GOVERNMENT TAKES HAND IN MATTER

'Will Supply White People with Arms and Ammunition and Keep Closer Watch on the Asiatics.

JOHANNESBURG, Nov. 4.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—The Transvaal is fighting its own peculiar yellow peril.

East, west, north—always Chinese. This matter is serious.

Argus-eyed writers to the newspapers report Chinese holding a blockhouse in military fashion.

How many wanderers are there? No one knows.

Some Undisputed Facts.

But amid all the dust of controversy certain grim facts cannot be denied.

Twenty Chinese attack the house of Mr. Lunn, a farmer, on the East Rand.

Mr. Joubert's farm at Mosby's Veldt attacked by Chinese.

European storekeeper in the Pretoria district murdered.

These things do not look like on paper.

Yet with all this one cannot feel feeling sorry for the Chinese.

AMBASSADORS FEAR SULTAN

Representatives of Powers at Constantinople Will Not Discuss the Macedonian Situation.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 4.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—The ambassadors here to show themselves recalcitrant regarding the demands of the powers, but a more optimistic feeling is beginning to prevail again after the pessimism of the past week.

It is believed that within the next few days the negotiations will be resumed.

The negotiations will be resumed in principle and that the further negotiations will be concerned chiefly with matters of detail.

It is, however, possible that the wish may be father to the thought, for there can be no doubt that the powers would find themselves in grave difficulties if the sultan were to persist in his present attitude.

The reluctance of the different ambassadors to take upon themselves the task of coercing the Turkish government is admirably illustrated by what took place at the Balkan recently.

The ambassadors would go in a body to the sultan and urge him to give way, but the suggestion was dropped.

It was then thought that the Austrian ambassador, as the sultan would be the sitting person to make the representations, but to this Baron Calles not unreasonably demurred.

It was finally left open to any ambassador who wished to expostulate with his majesty on his own account.

The result was that, although three ambassadors—the Austrian, the German and the Italian—had interviews with the sultan, the demand for financial control was not so much as mentioned.

A confidential secretary of the sultan paid a visit to two hours to Baron Marschall von Bielowitz to discuss the European situation.

It was finally left open to any ambassador who wished to expostulate with his majesty on his own account.

ORDER IN FORCE TO END OF TIME

Class to Be Inserted in Every Deed Absolutely Preventing Use of Land for Sale of Liquor by Any Subsequent Owner.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The commissioner of Indian Affairs has issued a regulation regarding the sale of Indian lands.

The regulation has been modified, requiring that all deeds of conveyance shall hereafter contain provisions forever prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors on the premises conveyed, and pursuant to this modification of the rule the following provision will hereafter be inserted in each deed:

"That no malt, spirituous, or vinous liquors shall be kept or disposed of on the premises conveyed, and any violation of this condition, either by the grantee or by any person claiming rights under said party of the second part, shall render the conveyance void and cause the premises to revert to the party of the first part, his heirs and assigns."

Section 7 of the act of congress of May 27, 1882, authorizes the sale, subject to the approval of the secretary of the Interior, by the legal heirs, of lands of deceased Indians, where trust patents have been issued covering such lands, but containing no provision as to the disposal of the same up to June 30, 1905, 212,457 acres of the value of $4,490,596.

TORNADO KILLS SEVEN PEOPLE

Number of Houses Blown Away and Several Persons Injured at Mountain View, Okl.

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Okl., Nov. 4.—A tornado struck this city at 4:30 p. m. today and killed seven persons. The dead: W. T. WHITE, F. W. CLARK, J. H. CLARK, MRS. WILLIAM HOLT and CHILD, J. S. BARKLEY.

The seriously injured: T. D. Dunn, J. W. Gray, Mrs. George Broughton, aged 35, and her 3-year-old child.

Mrs. J. S. Barkley, probably fatal. Mrs. J. S. Barkley, aged 17; probably fatal. Mrs. M. McBride and daughter. B. A. Mittendorf, J. M. White, Cache, Okl. Joseph Walker, Okla., probably fatal.

Many others are less seriously injured. The schoolhouse, two churches, two livery barns, one hotel, a cotton gin and about twelve dwellings are blown away and many more houses are wrecked.

The business part of the town was untouched, except a few windows being blown in.

The property loss cannot be estimated at present.

A terrific rain preceded the storm and the streets are flooded with water.

The Manhattan hotel has been converted into a temporary morgue, where the dead are being received. Many of the bodies were horribly mangled.

Mr. Barkley received wounds in the head and neck, which he sustained while riding. The infant child of W. M. Holt is reported missing and a search is being made of the debris of the home.

DR. McLEOD OUT ON BOND

Warrant Issued for Arrest of Mrs. Mary S. Dean, Nurse at the Roxbury House.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Except for the arraignment of Dr. Percy D. McLeod, his release later on very heavy bail and the granting of a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Mary S. Dean, the missing nurse of the Roxbury house, comparatively few additional facts developed today regarding the death of Miss Susanna Geary as the result of an illegal operation at a private hospital and the finding of portions of her dismembered body in two dress suitcases in the harbor.

The police made a fruitless search for Mrs. Dean. Three business men furnished $500 bail for Dr. McLeod and the harbor police dragged all day in vain for the stolen child, it is said, contains the head of the unfortunate girl, the only portion of her body that has not been recovered.

NO FEES FOR PROBATE CLERKS

County Judge of Lancaster County Says the Grant Doesn't Go in His Office.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Nov. 4.—(Special Telegram.)—County Judge Waters of Lancaster county was asked this evening about the fees that are collected by the clerks of the county judge's office in Omaha, and if his clerks collected any such charges.

"The clerks of my office are not allowed to collect fees under any circumstances," said Judge Waters. "We make no charges for such services as are charged in Douglas county."

LIGHT LOCAL REGISTRATION

Total for the City Estimated at Some Where in Neighborhood of Fifteen Thousand.

Rain and indifference on the part of the voters played hob with the plans of the party managers yesterday, and the returns developed that the registration of Greedy of the republican county committee last night indicated a very light attendance at the booths.

Thirteen precincts had reported to Mr. Greedy at midnight. At that time he figured that for Omaha the addition to the polling lists would be about 150 to the precinct. This on the basis of fifty-four precincts, would bring the total of the day up to something above 5,000. The total for the first two days was a little over 16,000, indicating that the total registration for the city will be in the neighborhood of 15,000, compared with a total of 21,000 for last fall's election. The committee headquarters will be kept open all day today to tabulate the returns, which will be brought in by the precinct committeemen.

The returns received by Mr. Greedy last night indicate that the republicans are holding the customary advantage in point of designated party affiliation. The secretary expressed himself as very much encouraged on this point.

EIGHT WHALERS WITHOUT FOOD

Of Twelve Ships Frozen in Ice, but Four Are Provisioned for Winter.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 4.—A special dispatch to the Post-Intelligencer from Nome says the whaling fleet is frozen in near the mouth of the Mackenzie. Of the twelve vessels only about four are provisioned for the winter.

Captain A. J. Stone, who spent the winter of 1904-5 in the vicinity of the Mackenzie, stated that there was no danger of the whalers' starving.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 4.—Count Witte is getting his hands on the helm of the Russian ship of state and it is beginning to right itself. Gradually the disorder that followed the promulgation of the constitution giving the people liberty is being put down. The count has steadily refused to make difficulties confronting him and the pressure of the demands of the different classes of society with the energy and sincerity that are more and more giving him the support of the moderate liberals, who have been frightened by the arrival of disorder in which the country has been plunged and the inordinate friends of
