

hardships before they are able to take frequent trips to the cities. They meet the question of having good schools for their children and conveniences to churches and other blessings of society. These hardships they are willing to bear for the sake of later on becoming independent. It is only the hope of the future that leads them on, meeting one hardship after another. After some years they become independent and, generally speaking, when a man has a bunch of over $500 head of cattle he can take things rather easy; in fact much more easy than does the farmer in eastern Nebraska, who works hard in the field every day, while the ranchman's busy time is the haying time, once a year.

The cattle industry is vital to Nebraska. While the production is large today in the number of feeder cattle sent in from its western prairies, it is probable that but few people in the eastern part of the state realize how much greater this production might be under more favorable conditions. That this increased beef production is needed to supply the wants of the people is apparent to the most casual observer.

Sentiment Favors Sales.
The sentiment is strong in favor of some equitable system of purchase of the public lands that have not been filed upon, and such a law that would permit the land to be bought in limited quantities, would be regarded as a relief by practically all of the cattlemen of this section of the country. They point out that a large portion of eastern Nebraska was purchased at a stipulated price per acre, under the heading of "offered lands" and that a large number of other acres in eastern Nebraska was located in early days by persons holding various kinds of land warrants, and they are unable to understand why these same plans could not be applied to the western part of the state.

SPECULATING ON NEW QUEEN
Madrid Hears King Will Marry Princess Louise of Orange, a Catholic.

MADRID, Oct. 22.—(Special Cablegram to the Bee.)—The proposed match between the king of Spain and the elder daughter of the duke of Connaught is said to be "off" though, of course, no one in court circles will talk about the matter. It appears that the princess would have none of the duke of Connaught's title, and that she had no wish to become a queen and that the position of queen of Spain did not possess for her the slightest attractions. About all that is known about the matter here is that the duke and duchess are taking her to South Africa for the winter and that the rumored visit to Madrid has been cancelled.

RUSSIA FLOATING A BIG LOAN
Hopes of One Banker Delays Completion of the Details.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 22.—Negotiations for the floating of a new Russian loan are not expected to be completed before the end of a week. The representatives of the French, American, English and German groups of bankers have not yet arranged the basis of participation, and some delay is being caused by the illness of one of the French representatives. Nevertheless the negotiations are reported to be proceeding harmoniously and the flotation of a new international loan, amounting to $200,000,000, seems to be assured.

No definite information can be obtained as to the time of issue or the price of the bonds, but it is stated that the bonds will be issued in series for separate listing on the exchanges of the respective countries. The French group is said to be insistent on this point in order to prevent speculation in the bonds by the other groups on the Paris bourse.

RETURN THANKS FOR PEACE
Services Are Held in Churches Throughout the Russian Empire.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 22.—Services of thanksgiving for the conclusion of peace were held today in all churches throughout the empire, and festive banquets were celebrated. The emperor's rescript announcing peace was read to the court and the celebration held in the Kazan cathedral in St. Petersburg was attended by the ministers and other high functionaries.

Boat Goes Over Dam.
MARIETTA, O., Oct. 22.—While returning from Marietta to Marietta in a motor boat this morning, M. L. Williamson, district probate judge, C. H. Nixon and Will Kelly, son of a wealthy oil producer, went over a dam at Lowell on the Muskingum river and Williamson was drowned. Dense fog caused the party to miss the dam. The boat went over the dam, capsizing and throwing the party out. Judge Nixon and Will Kelly swam to a bridge pier and were rescued.

SHOOTS HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW

Frank L. Busch Defends His Home from Murderous Assault.

DEAD MAN HAD MADE THREATS OF MURDER
Wife Left Him and Went to Home of Brother, Where Victim of Tragedy Followed and Said He Would Kill Entire Family.

PLATTSBORO, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—While attempting to break into the residence of his brother-in-law, Frank L. Busch, aged 43 years, at an early hour this morning, George Stadler, aged 37 years, was shot and instantly killed by the former.

