Visiters Defeat Heme Team Twenty-Eight

Presbyterians' Team Work at Every Stage of the Game is One of Most Petent Factors in Winning.

The purple and gold of Bellevue triamphed over the blue and white of Creighon university at Vinton Street park Saturay afternoon by the score of 28 to 0 because of superior coaching and all around work of the Presbyterians. Outplayed at every stage of the game by a team considerably lighter, the Creightons were seen after the first eight minutes of play to have no chance whatever.

Creighton's team was the first to appear upon the field and a fine looking lot of foot ball players they were in their new highgrade suits with white sweaters with the large "C." Bellevue was delayed by a railroad accident and when they appeared in their homespun togs many in the grandstand and bleachers were heard to sigh out of pity for the little fellows. It looked to be all Creighton before the game, for the Bellevue rooters were delayed with the team, but when the team appeared the bleachers immediately filled with the wearers of the purple and gold.

Bellevue Wins Toss.

Bellevue won the toss and chose to defend the north goal. Creighton to kick off. The bail was kicked to the twenty-five-yard by line and returned about seven yards by Grant Benson, when Bellevue began a sories of plunges and round-the-end plays as fine as was ever witnessed on an Omaha gridiron. First one Benson and then the other and then Agnew and then Brown were sent against the line or around the end with the same result at all times, a gain of from four to fifteen or twenty yards. Bellevue's team work was superior, the men helping each other at all times.

Bellevue simply carried Credenton's team.

Coach Butler said after the game he was compelled to play some line men who had been with the team scarcely a week, but gave promise of being good men. In the second half Brown showed he knew how to boot the ball when he kicked a goal from a place kick from the thirty-yard line. He attempted another later from the forty-yard line, but falled.

Association Game at New York.

NEW YORK, Oct 21.—About 4,000 persons gatheged at the Poio grounds today to see the association foot oall game between the Pligrins of England and a picked eleven from crubs in the vicinity of Greater New York. The vissing team won by a score of seven gosis to one. The haives were of forty-five minutes each, with an intermission of five minutes. In the first haif the local men scored the initial goal. At the call of time, however, the British experts had the lead by 3 to 1. The visitots evidently were holding back during the earlier part of the game, as in the second haif they added four more goals to their score, playing all around the New York representatives.

The playing of Sir Charles Kirkpatrick for the English and Craig for New York, as goal keepers, was excellent, but many times during the game the work of the more active players was not up to expectations. In the fine points of the game, particularly in playing from a "corner," the Pitgrims outclassed the home team.

The clean open work of the players, which the rules of the game make compulsory, was a revelation to many of the onlookers, who saw this style of play for the first time.

Chicage's Fast Quarterback Wins Third Game for His Team.

WISCONSIN IS UNABLE TO SCORE

Both Tenms Play a Clean, Fast, Hard Game and There is Searcely Any Fumb-Hng.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 21.-Walter Eckersall, Chicago's quarter back, today for the third time brought victory for the University of Chicago foot ball eleven over Wisconsin by a score of 4 to 9. Three times, with the ball within scoring distance of the Wisconsin goal line, he tried to drop kick a goal. The third trial was success ful, the ball sailing squarely between the goal posts and placing four points to the credit of the Maroon team. This was all the scoring done by either side. Three times the Wisconsin team had the ball within twenty yards of Chicago's goal line, Once it rested on the ten-yard line. But with defeat staring them in the face Chicago's linemen dug their feet deep into the soft ground and threw back the Wisconsin backs.

The struggle was probably one of the fiercest ever seen on a western gridiron. It was foot ball, clean, hard, each man playing to the last ounce. Little fumbling was done. Chicago men let the ball get away from them three times, the last time almost resulting in a touchdown for Wisconstn. as Eckersall dropped a punt en Chicago's fifteen-yard line. Wisconsin fumbled twice. Outside of this the play was clean and sharp.

Fully 10,000 people witnessed the game.

