Our First Day

Has been a grand success and we are gratified in the cordial way the people have complimented our efforts and responded to our invitation to come and make this their store home.

We will try and make each day better than the first. Remember, the men as well as the ladies are invited to come. Meet your friends in our cozy waiting and rest room on third floor.

The bargains are here, but today have not the time to enumerate them.

THOMPSON BELLEN & CO

Howard and Sixteenth Streets.

extreme radicals, however, read the document with delight and amazement, declaring that it could not fail to rally the moderates to the support of Court White.

By the irony of fate, while the strikers are clamoring for a constitution, it has been impossible to persuade the striking printers to resume work, and, therefore, not a single newspaper except the Official Messenger will print the momentous document for distribution tomorrow.

The foreign embassies were notified and lights are burning late tonight in the chancelleries, where the news is being put into cipher. Official notifications will also be sent to the Russian ambassadors abroad.

The effect throughout Russia is expected to be instantaneous. While the extremists treat an attempt to keep up the present struggle, the best opinion is that the backbone of the strike is broken, but in the final analysis the effect will depend on how far Count Witte will go to avert the heavy task which he has assumed.

Some persons in the government believe it will be necessary to use ball and cartridge to suppress the present movement, but Count Witte appears confident. He has become the hero whereby the people are to cross to constitutionalism.

Witte Selects Cabinet. The count already has tentatively selected the members of his cabinet. He will himself hold no portfolio. All the present ministers, except those of war, navy and foreign affairs, will be retired.

Princess Alice Obolensky, one of the count's former assistants in the ministry of finance, will become minister of interior; M. Romanoff, another former assistant to the minister, will take the finance portfolio; M. Koni, at present a senator and Russia's ablest jurist, will be minister of justice; M. Kravchinsky, president of the St. Petersburg municipal council, will take the ministry of education, and M. Seliger von Schaffhausen, chief of the railroad department of the ministry of finance, will become minister of war and communications.

Crowds Heirah for Liberty. Late tonight, after the news got abroad, crowds began marching up and down the Newsky Prospect singing the national hymn and hurrahing for liberty. It is significant that the great searchlight which has been lighting up the Newsky Prospect from the admiralty tower for three nights was turned off tonight.

A ludicrous incident occurred at midnight near the university when newboys with an extra edition of the Official Messenger hurried into a crowd of strikers. The instant the news broke, the strikers raised an uproarious cheer and the Cossacks who were patrolling the street, misunderstanding the import of the demonstration, and thinking the cries were seditious, charged and dispersed the workmen with their whips.

At all the fashionable restaurants wine was drunk in toasts to "Liberty and the Constitution."

Celebration Continues All Night. ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31.—3:15 a. m.—Celebration of the issuance of the imperial manifesto still continues at 3 o'clock this morning in many streets of the city, where crowds are singing the national hymn, cheering for the emperor and shouting themselves hoarse. The restaurants and cafes were closed at 2 o'clock, disgorging their crowds which had been drinking and making merry for hours around the tables to augment the demonstration in the thoroughfares. The Cossack patrols were utterly discomfited and confounded and were wholly at a loss to understand the meaning of the demonstration or why the crowds were singing "God Save the Emperor," Russia's magnificent national anthem, instead of the "Marseillaise."

The people displayed the utmost good humor towards the Cossacks. They surrounded their horses and patted their perspired riders on the boots, shouting: "You are cured of your disease."

RED TAPE IS BEING CUT

Head of Keep Commission Talks of Work Done by Board.

WANTS UNIFORM SYSTEM IN DEPARTMENTS

Chairman of Board Says It is Impossible to Use Methods of Private Corporations in Accounting.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The criticism of former Chief Engineer Wallace of the Isham canal, that he was handicapped by official red tape, which prevented the speedy delivery of supplies, has caused considerable discussion in the executive departments where the work is now being looked into by the Keep commission.

