IN THE POLITICAL ARENA

World-Herald Dope Makers Pursue the Same Old Tactics.

PRETEND REPUBLICANS ARE ALL SPLIT UP

Fake Interviews Recall Those of Last Year, When Defeat of Republican Legislative Ticket Was Predicted.

"The World-Herald in pursuing its old, old tactics in its splendid warfare upon County Treasurer Fink first and other republican candidates second," observed Secretary Greevy of the republican county committee.

"It requires no great mind to recall that last year this same hub-bub of alleged strife within republican ranks was kept up by that paper, played up for all it was worth. Daily those anonymous interviews when Hitecock's man, Friday, held with himself and charged up to a prominent republican, appeared, in which alleged interviews were made to create the impression that the republicans, the machine and anti, were lashing each other's throats in murderous fashion. The one hue and cry was 'Rosewater's legislative slate is going to be cut to pieces.' No matter whose slate it was, that contained the names of several anti, the entire republican legislative ticket, it will be recalled, went in with a whoop. As a matter of fact, there never was a doubt, not even in the mind of the World-Herald dope makers, of its election, but, democrats have found themselves in dire straits in Omaha and Douglas county and they know the only hope for them is to try to throw dust in the republicans' eyes, and they think this can most effectively be done by raising the false alarm that the republicans are split up the back and fighting among themselves.

"Get the files of the World-Herald of last year and take its current issues now, and by comparison you will find many of those colloquies, or pretended interviews, with names of the candidates interchanged, would fit in for use this fall just as well as a year ago.

"Republicans are not deceived by this ancient method, which, to intelligent people, is a fake on its face. Look at the stories printed a year ago, telling how the republican legislative ticket was going to be cut up into shoe strings and then look at the ticket after election and you will find every republican on that ticket, and not a single democrat, was elected. That's the prospect for you."

One of the accomplishments of County Treasurer Fink's administration that is winning support from the men of his own party is the excellent showing he has made with the bond sinking fund, to meet the bonds of Douglas county, as they may fall due in the coming years. "This has heretofore been a somewhat neglected feature of county financial administration," said County Commissioner Trainor, "and Mr. Fink should certainly have the endorsement of the people for his careful management of the fund. He has taken the pains to make investment of county funds allowed by the law for the benefit of this fund, and the result is very encouraging. In the matter of interest on current bank balances, too, he has been alert and persistent, and the county treasury is several thousand dollars the gainer in consequence. When voters get to talking of rewarding faithful service, Mr. Fink should have their first attention."

The Pontanelli club braves are evidently not satisfied with the laborious work being done by the county committee in notifying unregistered voters by postal card that they must register, for they are duplicating the job with postal card notices over the name of their executive committee.

The special point they add to their announcement is a warning that failure to register will prevent them from voting people for the Pontanelli slate in the primaries next spring.

The latest talk at the city hall is that Councilman Backs may not vote with the other members of the majority in selecting a successor to George T. Nicholson. It is recalled that with the old alignment of the council with four members usually on each side of every important issue, Back nearly always occupied the middle ground. "You see how it is—four to four, I have the deciding vote," he has said time out of number.

This condition has made Back a tower of strength and he has maintained it very skillfully. Now, it is pointed out, if he votes with the four majority members the margin over the minority will be increased and Mr. Back's balance of power shattered. On the other hand, if he votes with the three minority members, and the majority four hold out against them, the court will be four to four, meaning an inevitable deadlock.

Back is said to have figured this all out very carefully and is patting himself serene in the confidence that the personality of the man who will fill the vacancy is really up to him.

A. F. Mayne, a former city hall janitor, is hustling for votes to get the job in the council. Mayor Moore denies with emphasis that he is boosting the candidacy of any one.

At a large attendance of the Hungarian Social club these republican candidates were unanimously endorsed: D. M. Haverly, county clerk; Herman Beal, surveyor; E. Brailey, coroner; Frank Handle, register of deeds; Emmet G. Solomon and William G. Ure, county commissioners; Bryce Crawford, police magistrate.

TWO REPUBLICAN RALLIES

Joint Meeting of Swedish Clubs and Session in North End.

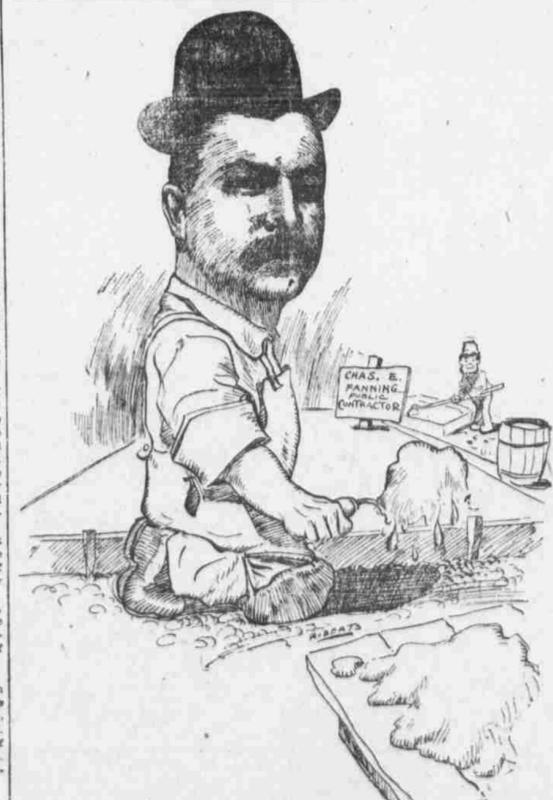

Under the auspices of the Swedish-American club of Omaha and the Swedish-American league, a well attended meeting was held last night in Washington hall. The ratification of the republican ticket was the announced purpose of the rally, and many of the Swedish republican leaders responded to the call. Theodore F. Johnson officiated as chairman and in calling the meeting to order spoke briefly regarding the prospects of the campaign. Congressman John L. Kennedy was the principal speaker of the evening. He paid a tribute to Judge Sternberg as a typical Swede, and vouched for the loyalty of John McDonald, and expressed his desire to see the new primary law vindicated by the election of the straight republican ticket. Economy in county affairs was discussed and the advantages to the taxpayer accrued from republican administration set forth. The candidacy of Robert O. Fink was warmly commended, and Charles Leslie advocated as a man of the experience and ability necessary for the office of county judge. Mr. Kennedy then turned his attention to national affairs and eloquently eulogized the president for his action in the recent war.

