

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE. E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Daily Bee (without Sunday), one year, $4.50...

COST OF LIFE INSURANCE. One result of the disclosures respecting several of the large life insurance companies will very likely be a lowering of the cost of insurance. It is the very general opinion that this has been and is too high and there is an increasing demand for its reduction...

AN IDEAL SUPREME JUDGE. Although the state campaign has proceeded so far in Nebraska without even the customary political diversions, our people should not permit themselves to forget the verdict universally rendered at the time the republican candidate was chosen...

Reversing the Question. A leader of the national law lobby, which has tried to pack the Chicago Interstate Commerce law convention, says: "They (the railroads) do not want the Interstate Commerce commission constituted Judge, jury, prosecutor and executioner all at once..."

ROUND ABOUT NEW YORK. The so-called conservative interests of New York ridicule the idea that municipal ownership is a possibility in the big city. "A socialistic absurdity," expresses the sentiment of people opposed to municipal ownership and operation...

For Health and Economy Calumet Baking Powder "Best By Test." Used in Millions of Homes.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, ss.: C. C. Rosewater, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of The Daily, Morning, Evening and Sunday Bee, printed during the month of September, 1905, was as follows:

There can be no doubt that the demand for a reduction in the cost of life insurance will be heeded. The demonstrated fact is that most of the large life insurance companies can very materially reduce their expenses and this they will be compelled to do. There will undoubtedly come a lowering of salaries and very likely also a reduction in commissions to agents, which manifestly, accepting the above figures as correct, are extravagant...

STATE PRESS COMMENT. Bloomington Advocate: Were it not for fear of the criticism of the newspapers many public men would go wrong and no public official, either in office or an aspirant, should be afraid of criticism if they are above suspicion...

WHEN OUT OF TOWN. Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have the Bee mailed to them. It is better than a daily letter from home. Address will be changed as often as required.

RUSSIA'S INTERNAL STRUGGLE. If what is taking place in Russia cannot properly be termed a revolution, it certainly comes very near to that and has in it most of the conditions that produce revolution. Never before was there so general and complete popular protest against atrocious conditions as is now being made. The Russian government has been confronted by other internal crises, but nothing more widespread and formidable than the one it now has to deal with promptly.

PERSONAL NOTES. Secretary Hitchcock will recommend in his annual report the abolishing of land office receivers, which will save the government $350,000 a year. Elmer Dover, secretary of the republican national committee and formerly with Mr. Hanna, is to go into business in New York, with a view to retiring from the service of the committee.

OUR AMBLES POPORICATE CONTROVERSY. Our amiable poporicite controversy propounds to itself the question, is the republican party dying? Better ask Alton B. Parker or William J. Bryan.