"Wherever the government is handicapped by useless and ancient customs we shall modernize it by better business methods," said Chairman Keep today. "We do not find so much duplication of work as we do a multiplication of work. It is impossible to operate the business of the government after the fashion of private corporations, but there is room for better methods in many cases and the effort will be made to bring this about."

The Keep commission will make many suggestions in its report to the president, which the members think may result in abolishing practices that hinder industry. The changes that may be determined upon, it was said today, could be effected through an executive order or by direction of the heads of the departments, without recourse to congress. This one great thing the commission is after is a uniform method which all similar work will be conducted along the same lines.

Interior Department Methods.

Acting on a recent letter of the secretary of the interior, stating that he was convinced that defects existed in the organization and business methods of a number of bureaus connected with his department, and suggesting that the department be referred to the Keep commission for investigation, the president has requested the committee to enter upon the investigation at its earliest convenience and that special attention be given to the methods of bureaus employed in the general land and office, the office of surveyors general, the reclamation service and the Indian office. The inquiry will deal with the organization, personnel and business methods employed in the several bureaus of the department, but more especially with the general and local land office. One of the questions which will receive the attention of the commission is whether the services of receivers at local offices may not be dispensed with without detriment to good administration.

Saves Million on Printing.

Mr. Ricketts, the acting public printer, has submitted his estimates to the Treasury department for transmission to congress, showing the amounts required for the conduct of the government printing office for the next fiscal year. The total amount carried in the estimates, including an item of $50,000 for leaves of absence, is $5,323,242. The amount expended for the fiscal year, which ended last June, was $5,700,256.64, or an excess of $377,024.04 over the amount which the acting public printer estimated as necessary for the coming fiscal year. Mr. Ricketts tonight stated that his estimates were compiled without reference to any action which might be taken by congress or the executive departments looking to further reductions in the printing bill. He said that if congress would remedy the defects in the printing laws, which he regards in large part responsible for many of the wastes in printing, the saving to the government would be much larger than that indicated by the reduction shown in his estimates.

Chicago Council Adopts Substitute for Action He Asks Looking Toward Acquiring Traction Lines.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The plans of Mayor McLaughlin to acquire the street railway system with another setback tonight at the hands of the city council. The mayor at the last meeting of the council submitted an order that the local transportation committee of the council in connection with the legal advisers of the city proceed without delay to prepare an ordinance for the purpose of acquiring ownership of the street railways of Chicago under the law passed at the last session of the state legislature, allowing them to be purchased by money produced from the sale of bonds.

Investigating Blanket Contract.

A board of officers consisting of Majors Jacob G. Galbraith, chief of the fire department, W. J. Greble, chief of the fire department, E. Baxter, quartermaster, has been ordered to meet at the earliest date practicable at Schuykill arsenal, Philadelphia, to examine and report upon blankets delivered at that arsenal under contract to Henry K. Kent. The board is authorized to employ a stenographer and an expert in textiles if necessary. The quality of several thousand blankets is involved in the above report.

Officers of the quartermaster's department have accepted some of the Kent blankets and rejected others.

This board will pass again on the blankets which have been accepted. Several technical questions are involved, such as the matter of stenciling of the letters "U. S." in the blankets and afterwards steaming them.

CASH GONE FROM PACKAGE

Express Company Looking for Funds Sent by Montana Man to New York.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 30.—A dispatch from Helena, Mont., says that the contents of a $25.00 express package sent from Hamilton, N. Y., to New York are missing and detectives are trying to discover what became of the money. The money, was shipped by Charles F. Kelley to N. H. Harris & Co. for investment. Instead of receiving the securities he had purchased, Kelley was dumfounded to receive a letter stating that the contents of the package, consisting of some of the New York firm, consisted of newspaper clippings. The seals, however, were intact.