HARVARD DEFEATS ARMY CADETS

Point Team Unable to Score in Contest with Crimson. WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Harvard defeated West Point's foot ball eleven today by a score of 8 to 0, although the army team gained nearly twice as much ground as their opponents. Surprised by West Point's unexpectedly strong attack, Harvard was in danger of defeat until late in the game, when it scored on a fumble of West Point.

Although the play of both teams in the game, when it scored on a fumble of West Point.

Although the play of both teams was marred by fumbling and penalties, the entire thirty-five minutes play was filled with spectacular runs and open plays which held an audience of several thousand spectators at a high pitch of excitement. A gale of wind which swept the fleid lengthwise caught the punts and frequently carried the ball sailing nearly fifty feet above the ground for two-thirds of the gridiron's length. The wind made it practically impossible to catch the punts safely. It was during the scramble on hands and knees after one of these fumbled kicks that Harvard scored. During the first five minutes play Harvard appeared to be a certain winner. Securing the ball in midfield soon after the first kickoff Harvard advanced it steadily to the srmy's ten-yard line. The gains were usually made by shoving the soldiers over by superior weight or when that appeared impossible by diving and jumping over the line. Finally Harvard was held for downs on the ten-yard line. Beavers for West Point immediately punted the ball with the wind for a total gain of fifty yards, and during the remainder of the half the soldiers were continually in the ball with the wind for a total gain of fifty yarda, and during the remainder of the half the soldiers were continually in Harvard's territory, twice being near enough to attempt drop kicks for goal.

Soon after the second half began Burr, for Harvard, booted the ball over the head of Hill, West Point's right halfback, on his own ten-yard line. Hill touched the ball with his finger tips as it went over his head. Half a dozen men from both teams were almost on the ball when it struck again, McDonald, Harvard's right end, catching it safely just as it rolled over West Point's goal line. White kicked

"I have long favored such a revolution in the game," he continued, c'lt is not right that this sport should be confined to a mere handful of players, while the greater part of the student body is relegated to the bleachers or behind the fence. The game, it should never be lost sight of, was originally designed for exercise and not solely for a victory over a rival college. We need a same that many can take part in need a game that many can take part in and the foot ball rules should be altered so that many students, at present listless, may have a chance to participate."

Pennsylvania State College Proves : Worthy Opponent.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 21.—In a sensational game, in which the Yale men were forced to exert themselves to the utmost to win, Pennsylvania State college was defeated today by the score of 12 to 0. Yale scored one touchdown in the first half, a fumble giving Captain Shevlin a chance to make one of his remarkable runs and one in the second half on a long run by Jones, quarterback.

The Pennsylvania State college back field was perhaps the strongest that Yale has was perhaps the strongest that Yale has faced this season, while in the rush line also the visitors seemed fully capable of taking care of themselves. Using a series of close formations, the visitors went straight into Yale's center and forced the Yale team back from two to seven vards. Yale team back from two to seven yards at a time. Much of the first half and again for periods in the second Yale was on the defensive. Yale's handling of the ball between center and quarterback was erratic and the backs were not always sure.

Askland played a good game for the first ten min utes, during which time it had a slight advantage, but when the Business boys got over their stage fright and settled down to work the local team had no chance to score. Boyles' team made large gains, but lost the ball on fumbles at critical stages, thus giving Ashland a chance to kick and they would have the ground to gain over again when the ball would again be lost. Collins starred for Boyles and Hervey was the best ground gainer. Reynolds made the longest run of the day, making fitteen yards.

AMONG THE BOWLERS.

Bowling is on the increase in Omaha, although most of the sport up to this time has been confined to league games. The women have accepted the invitation of the association to use the alleys and may be seen any morning making good use of the time alloted to them. A meeting will be held Sunday morning at the headquarters of officers of the association and league team captains to consider ways and means of boosting the game to some extent and also to arrange for some games with out-of-town teams. Many of the towns of western Iowa and eastern Nebraska have splendid bowling alleys and many players of high merit, and it is planned to start early to have an interchange of games with these teams.