Coroner Henry Bovek held an inquest this morning. The jurors found: "That the said George Stadler came to his death at about 3:30 o'clock Sunday morning, October 22, by being shot with a shotgun in the hands of Frank L. Busch. We further find that the said Frank L. Busch was justified in taking the life of the said George Stadler, and that in so doing he was acting in defense of his own life and the lives of the members of his family."

George Stadler was a carpenter by trade and worked in the local Burlington shops for a time, but later with his family removed to Louisville, where he worked in the stone quarry for Newell & Atwood for some eight years, while his wife ran a boarding house. For some time their home life has not been very pleasant, and it is said that his ill-treatment of his wife caused her to seek up her effects yesterday and with her five children remove back to the home of her brother, where she and her children, aged from 17 years to 7 months, were when the tragedy occurred.

Her husband returned home last evening and found the family gone. He procured a livery team and drove to the home of his brother-in-law and demanded admittance, but being refused he said that he would break in and kill the whole family. He broke the screen door and smashed the panels out of the other, when the gun was fired and the fatal discharge crashed through the door and entered the left side of the neck and breast of George Stadler. Stadler was buried this afternoon by Wright & Straight at the expense of Casa county.

INSPECTION AT FORT NIobrARA
Congressmen Hull and Kinkaid Pay Visit to Company Barracks.

FORT NIobrARA, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Congressmen Hull and Kinkaid arrived in the post at 10 a. m. Friday. The commanding officer, Colonel Hoyt, took them on a long drive over the reservation, first going over the ground on the south and east of the Niobrara river and then on the table land north of the post. Many good locations for a new post were pointed out to them. In the afternoon the officers of the post were invited to meet the two congressmen and accompanied by the company commanders they inspected the company barracks. Both congressmen were of the opinion that it was a waste of money to try to repair any of the old buildings. It is understood that the Nebraska legislature will introduce a bill in congress to build a new post on a new plot of land either near Valentine or near Arabia. The present location would have to be abandoned if a new post was built.

Mr. Cornell of Valentine has the authority of congress to dam the Niobrara river and put in an electric power and lighting plant which will be done as soon as it is decided what will be done with the reservation. Mr. Hull expressed himself as being well pleased with the reservation and thought it would be an excellent place for cavalry or field artillery.

Spain and Mrs. O'Neil will return on Monday, October 23, from a four month's leave spent in Portland at the exposition.

FREEMONT PARTIES WERE VICTIMS
Jacobs and Buchanan Operated in That City.

FREEMONT, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Peter Jacobs and Alexander Buchanan, the two men wanted in Council Bluffs for alleged crookedness in running the Northwestern Trust company, did a thriving business in this city for the same concern two years ago. They then had their headquarters in Omaha and operated on the same plan as the Kansas City concern which was knocked out of business by the same court. They had at one time about twenty-five contracts here, one of which they matured. A loan was made to this party secured by a trust deed on a house and lot running to T. P. Lewis of Omaha as trustee for the company. Most of them kept on paying their $150 and $200 per month until the supreme court in October, 1904, declared their plan of operation illegal and in effect a lottery. Shortly after that time Jacobs and Buchanan county district court against Jacobs, Buchanan, Lewis and the company for the appointment of a receiver and the winding up of the business of the concern. The

QUIET DAY FOR PRESIDENT

Most of Time Spent in Taking Rest, of Which He Was in Need.

TAKES LUNCH AND GOES TO SALT WATER
Starts During Night for Tour of Alabama and Will Wind Up the Week at New Orleans.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Oct. 22.—President Roosevelt started tonight for his tour of Alabama. He left St. Augustine at 9 o'clock and is not scheduled to make a stop of any length until he reaches Mobile tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. His day in St. Augustine was a quiet one. He attended services in the Presbyterian Memorial church at 11 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. James Coffin Stout, preached from the text, "Worthy the Lamb That Was Slain." He made no reference to the president in his sermon. The church was crowded. At the conclusion of the services the president was taken for short drives about the city. After luncheon the president, accompanied by Secretary Loeb, Surgeon General Rixey, John McHenry and John Greenway, the last two of whom have been his guests on the trip south, drove to Fort Merlion, where they boarded a launch and went to Anastasia, an island. Here the party donned bathing suits and had a bath in the salt water.