At the office of the Northern Pacific company here it was frankly admitted that the story from Helena was true except that the amount was $14.00 instead of $25.00. No details were given out.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—At the office of N. W. Harris & Co., in this city it was said today that detectives had been put to work to trace the missing securities.

MISCELLANEOUS. Oct. 30.—C. P. Kelly, who shipped to New York brokers an express package supposed to have contained $14.00, but which he said to have contained only worthless paper when the brokers here were notified of the loss, has a receipt from the Nevada lodge of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers. Local papers recently printed a story that Kelly had received $10.00 from the Nevada gold fields, sent to him by a former friend whom he had "grub-staked."

Only One Omaha Student.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 30.—(Special Telegram.)—The only Nebraska in the entering class at the Sheffield Scientific school, Yale, is a student from Omaha, named Richard Thompson Baum of Omaha. He has plenty of other students in the freshman class are from the west and middle west.

ELECTIONS IN SEVEN STATES

Ohio, Virginia, Massachusetts and Rhode Island Will Choose Governors.

MINOR OFFICERS IN THREE OTHER

Nebraska, Pennsylvania and Maryland Will Select Judges of Supreme Courts and Regents of Universities.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Elections will be held Tuesday, November 7, in seven states and six of the larger cities. In Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Virginia and Ohio a governor and other state officers are to be chosen, and in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Nebraska minor state officers, judges or regents of the state university. In New York, Indiana, Louisiana, Salt Lake and San Francisco a mayor and other city officers, and in Chicago sanitary trustees and judges are to be voted for.

The history of the state in Virginia, Ohio and Pennsylvania has been a misadventure of the republicans and democratic candidates. The prohibitionists have a ticket in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, Indiana, Ohio and Chicago; the socialists in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York and Ohio; the socialist labor party in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, New York and Indiana; the municipal ownership party in New York, and the American party in Salt Lake.

There are six candidates for mayor in New York and four in Indiana.

DEATH RECORD.

Mrs. Emily Carr McNeely.

Mrs. Emily Carr McNeely, wife of Major McNeely and a resident of this state for half a century, died Sunday evening at the family residence, 2415 Capitol avenue. The funeral service will be held at the home at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The burial will be private.

Mrs. McNeely was 77 years of age at the time of death and shared with her husband many hardships incident to pioneer life in the west. Both Mr. and Mrs. McNeely were closely identified with the history of Omaha and this part of the state. With his wife and two babies Mr. McNeely moved from Oskaloosa to Council Bluffs in 1854. For some years before the death of Major McNeely the family lived at De Soto, the seat of Washington county. Mr. McNeely built the sixth house to be erected in Omaha. Although simple and quiet in her way of living, Mrs. McNeely was possessed of much strength of character. Since the death of her husband Mrs. McNeely has divided her time in Washington and Douglas counties with her children. She was of the Carr family of Virginia.

William R. Park.

LITTLE SIoux, Ia., Oct. 30.—(Special Telegram.)—The funeral of William R. Park occurred here yesterday. Rev. Curtis conducted the service. The deceased was born June 27, 1828, in Brown county, Ohio, was married December 5, 1856, to Rachel Wood and was the father of seven sons and three daughters, six of whom survive. He came to Iowa in 1858 and has since resided in Little Sioux. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

HYMENEAL.

McDonald-Harmon.

Mr. Hugh McDonald of Islay, Wyo., and Miss Stella Harmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Harmon, No. 312 North Nineteenth street, were married last Monday evening at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Randolph Smith, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, in the presence of a small company of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will reside at Islay, Wyo.

Brown Knows in Wyoming.

DOUGLAS, Wyo., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Ward has received here of the arrest at Philadelphia of W. M. Brown, charged with swindling. Brown is well known in this section having, it is alleged, carried on a stock jobbing business on a large scale. It is said he would secure a piece of ground, dig a ten-foot hole and then sell stock, misrepresenting the character of the ground. State Geologist Beeler has investigated a number of Brown's properties (?) and pronounced them of little value.

