

MOTHERHOOD

Actual Sterility in Women Is Very Rare—Healthy Mothers and Children Make Happy Homes.

Many women long for a child to bless their homes, but because of some debility or displacement of the female organs they are barren.

Preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound more successfully than by any other medicine, because it gives tone and strength to the entire female organism, curing all displacements, ulceration and inflammation.

A woman who is in good physical condition transmits to her children the blessings of a good constitution. It is not that an incentive to prepare for a healthy maternity?

If expectant mothers would fortify themselves with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for thirty years has sustained thousands of women in this condition, there would be a great decrease in miscarriages, in suffering, and in disappointments at birth.

The following letters to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in such cases:

Mrs. L. C. Glover, Vice-President of Milwaukee Business Woman's Association, of 614 Grove Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—

I was married for several years and no children blessed our home. The doctor said I had a complication of female troubles and I could not have any children unless I could be cured. For months I took his medicines, trying in vain for a cure, but at last my husband became disgusted and suggested that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

After a secret session of the canvassing board counting ballots supposed to have been returned by mail from members of the Good Government league, the following list has been given out as representing the candidates entitled to the endorsement of that organization:

County Clerk.....John C. Drexel
County Treasurer.....William Fleming
County Auditor.....H. L. Low
Sheriff.....John W. McDonald
Coroner.....E. J. Bradley
Surveyor.....E. J. Bradley
Bapt. Public Instruction.....E. J. Bradley
County Commissioner—Third District.....E. G. Solomon
Police Judge.....Bryce Crawford
Justice.....Bryce Crawford
W. A. Foster, T. G. Kellogg, Eben K. Long, Constable—C. W. Church, A. R. Hensel, Fred McDaniel, Paul Stiel.
Board of Education—W. H. Christie, David Cole, J. O. Deweller, A. Kennedy, George D. Rice, Charles Harding.

It is to be noted that the register of deeds is not included, the explanation being that no filings for this office had been made up to the time the league's ballots were made up. The certificate is signed by the executive committee, who testify to having counted the ballots, but are careful not to say how many votes were cast or whether any votes were counted for the league ticket. Incidentally the list of candidates was in printed slips.

The McKinley club has planned for a big political meeting on the night of Tuesday, October 25, in Washington hall. This will be one of the few large downtown meetings of the campaign and unusual efforts are being made by the club committees to make the gathering successful both in the point of attendance and in the quality of oratory. The big speaker of the evening will be Congressman J. T. Lacey of Oklahoma, Ia. He wired his acceptance to State Representative N. P. Dodge, Jr., Wednesday and thus quieted doubts that he could not be secured. Congressman Lacey is known as one of the ablest and most convincing republicans of the Hawkeye state. He is a veteran in the party ranks and councils and the mere mention of his personality should fill Washington hall. Congressman Walter I. Smith of Council Bluffs was instrumental in getting Congressman Lacey for the service of the McKinley club. The Council Bluffs statesman cannot be present owing to pressing litigation in the Doyle-Burns mining case, in which he is interested in a professional way. The club will invite all the candidates on a republican ticket to make addresses. Whether or not Judge Letton, republican nominee for the supreme court, can be present has not been ascertained.

"I want to urge every republican who cares a straw for the interests of his party to attend this meeting and make it a rousing success," said Representative Dodge. "Personally I think the ticket may be in some danger from apathy. This should be shaken off and every member of the party should do his duty."

County Clerk Drexel Thursday morning was brought face to face with an entirely new kink in the preliminaries leading up to the making of the official ballot. At the recent primary election Attorney Frank Agnew of South Omaha was candidate for justice of the peace. He was defeated, Arthur C. Panoast winning the nomination. Now comes Mr. Agnew with a petition in due form of law with the necessary signatures and asks that the county clerk place his name on the ballot as a candidate for justice of the peace, but Mr. Drexel has refused.

Mr. Panoast and his friends resisted this attempt of Agnew. They based their opposition on the paper known as the "Candidates certificate of application," which every candidate had to file with the county clerk. This paper reads as follows: "I, the undersigned, do hereby declare that I am a citizen of this county, and I pledge myself to abide by the result of said primary election."

Mr. Drexel at once constituted himself a court for the hearing of the argument, advised by Assistant County Attorney Foster, and listened to the arguments of the contending parties. At the conclusion he decided that, as Agnew had taken advantage of the provisions of the primary law and submitted himself to the judgment of the voters, he can not now go on by petition or in any other way.

At a meeting of the Fifth Ward republican club held last evening at Young's hall, Sixteenth and Corby streets, Judge Ben Baker was the principal speaker. The judge spoke for an hour and touched on various phases of the political economy of the government.

"I sincerely believe the primary law a good thing and urge now that the people have expressed themselves at the primaries, that we republicans support the entire ticket," said the speaker. "A man is not dishonest just because he is a democrat or republican, and there will be more or less corruption, whether the party in power be republican or democrat. The democrats are making a great hue and cry about trusts and corruption without reason. Partisans should meet one another and reason together and every partisan should know why he affiliates with any particular party."

Of the tariff the judge said he believed the tariff should be revised only where absolutely necessary and that domestic labor should be protected. Of the national currency he said the United States has the finest currency in the world. He devoted some time to the trusts and monopolies, and said the people can be trusted and it is the sentiment of the American people to be fair.

"The present outcry against the corporations has much foundation of fact. We must use caution in handling the issue before us," declared the judge.