The president greatly enjoyed the bath and seemed in excellent condition to tackle the hard work that lies before him this week. When the party left the hotel for the fort the mounted policemen of St. Augustine, who had been waiting in front of the hotel, started ahead as an escort. The secret service man who was on the box with the driver of the president's carriage, said to one of them: "We do not need you."

"That's all right," responded the officer. "We will go along; it's coming to you anyhow."

They galloped to the fort, where they stood at attention while the president boarded the launch and steamed away. Dinner was served at the hotel tonight, after which the president drove to his train. St. Augustine was full of strangers today, attracted by the president.

A large crowd lingered around his hotel all day, anxious to catch a glimpse of him. He received but few visitors, however, and got the rest of which he stood in need. This week will see the end of his trip. After visiting Mobile tomorrow he will spend Tuesday at Tuskegee, Montgomery and Birmingham. Wednesday he will vote to Little Rock, Ark., and Thursday he will visit New Orleans, leaving that evening on a government vessel for Washington.

VALDOSTA, Ga., Oct. 22.—The president's special train arrived here at 10 a. m. on time. It will leave here immediately after the Atlantic Coast Line for Montgomery, Ala.

BARGE RUNS DOWN A LAUNCH
Seven People Out of the Ten Occupants of the Vessel Are Drowned.

BEVERLY, N. J., Oct. 22.—A launch containing ten men, all of Philadelphia, collided with a barge in the Delaware river off this place last night, resulting in the drowning of seven of the occupants of the little boat. The other three were rescued by the crew of the tugboat Bristol, which was towing the barge when the accident happened. Those rescued are: Captain John Winch, the owner of the launch; W. F. Russell and J. Rutherford.

Up to a late hour tonight the names of the three of the launch were ascertained. They are: William Winch, son of the owner of the launch; John Ellis and a man named Russell.

The dead are: WILLIAM WINCH, JOHN ELLIS, and a man named RUSSELL. The names of the other three were not ascertained.

FATAL CROSSING ACCIDENT
Two Killed and Three Fatally Injured by Collision with a Trolley Car.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 22.—Two children were killed and eight persons injured, three fatally, in a crossing accident north of Southport tonight when a car on the Indianapolis, Columbus & Southern Traction line struck a wagon loaded with picknickers returning from the country. The dead are: JENNIE RUSSELL, aged 10, and LUCY JAMES, aged 13. The severely injured are: Fred Kipe, Mrs. Saddle Russell, and Mrs. Saddle Russell.

At the place where the accident occurred a sharp curve terminates at the top of an incline, which hid the wagon from the view of the motorman until it was too late to stop the car.

TRUCK OWNERS CALL CONFERENCE.
NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—An urgent call was sent out tonight to 200 leading truck owners.

A HIT
What She Gained by Trying Again.

A failure at first makes us esteem final success more precious. A family in Minn. that now enjoys Postum would never have known how good it is if the mother had been discouraged by the failure of her first attempt to prepare it. Her son tells the story: "I've had never since Postum food coffee last fall spring (a year ago) my father brought home a package one evening just to try it. We had heard from our neighbors, and in fact, everyone who had used it, how well they liked it, and that besides taking it in place of coffee as a healthful and nutritious food, it was a healthful and healthful article of food. So we were going to give it a trial.

"Well, the next morning mother brewed it about 5 minutes, just as she had been in the habit of doing with the other coffee, preparing it 15 feet without paying special attention to the directions printed on the package. It looked weak and didn't have a very promising color, but, nevertheless, father raised his cup with an air of expectancy. It certainly did give him a surprise, but I'm afraid it wasn't a very pleasant one, for he put down his cup with a look of disgust, and said, 'Mother, are you sure this isn't your dish water?'"