OUR LETTER BOX.

Postal Savings Banks.

OMAHA, Oct. 30.—To the Editor of The Bee: Your editorial on above subject in last Sunday's Bee is certainly timely and to the point. I have for years been in favor of the establishment of postal savings banks for at least two good reasons: First, the system would afford the only known absolutely safe and sure means of investment for the savings of poor people, or people of but moderate means; second, it would not only tend to promote habits of industry and frugality among the toiling masses, but patriotism and love of country as well.

A large proportion of the wage earners of this country spend at least some of their earnings for things from which they realize but little or no real pleasure or benefit. Small as this sum might be in many cases, it would, with accruing interest, if placed on deposit, swell to an amount not to be despised, in the course of years, and serve as the most effectual means of bridging the chasm of "hard times," financial panics or periods of "over production," which are sure to come to us sooner or later.

If but part of the money that has been wasted in this country the past two years in promoting and prosecuting ill advised and unsympathetic "strikes" could have been deposited on interest in absolute safety, the enormous sum thus realized in course of time could be used to establish co-operative industries among working men, and thus make at least many of them not only prosperous but independent for all time of their former employers. Indeed the benefits that could be derived from the system are so numerous, so plain and so great that it is a marvel the question has never been made the "paramount issue" with any political party. And it really appears to me unnecessary to insist on public print the necessity for such a measure that should be potent to the mind of any grown person of ordinary intelligence.

POLICE TO WATCH THE BOYS

Hallowe'en Depredations of the Destructive Sort Will Not Be Tolerated.

Chief of Police Donahue, before the Fire and Police board last night, reported that more vigorous preparations had been made than ever before to hold in check those boys who so far forget themselves as to destroy people's property on Hallowe'en tonight. The whole police force will be in service, together with twenty special officers. Lists of names have been prepared of boys who have been particularly mischievous during the summer. Not only the names, but the loquacious where they live have been turned in. Each patrolman has been informed concerning these cases. Parents who have boys whom they know are full of tricks are warned that they will be held responsible for any and all depredations committed by their boys. The police officers are already well known and the officers say that they will bring legal action against these people wherever it can be proven that acts of lawlessness have been committed by the sons. Most of the police will be in plain clothes. Said the chief, "I am confident that the boys will meet with difficulties before the celebration is over."

LOSERS WANT A NEW CHANCE

Property Owners Attack Judge Sutton's Proceedings in Boulevard Suit.

Through Attorney Joel W. West and Frank T. Ransom the Coad Real Estate company and others have filed a petition asking to have set aside the findings of Judge Sutton in the proceedings to declare void the assessment district made for the boulevard from Riverview park to Burt street. Judge Sutton held that the assessment district was legal and that the special tax levied was fully offset by the benefits.

The petition to have the finding set aside alleges irregularities on the part of the court which prevented a fair trial, that the finding is not sustained by the evidence and that it is contrary to law. It is further alleged that the stenographer who took the testimony is absent from the state and that plaintiffs cannot therefore get a transcript to enable them to take an appeal to the supreme court.

The finding by Judge Sutton was reached only after many hearings, and the stenographer who took the testimony is Harry Cohn, now an assistant district attorney in Alaska.

BLACK HILLS EXHIBIT CAR

Captain Gardner and Forces at the Webster Street Depot for Next Two Days.

Captain C. V. Gardner, who is in charge of the Black hills exhibit car, reached Omaha with his car last evening, after a very successful five weeks' trip through Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota and Wisconsin. He will stay in Omaha for the next two days and keep the car open for early in the morning until late at night, so that all who wish may have full chance to inspect the splendid exhibits he has on display. Samples of almost every known mineral, of fruit, grain and vegetables of all kinds and of magnificent quality are shown in the car, together with information concerning the section where they were obtained. A special invitation is extended to the business men of the city, many of whom have good customers in the Black hills.