Candidates Ed. Simpson and Charles Fields made short talks. Billy Kierstead announced he would bear the expenses of the club for this year, whereupon LeRoy Luoma moved Mr. Kierstead be given a letter of the office of chairman of the financial committee, under civil service rules. Carried unanimously.

The Sixth and Twelfth Ward republican clubs held a joint meeting last evening at Idlewild hall, Twenty-fourth and Grand streets, for the purpose of talking over registration matters. Committees of from five to ten members were appointed to look

DECISION TO COME FRIDAY

Button Takes Under Adversement Question of Apportioning Election Officers.

COUNSEL ARGUE CASE FOR TWO HOURS

Nice Distinctions Are Drawn by Lawyers and Court Dwellers Time in Which to Hand Down His Ruling.

Judge Sutton has taken under advisement until Friday morning the question raised by the republican county committee of Douglas county against the apportionment of election officers made by Clerk of Courts Broadwell. Judge Sutton had listened to arguments of counsel for two hours or more, and as some nice distinctions had been drawn by the lawyers as to the proper meaning of the word "set" he said he would take until Friday morning to examine the law and the precedents.

COUNT CREIGHTON THE CENTER

Another large crowd jostled elbows last evening at the Orphans' fair being held at the Auditorium and the parties were loosened to aid a good cause. If any evidence were needed to show that the fair is proving a great success it required but a glance at the Auditorium last evening when the thousands were enjoying themselves and at the same time helping one of the most worthy causes that could command popular interest. At 8:30 the large building was well filled and at 9 o'clock the man at the box office was still busy.

One of the centers of interest last evening was at the southeast corner of the main floor in a large easy chair in the St. John's booth. It is needless to say every one who had articles to sell and books to be filled at 10 cents per fill found the count with neatness and dispatch. It was whispered around early in the evening that the count was on hand with a bushel basket of small change and was dispensing the coins with a lavish hand, knowing, as he remarked, that the money was going to the orphans. The count was the original busy man for several hours and took real pleasure in patronizing the fair.

"I cannot even talk for publication this evening. I am working for the orphans this evening," said the count, in response to a question.

"Why, bless your heart, I will take two days," asked the count.

Last evening was a special night for the Kaulbachs and a large representation of that order turned out with red, white and blue ribbons. Dimick's orchestra rendered a number of pleasing selections, while the Hoys of Woodcraft gave several drills on the stage. The Underland juvenile orchestra and the Opus Zoro and Mandolin club offered musical numbers in an acceptable manner.

SEVERELY INJURED IN RUNAWAY

W. P. King In Hospital, Companion Injured and Horse Killed.

At 5:30 Thursday W. P. King and Mrs. E. S. Brown were severely bruised and lacerated by being thrown from a car-clerk. This paper reads as follows: "I, the undersigned, do hereby declare that I am a citizen of this county, and I pledge myself to abide by the result of said primary election."

VOTE OF DOUGLAS COUNTY

Republicans Cast Fifty-One Per Cent of Total at the Last Election.

In the argument of the Frank A. Broadwell mandamus case, brought by Messrs. Burbank and McDonald before Judge Sutton Thursday, asking that Clerk Broadwell be required to make a selection of clerks and judges of election more in proportion to the vote cast in Douglas county at the 1904 election, the record of the county clerk of the official vote cast at that election was offered in evidence.

Miss Edith Hughes, representing the Home Missions board of the Presbyterian church, will lecture tonight at the Second Presbyterian church on the subject of Mormonism. Miss Hughes, who devoted a few years to teaching among the Mormons under the Home board, lectured in Omaha and South Omaha some weeks ago. She is regarded as an unusually effective speaker and her early recovery is expected.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Grand View Improvement club will hold a regular meeting on Saturday evening, at which some important business is to be transacted.

Lillie Nelson is suing Earl Nelson for divorce. She alleges that they were married at Council Bluffs on November 25, 1902, and that he deserted her on February 25 of the following year, since which time he has not contributed to her support.

Councilman George Nicholson was operated yesterday for an abscess resulting from a previous operation for appendicitis. Mr. Nicholson is getting along nicely. His early recovery is expected.

At a meeting of the Fifth Ward republican club held last evening at Young's hall, Sixteenth and Corby streets, Judge Ben Baker was the principal speaker. The judge spoke for an hour and touched on various phases of the political economy of the government.

AT THE PLAY HOUSES

"A Wife's Secret" at the Krug.

For the closing nights of the current week at the Krug one of the more recent and interesting of the "heart interest" plays is being offered. "A Wife's Secret" tells the story of a happy home that is broken up by the machinations of designing persons and how the innocent wife suffers much until the eventuation of the play's action sets all right again. The piece is interestingly written, well staged and very well acted. Miss Virginia Thornton heads the cast in the role of Mona Madison, the wronged wife, and enacts the part with great discrimination and taste. While she possesses great emotional powers, she has the good judgment to "tear a passion to tatters," and by her sincerity and earnestness wins deserved applause. The rest of the company are good, one of the fine bits of character work being supplied by Mrs. Charles O. Craig, a negro "mammy" part, that is splendidly done. The piece remains at the Krug the rest of the week, with a matinee on Saturday.

Gibbellel Not Revenged!

Charlie Hawkins of Sixth and Clark streets, the colored boy who was suspected of having struck David Gibbellel last Wednesday night, knowing his eye out, was released Thursday evening after the confession of Samuel Crain had freed him from any connection with the crime. After recovering from the operation at the St. Joseph hospital Gibbellel was told that the man who had injured him was caught and had confessed. Gibbellel, though his loss can never be made good, had not thought of vengeance and made no threats. He said:
