Nathan was in such an extreme state of nervousness today that officers Dunn and Dennison were detailed to guard his cell lest he do himself harm.

Manager Reinold and other members of the company were examined separately tovisit of the prince who comes as a rear JEROME REPLIES TO OSBORN day by the Boston officers, the examination lasting all day. Inspector McGarr. will resume it tomorrow. Further information as to the result of the examination was withheld other than the fact that with what they had learned the mystery had been solved and arrests in Boston would be the final chapter of the case. Nathan was advised not to go to Bosaffairs now being made by the New York return as quickly as possible and help to avenge his sweetheart's murder. He is in a pitiably nervous condition One of the reasons assigned for this was that his cell in police headquarters was just across the alley from the Nixon theater, where the "Shepherd King" is being perhe would employ Charles E. The departure of Nathan for Boston was not accomplished without a struggle, despite Nathan's desire to return home. Inspector John R. McGarr of Boston, accompanied by Detectives George Cole and James Egan of the local force, searched the rooms of Nathan and secured from his trunk and from members of the "Shepherd King" company six letters which are alleged to contain incriminating evidence. When Siskand learned of this find he insisted that they be turned over to him, as they were the property of his client. The Boston police officials refused and Siskand retaliated by refusing to permit Nathan to return to Boston. This balked the plans of the police and for two hours

The Boston store was entered last night by two burglars, who had succeeded in filling two suit cases with plunder before being discovered by the watchman. They ran away without the stolen property. BOYS KEEP THE POLICE BUSY Not Many Serious Depredations Reported to the Station on Hallowe'en.

For the most part the pranks of the boys who were out last night were of a mild rature, so far as reported to the police. There were several cases of a nature bordering on the lawless which came under their notice. From 8 o'clock to 16 the telephone was kept pretty warm with calls from anxious people from all parts of the city. Most of these resulted in nothing. They got more of the fence on the second occasion. At about 8:30 some of the boys raised the dog which holds the electric light reel at Twenty-first and Binney streets and let the arc light fall into the street. They left the wires and the extinguished lamp in the street and ran away. A great crowd of hove made a rendevous of the old vinegar factory at Fifty-first and Poppleton ave nue, and wakened the neighborhood with unearthly yells and coyote calls.

At 9 o'clock some boy threw a brick through the windows of a Dodge street car, causing much alarm to the passengers, but luckily hurting no one. At 9:10 the boys pulled the fire alarm box at Twenty-sixth and Poppleton avenue and gave the firemen a fruttless run. The boys were very wary, however, and kept well out of sight of the police. Not an arrest was made, though the whole police department was out during the ears

Jerome. The promises were made in reply to the construction which his rival for office, James W. Osborn, put upon Mr.

Jerome's recent statement that if re-elected counsel for the investigating committee, to conduct the prosecution of insurance offenders. Mr. Osborn asked Mr. Jerome if he wanted to use Mr. Hughes in order to shirk the conduct of these prosecutions himself. Mr. Jerome said in reply today:

I have felt all along in regard to these insurance matters that crimes have been committed and that the persons guilty of these crimes must be prosecuted, and it is my intention, as I have said on several occasions, to prosecute to the bitter-end every person connected with these insurance matters against whom it is possible to obtain evidence showing the commission of a criminal offense.

If elected, in such prosecutions I shall avail myself without reserve of every ald and assistance that I can obtain from any quarter. I have absolutely no relation to anybody in any way connected with these insurance troubles that would hamper or embarrans me in the slightest degree in the prosecution of those who have committed a crime.
