concerning future prospects of any investment or enterprise.

All special inquiries about the present or prospective value of any particular security should be addressed direct to Mr. F. G. Druiding, No. 524 First National bank building, Chicago, Ill.

Amalgamated Copper company declared yesterday a dividend of his per cent. The Boston-Montana Consolidated Mining company paid a dividend of a per cent. The bond market has been in a flourishing condition up to the past fay weeks, and the slump is due entirely to the existing money conditions. No question exists in my mind but what the entire tendency of the country is changing. A year from now bonds will be in the history of this country. The stock market is one that should be strictly left alone, at least until some of the financial clouds that threaten Wall street have disappeared from the financial horizon.

Feeders were very high last week, so that buyers have been very much against raising prices any this week, still the market has been firm and in some cases perhaps a little higher. The trade in feeder sheep has been very limited, as there have been no feeder wethers or yearlings to speak of. There have been some ewes and they have gradually advanced under the influence of the very good demand, until they are close to 25c higher than a week ago. The most of the feeding ewes are selling at 34.25(4.40. Breeding ewes are very scarce. Good, weighty feeding lambs have sold at 36.30 (50.3), with lighter weights, but of fair quality, at 25.006(8.20).