Candidates Leslie, Solomon, Brailey, Haverly, Ure, Crawford, Beal and McDonald also made brief speeches.

One hundred republicans of the Fifth, Sixth and Twelfth wards met in the hall at Twenty-fifth and Burdette streets last night in a union rally. Addresses were made by Judge B. S. Baker, Judge L. P. Baxter and Judge J. W. Fawcett. All the speakers urged upon their hearers the necessity of getting as many republicans as possible out for registration today. A considerable part of Judge Fawcett's talk was made in behalf of Charles Leslie for county judge. Short addresses were made by a number of candidates who were present.

LAWYERS IN HOT REPARTEE

Council and Weaver Fire Some Crisp Tarts at Each Other in Court.

A jury in Judge Redick's court went out late Friday afternoon to consider the case of John Coffey, administrator of the estate of John Nelson. The suit is brought on behalf of Nelson's widow for recovery $2,000 for the loss of her husband's life by the alleged negligence of the defendant company. The case pursued the usual course of all personal injury suits against the company until the attorneys to Mr. Connell as the plaintiff's attorneys, Weaver & Giller, using among others the term "ambulance chasers." When Mr. Weaver came to address the jury he later he enlivened the tedium by alluding to Mr. Connell as "a man whose hide is so thick that I could say nothing which would touch him. It would be like shooting paper was against a rhinoceros." The jury enjoyed the joviality of the attorneys, but said nothing.

Announcements of the Theaters.

A matinee will be given at the Orpheum this afternoon and the last performance of the present bill tonight when the curtain will rise at 8:15 sharp. The new bill opening Sunday matinee will embrace a varied assortment of entertainment that has the advantage of coming for the first time. Macy and Hall will present a sketch written by Clay Clement, entitled "A Timely Awakening." Genaro and Bailey will appear in their new sketch called "A Cigarette Class." Others are Stella Lee, a queen of terpsichore; Allene's monkeys, Mr. Frederick Voelker, the distinguished violin virtuoso; Hal Merritt with his crayon drawings; a monologue and some imitations; Brown and Brown, Indian college boys, who sing and do cartoon work, and entirely new kindroome pictures.

The sale of seats for the Emma Eames and company concert at the Auditorium is now on and indications point to a very large audience. Mme. Eames is one of the bright particular stars in the musical firmament and with the great artist accompanying her she will unquestionably present a program of vocal and instrumental music rarely, if ever, equalled in this city. The box office will be open on Sunday from 3 to 6 p. m. for the sale of reserved seats.

This afternoon and evening at the Boyd theater "The Sho-Gun" will be repeated, closing the engagement. On Sunday evening the engagement of Wilton Lackaye in "The Pit" will open. This play, which is based on Frank Norris' strong novel of the same name, has been a most remarkable success, and critics have pronounced Mr. Lackaye's impersonation of Curtis Jaden even greater than his characterization of the role of Svengali in "Trilby." An excellent opportunity to judge of this will be given on Tuesday, when "Trilby" will be presented at a special matinee. The Pit will be played on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings.

"Big Four" Operates in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky, 2,000 miles of the best constructed and finest equipped railroad in America, and also maintains magnificent through train service in connection with Lake Shore, New York Central to New York, and Boston & Albany to Boston. Also with Michigan Central to Detroit, Mackinaw City and intermediate points, and with Chesapeake & Ohio to Washington, Baltimore and Richmond. Write for folders.

CENTRAL LABOR UNION MEETS

No Official Announcement as to the Result of the Test Election.

Nothing of an official nature regarding the election to determine a union labor ticket for support at the coming general election was given out at the regular meeting of the Central Labor union last night. The committee in charge of the matter reported to the body in executive session and the report was not made public. A special committee, composed of John Pollan, John Korff and A. H. Schroeder, was appointed by President Gavey to canvass the returns. It was instructed to make known its findings at the next meeting of the Central Labor union, which will be after the general election. The matter of trying to induce the street railway company to protect the motorist's vestibule on street cars on every side, instead of leaving one side open as at present, was brought up and referred to the law committee for consideration and action. Ezra D. Miller and William A. Crisman were obligated as delegates from the engineers' union.

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.

With the dry, cold weather of the early winter months, parents of croupy children should be on the alert for ominous symptoms. There is no cause for anxiety when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is kept in the home. If this medicine is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough has appeared, the attack may be warded off. Mrs. E. Rosenthal of Turner, Mich., says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it."

Month Park Improvements.

Month Park Improvement club met last night at First Memorial church, Thirty-fourth and Larimore streets. Improvements were discussed for the north part of the city, among them the parking of the streets and the laying of walks, and it was decided to call the attention of the proper authorities. The club has increased largely its membership since last fall. At the close of the meeting the members were agreeably surprised to see their wives come to the church in a body, and they were more surprised when they were invited into the lecture room for refreshments.