"Mother wasn't discouraged, though, and next morning gave it another trial, letting it stand on the stove for an hour and then letting it boil for fifteen or twenty minutes, so this time we were all pleased with it that we have used it ever since, and though we have a quantity of the old coffee in the house, I fear it will all be spoiled before we get it used up."

QUIET DAY FOR PRESIDENT

Most of Time Spent in Taking Rest, of Which He Was in Need.

TAKES LUNCH AND GOES TO SALT WATER
Starts During Night for Tour of Alabama and Will Wind Up the Week at New Orleans.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Oct. 22.—President Roosevelt started tonight for his tour of Alabama. He left St. Augustine at 9 o'clock and is not scheduled to make a stop of any length until he reaches Mobile tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. His day in St. Augustine was a quiet one. He attended services in the Presbyterian Memorial church at 11 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. James Coffin Stout, preached from the text, "Worthy the Lamb That Was Slain." He made no reference to the president in his sermon. The church was crowded. At the conclusion of the services the president was taken for short drives about the city. After luncheon the president, accompanied by Secretary Loeb, Surgeon General Rixey, John McHenry and John Greenway, the last two of whom have been his guests on the trip south, drove to Fort Merlion, where they boarded a launch and went to Anastasia, an island. Here the party donned bathing suits and had a bath in the salt water.

The president greatly enjoyed the bath and seemed in excellent condition to tackle the hard work that lies before him this week. When the party left the hotel for the fort the mounted policemen of St. Augustine, who had been waiting in front of the hotel, started ahead as an escort. The secret service man who was on the box with the driver of the president's carriage, said to one of them: "We do not need you."

"That's all right," responded the officer. "We will go along; it's coming to you anyhow."

They galloped to the fort, where they stood at attention while the president boarded the launch and steamed away. Dinner was served at the hotel tonight, after which the president drove to his train. St. Augustine was full of strangers today, attracted by the president.

A large crowd lingered around his hotel all day, anxious to catch a glimpse of him. He received but few visitors, however, and got the rest of which he stood in need. This week will see the end of his trip. After visiting Mobile tomorrow he will spend Tuesday at Tuskegee, Montgomery and Birmingham. Wednesday he will vote to Little Rock, Ark., and Thursday he will visit New Orleans, leaving that evening on a government vessel for Washington.

VALDOSTA, Ga., Oct. 22.—The president's special train arrived here at 10 a. m. on time. It will leave here immediately after the Atlantic Coast Line for Montgomery, Ala.

BARGE RUNS DOWN A LAUNCH
Seven People Out of the Ten Occupants of the Vessel Are Drowned.

BEVERLY, N. J., Oct. 22.—A launch containing ten men, all of Philadelphia, collided with a barge in the Delaware river off this place last night, resulting in the drowning of seven of the occupants of the little boat. The other three were rescued by the crew of the tugboat Bristol, which was towing the barge when the accident happened. Those rescued are: Captain John Winch, the owner of the launch; W. F. Russell and J. Rutherford.

Up to a late hour tonight the names of the three of the launch were ascertained. They are: William Winch, son of the owner of the launch; John Ellis and a man named Russell.

The dead are: WILLIAM WINCH, JOHN ELLIS, and a man named RUSSELL. The names of the other three were not ascertained.

FATAL CROSSING ACCIDENT
Two Killed and Three Fatally Injured by Collision with a Trolley Car.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 22.—Two children were killed and eight persons injured, three fatally, in a crossing accident north of Southport tonight when a car on the Indianapolis, Columbus & Southern Traction line struck a wagon loaded with picknickers returning from the country. The dead are: JENNIE RUSSELL, aged 10, and LUCY JAMES, aged 13. The severely injured are: Fred Kipe, Mrs. Saddle Russell, and Mrs. Saddle Russell.

