General Electric Company Decides to Have Work Done by Other

Houses.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Oct. 21-As the result of the strike of printers at the local plant of the General Electric company, which has been on for the last five weeks. the company has decided to abandon its printing department and have its work done outside the works. The printers made a demand for the eight-hour day, which was granted, with the prevailing scale of wages in this city, which is $16.

The General Electric printers were getting #18 per week. As the acceptance of the wages, and the company would not agree way, the project may be regarded as formto continue the $15 scale, the printers ing one of the links in the Japanese-British struck. Today it was announced by the treaty and understanding. The scheme is had been settled on the printers' terms, the defence, however, of which the redistribudate when the eight-hour agreement is to by the Admiralty, some time ago, was but take effect.

It is not expected that the large party onnected with the arbitration will remain at Singapore more than a fortnight. All of the members of the party are expected back in London before December 1.

The progress of Singapore in recent years has been so rapid and the docks in themselves are so valuable that the vendors' claim is expected to run anywhere from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000.

It should be stated, however, that the scheme is being carried out with the cognisauce and the approval of the Japanese government, which since the war with Russia is regarded as having a powerful influence over matters pertaining to the int-hour day would mean a reduction of orient. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 21.-Francis B. Runder cashier of the St. Louis postoffice, was arrested this afternoon by Postoffice Inspectors J. L. Stice and John D. Sullivan following the discovery of an alleged shortage of $9,000 in his accounts.

Immediately after taking Runder into custody the inspectors, appeared before Unied States Attorney Dwyer and a warrant charging embegglement was issued. It is said Runder admitted the alleged shortage to the inspectors and said he was responsible for it, but that he did not know what had become of the money.

The federal warrant issued for Runder charges embezzlement of $9,028.33. Runder was immediately arraigned before United States Commissioner Babbitt, waived preliminary hearing and his bond was fixed at $10,000. Pending the securing of bond he was held in the marshal's office. He declined to make any statement,

The storm came up so suddenly as to find he crews unprepared. The darkness of night hung over the lake. The wind rose with fearful suddenness, howling and sweeping around the boats, The lake beame mountainous. The boats were tossed about at the will of the storm. It looked for a time as if all would be lost.

The Ashland was lost to view of the Bulgaria. Those on board the Ashland could dimly see the Tasmania. One moment it road toward it on great waves; another moment it receded in the trough of the sea. On board the Ashland they were keeping from being washed into the sea only by linging to objects on deck. It was seen that the line to the Ashland must be cut-One of the crew made his way to the stern. With a knife he reached down and severed the line. The end of it dropped away out of sight. That was the last the crew of the Ashland saw of the other boat. It eemed that she sank at once.

Business The Hospe piano business is serious—to you. It seems to be a careless grab for your money in most piano stores.

We'd rather lose a sale than misrepresent one single thing about a plano-because you'd find it out sooner or later. In this plane business we're standing up for your rights. That's one reason why our planos are all marked with the lowest price—a plain-figure business is fair to you—a sliding price is unfair. We pay no commissions to people who bring or send customers to our
