ONLY A SUGGESTION

But it Has Proven of Interest and Value to Thousands.

Common sense would suggest that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump it can only result from the food we eat and digest and that food should be albuminous or ftesh-forming food, like eggs, beefsteak, and cereals; in other words the kinds of food that make flesh are the foods which form the greater part of our daily bills of

But the trouble is that while we eat enough, and generally too much, the stomach, from abuse and overwork, does not properly digest and assimilate it, which is the reason so many people remain thin and under weight; the digestive organs do not cteak, eggs and similar wholesome food. There are thousands of such who are really confirmed dyspeptics, although they may have no particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs. If such persons would lay their prejudices aside and make a regular practice ing after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the food would be quickly and thoroughly digested, because these tablets contain the natural peptones and diastase which every weak stomach tacks, and by supplying this want the City Saturday to witness the unveiling of stomach is soon enabled to reach its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest every kind of flesh-forming food, meat, eggs, bread and potatoes, and this is the reason they so quickly build up, strengthen and in-vigorate thin, dyspeptic men, women and invalids and children, even the most dellcate, use them with marked benefit as they contain no strong, irritating drugs, no canartic nor any harmful ingredients.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the mossuccessful and most widely known of any emedy for atomach troubles because they are the most reasonable and scientific of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by

First-Class Stenographers Are Plenty.

It is a noteworthy fact that there is and has been for the past five years a greater demand for thoroughly competent and reliable bookkeepers and stenographers, at least in Omaha, than the commercial colleges have been able to supply. may be attributed to two causes, namely: First, the rapid growth of our city and the resulting increase in business. > The business men of Omaha depend upon our commercial colleges to supply them with their help, and it is to be regretted that more young men do not avail themselves of the facilities provided by these schools to fit themselves for mercantile positions. Two of our commercial schools alone enroll each year nearly 2,000 students and yet they cannot nearly supply the yearly demand of the business men for bookkeepers and stenographers. Positions with salaries ranging from $40 to $55 per month and in the best mercantile establishments are many and the young man who makes the necessary preparation for such positions will be sure of immediate employment. The business colleges of Omaha are unusually well equipped to provide the training young people must have for this line of work, as is evidenced by the positions filled each year and the annual enrollment, and yet it is a well known fact that, these schools cannot supply the demand made upon them.

STORZ WINS FAME

Himself and Omaha-Highest Award and Gold Medals at Portland, Ore.

Omaha is again coming to the front through the enterprise and push of one of the leading institutions, the Storz Brewing company, and bids fair to equal if not surpass the fame of Milwaukee in producing a brew that is becoming famous from the Mississippi river to the Pacific ocean. The Storz Brewing company has just been notified by the jury of awards of the Lewis mpossible for young men to obtain re- Ore., that it has won the highest award and gold medal on the high grade bottled heers; also highest award and gold medal beers; also highest award and gold medal on malt extract.

Few people in Omaha realize what a perfect and magnificent institution the Storz company has in their clean and modern brewing plant. From a visit to the piant we know it to be a fact that there is not in these United States an institution with more up-to-date machinery and equipment and none more skillfully managed. The entire plant of the Storz Brewing company shows the result of expert arrangement, the buildings all being of brick and steel construction, with concrete floors, and it young women have intruded themselves in | we know it to be a fact that there is not construction, with concrete floors, and it upon the opportunities of young men, and is owing to such construction that everything can be kept immaculate by flushing with artesian water morning, noon and nigh fact that there is also a demand and a The brew house has its great burnished copper brew tanks and Bandelot beer copper brew tanks and Bandelot beer cooler; the cold storage room, its rows and rows of immense caken vats, hermetically sealed, where the beer is fermented and aged at a temperature of 32 degrees. > One of the latest arrangements installed which no other brewery in this section has, is the new pipe-line connecting the storage cellars with the bottling works, so that all beer is drawn direct from the storage cellars and bottled without coming in contact with the air. It also prevents the escape of any of the original life and flavor of the beer and is a great improvement rived, after a delay of several weeks.

over the old method of filling the beer first into barrels and then from barrels nto bottles.

While the Storz company has held an unenviable reputation on the high grade beers it produces, having previously won the highest award at Lincoln in 1893, and highest award and gold medals at the Transmississippi exposition at Omaha in 898, in competition with all other breweries, a word is due regarding a product it has lately introduced-Storz Malt Extract, While this is more of a medicine than a beverage, it is a product that a strictly first class brewing institution can alone produce in its best form, as it is made from barley, malt and hops, the handling of which is the brewer's specialty.

That the Storz company has produced a malt extract of the highest quality and very best character is undenlable in the face of the sweeping awards granted l by the jury of experts at the Portland exposition

It is the enterprise and push shown by such concerns as the Storz company in placing their products in competition with the world at the great expositions and winning out, that does more to advertise and put Omaha to the front than any other one thing. The Storz company is deserving of the best wishes and support of all Omaha people.

ACTIVITY IN REAL ESTATE Opening of Ninth Street Trackage Starts Movement in East End Property.

There is considerable activity in real estate in the wholesale district. Mr. W. B. Taylor, secretary of the Putnam company, "The enlarging of the wholesale district by opening up a lot of property by the new trackage on Ninth street to Capitol avenue, is creating considerable stir in "The new trackage is throwing a great deal more property on the market, and while prices are not materially advanced, it gives an opportunity for wholesalers to have more of a choice and not so much limited in the selection of location as here tofore. The building of the new trackage has resulted in putting a great deal of what has been considered 'dead property' in the eastern part of the city upon the market and if property owners will make a fair price for this property, and not get boon ideas, there is no doubt but what there will be a great deal of it sold for building purposes during the next few months."