At the place where the accident occurred a sharp curve terminates at the top of an incline, which hid the wagon from the view of the motorman until it was too late to stop the car.

TRUCK OWNERS CALL CONFERENCE.
NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—An urgent call was sent out tonight to 200 leading truck owners.

A HIT
What She Gained by Trying Again.

A failure at first makes us esteem final success more precious. A family in Minn. that now enjoys Postum would never have known how good it is if the mother had been discouraged by the failure of her first attempt to prepare it. Her son tells the story: "I've had never since Postum food coffee last fall spring (a year ago) my father brought home a package one evening just to try it. We had heard from our neighbors, and in fact, everyone who had used it, how well they liked it, and that besides taking it in place of coffee as a healthful and nutritious food, it was a healthful and healthful article of food. So we were going to give it a trial.

"Well, the next morning mother brewed it about 5 minutes, just as she had been in the habit of doing with the other coffee, preparing it 15 feet without paying special attention to the directions printed on the package. It looked weak and didn't have a very promising color, but, nevertheless, father raised his cup with an air of expectancy. It certainly did give him a surprise, but I'm afraid it wasn't a very pleasant one, for he put down his cup with a look of disgust, and said, 'Mother, are you sure this isn't your dish water?'"

"Mother wasn't discouraged, though, and next morning gave it another trial, letting it stand on the stove for an hour and then letting it boil for fifteen or twenty minutes, so this time we were all pleased with it that we have used it ever since, and though we have a quantity of the old coffee in the house, I fear it will all be spoiled before we get it used up."

GARVIN STARTS SOMETHING

(Continued from First Page.)

Brown and wife of North Dakota, C. A. Hooper of the Prison board of North Dakota; D. R. Imbrie of Pennsylvania, Ben B. Lindsay of Denver, E. M. Mullen of West Virginia, J. A. Lloyd, W. G. Stewart, J. M. Jacobs of West Virginia, a number of Nebraska men from out in the state are also here, including A. W. Clark, of the Child Saving Institute of Omaha, and Superintendent of Charles Morris of Omaha. Judge Day came over yesterday, returning to Omaha this afternoon, and expects to be here again during the week.

Listen to Sermon.
This morning the delegates met at the Lindell hotel and marched in a body to the First Presbyterian church, where Dr. H. C. Swearingen delivered the annual sermon. The church was packed to the doors and many were compelled to stand. Dr. Swearingen spoke on the subject of the "Beneficence of Jesus Christ." He was given the closest attention and at the conclusion of the sermon members of the association marched to the pulpit and congratulated him. He said in part:

"Text, Acts 2:38—'Who went about doing good.' Christ's doing good is revealed one of the secrets of the power among men. He has earned for himself the title of 'great teacher' and 'the greatest of men.' His life, the nature of God and the reach of human destiny with a simplicity and an authority which have made his name a synonym with others who have touched these great themes; but noble sentiments and lofty doctrines themselves would mean nothing if they were not made real to the hearts of men. He has shown us that the medium of loving example. He taught that which he would have us do by Him—'Who went about doing good.'"

Christ was not concerned about greatness. He was concerned about the welfare of men. He has a deep philosophy as well as the way of a great teacher. He has shown us the way for the purpose of lifting men up, of giving to the race a consciousness of its own worth and of its own potentialities. He has shown us that the medium of loving example. He taught that which he would have us do by Him—'Who went about doing good.'"

Christ was not concerned about greatness. He was concerned about the welfare of men. He has a deep philosophy as well as the way of a great teacher. He has shown us the way for the purpose of lifting men up, of giving to the race a consciousness of its own worth and of its own potentialities. He has shown us that the medium of loving example. He taught that which he would have us do by Him—'Who went about doing good.'"

Christ was not concerned about greatness. He was concerned about the welfare of men. He has a deep philosophy as well as the way of a great teacher. He has shown us the way for the purpose of lifting men up, of giving to the race a consciousness of its own worth and of its own potentialities. He has shown us that the medium of loving example. He taught that which he would have us do by Him—'Who went about doing good.'"

Christ was not concerned about greatness. He was concerned about the welfare of men. He has a deep philosophy as well as the way of a great teacher. He has shown us the way for the purpose of lifting men up, of giving to the race a consciousness of its own worth and of its own potentialities. He has shown us that the medium of loving example. He taught that which he would have us do by Him—'Who went about doing good.'"

Christ was not concerned about greatness. He was concerned about the welfare of men. He has a deep philosophy as well as the way of a great teacher. He has shown us the way for the purpose of lifting men up, of giving to the race a consciousness of its own worth and of its own potentialities. He has shown us that the medium of loving example. He taught that which he would have us do by Him—'Who went about doing good.'"

Christ was not concerned about greatness. He was concerned about the welfare of men. He has a deep philosophy as well as the way of a great teacher. He has shown us the way for the purpose of lifting men up, of giving to the race a consciousness of its own worth and of its own potentialities. He has shown us that the medium of loving example. He taught that which he would have us do by Him—'Who went about doing good.'"

Christ was not concerned about greatness. He was concerned about the welfare of men. He has a deep philosophy as well as the way of a great teacher. He has shown us the way for the purpose of lifting men up, of giving to the race a consciousness of its own worth and of its own potentialities. He has shown us that the medium of loving example. He taught that which he would have us do by Him—'Who went about doing good.'"

Christ was not concerned about greatness. He was concerned about the welfare of men. He has a deep philosophy as well as the way of a great teacher. He has shown us the way for the purpose of lifting men up, of giving to the race a consciousness of its own worth and of its own potentialities. He has shown us that the medium of loving example. He taught that which he would have us do by Him—'Who went about doing good.'"

Christ was not concerned about greatness. He was concerned about the welfare of men. He has a deep philosophy as well as the way of a great teacher. He has shown us the way for the purpose of lifting men up, of giving to the race a consciousness of its own worth and of its own potentialities. He has shown us that the medium of loving example. He taught that which he would have us do by Him—'Who went about doing good.'"

Christ was not concerned about greatness. He was concerned about the welfare of men. He has a deep philosophy as well as the way of a great teacher. He has shown us the way for the purpose of lifting men up, of giving to the race a consciousness of its own worth and of its own potentialities. He has shown us that the medium of loving example. He taught that which he would have us do by Him—'Who went about doing good.'"

Christ was not concerned about greatness. He was concerned about the welfare of men. He has a deep philosophy as well as the way of a great teacher. He has shown us the way for the purpose of lifting men up, of giving to the race a consciousness of its own worth and of its own potentialities. He has shown us that the medium of loving example. He taught that which he would have us do by Him—'Who went about doing good.'"

For Habitual and Obstinate Constipation. APENTA HUNGARIAN NATURAL APERIENT WATER Unloads the Liver Opens the Bowels Relieves the Kidneys

APENTA acts more gently than other purgatives. Does not cause crampy pains nor give rise to subsequent constipation. Its efficacy in reducing obesity and in treating other disorders, has been proven by Hospital experience. ALSO SPARKLING APENTA in SPLITS, NATURAL APENTA CARBONATED, A Refreshing and Pleasant Aperient for Morning Use. DRINK WHILE EFFERVESCENT. Sole Exporters: THE APOLLINARIS CO., Ltd., London.

REVIVES OLD EVICTION CASE
Family of Malachy Kelly May Be Restored to the Black Farm.
DUBLIN, Oct. 22.—(Special Cablegram to the Bee.)—After a struggle lasting over a quarter of a century, there now appears to be every reason to hope that the representatives of Malachy Kelly, who was evicted from the Black Farm at Knocknaree, Queens county, in February, 1880, will in a very short time come into their own. The planter, Robert Pantou, who came into the place a couple of years ago, quite recently left the farm, bag and baggage, leaving behind him only a lot of almost worthless articles, chiefly worn out feeding troughs and bits of timber. These were seized by the rate collector, Mr. Davies, for a year's rent which was due by Pantou, and they were put up for sale at the farm house on Wednesday. The auction realized scarcely enough to satisfy the demands of the rate collector. The present farm contains about a five two-story residence with three blocks of well built offices. They were built by Sir Erasmus Borrowes shortly after the eviction. It was just at the beginning of the land war when Malachy Kelly was evicted. A very large demonstration was held in Knocknaree to denounce the eviction. Mr. Michael Davitt, who only a short time previously had founded the land league, was present at the meeting called to protest against the eviction, and he has always taken the keenest interest in the Kelly family. The landlord, after the eviction, built a dwelling house at a cost of $10,000, with a view to selling the place to a large glazier, but various efforts failed. The farm then lay derelict until the landlord, Sir Erasmus Borrowes, died about eight years ago, the evicted tenant, Malachy Kelly, having died some few years after the eviction. Deeming the time very opportune to effect a reversal of the long standing dispute, Father Dillon wrote to the new landlord, Sir Kildare Borrowes, with a view to settlement, but Sir Kildare Borrowes refused. The farm still remained untenanted until the appointment of the Very Rev. Dr. O'Riordan to the rectory of the parish, when he was started by the news that Black Farm was being taken up by a planter named Pantou. Indignation was now especially roused, inasmuch as Sir Kildare Borrowes was already in the country, and he had apparently fled from the land. Father Dillon added to state that Sir Kildare Borrowes now affirms that it was his brother and not himself who took in Pantou as a tenant. Another demonstration was held in Knocknaree on January 17, 1904, to protest against the giving away of the evicted farm from the Kelly family and of letting it to a stranger. Mr. Davitt attended this meeting also. Sir Pantou continued on the farm, but brought down furniture from Dublin and had the land apparently well stocked, but he cleared out a couple of months ago to the surprise of many, though those in the locality who knew of the circumstances believed that his disappearance from the Black Farm would be only a matter of a short time. As to the reinstatement of the Kelly family, Father Dillon said that he was very content that there could be no obstacle to their return to the farm from which they were evicted over twenty-five years ago. The widow of the evicted tenant is still alive. At present the farm is perfectly derelict, there is no caretaker and there are no chattels in the place, it is possible, however, that Pantou had not given over possession of the farm to the landlord—that might cause some delay in the return of the Kelly family to their home.

KRUG Special MATINEE 25c - Today - 25c TONIGHT 8:15 - HAVERLY'S MASTODON MINSTRELS

BOYDS Woodard & Burgess, Managers. Tonight and Tuesday - C. T. DAZEY'S AMERICAN PLAY - HOME FOLKS

BURWOOD Nights & Sun. Mat. 10c, 25c, 50c, 75c, 1.00, 1.25, 1.50, 2.00. TUES. THURS. SAT. MATS. 10c-25c. THE WOODWARD STOCK CO. SIXTH BIG WEEK—Tonight and All Week—LOST PARADISE

BOYD'S FREE FOR LADIES ONLY. MONDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 30, AT 2:00 O'CLOCK. A SCIENTIFIC CALUMET ON BEAUTY CULTURE AND FACIAL BLEMISHES By DR. CRISTON OF PARIS, FRANCE.

Orpheum Phone 404. Every Night—Matinee Thurs. Sat. Sun. MODERN VAUDEVILLE

Always Remember the Full Name Laxative Bromo Quinine Cures a Cold in One Day, Grip in 3 Days

Alamito Dairy Farm Milk in Bottles at The CALUMET

POSTUM "I'm a lost dog; please put a want ad in The Bee and find me." N. B.—When you lose anything, don't cry; put a want ad in The Bee and get it back. Telephone 235. 30,000 Real Circulation.