AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Union Pacific Wants Streets Vacated for Cut-Off Line.

WILL CUT TEN MILES OFF FREMONT LINE

City Clerk Issues Instructions to the Voters Who May Be Compelled to Swear in Their Votes on Election Day.

In order to construct the "cut off" line from South Omaha to Lane, three miles this side of Elkhorn, the Union Pacific has asked the mayor and council to vacate certain streets and alleys in the northwestern portion of the city. This new line is to be built without a curve and when completed will reduce the distance between South Omaha and Fremont ten miles. An ordinance vacating portions of streets and alleys was introduced in the council last Monday night and referred to the judiciary committee. During last week a party of Union Pacific officials and engineers, along with members of the city council, visited the locality and looked over the ground. It was found that some of the streets and alleys asked to be vacated in the original ordinance had already been vacated to the South Omaha Land company some months ago. This will necessitate the drafting of another ordinance. The new ordinance is now in course of preparation and will be substituted for the original at the next meeting of the council. Only sufficient ground for crossings on a number of streets and alleys is asked for by the Union Pacific. As practically the same plats were vacated for the Northwestern road and as the Union Pacific cut-off is to parallel the Northwestern for quite a distance the city officials can see no objection to the granting of the request of the Union Pacific, and the ordinance will without doubt be passed without opposition, as other railroad improvement ordinances have been within the last few years.

Unregistered Voters.

Owing to the light registration it is thought that a large number of voters will appear on election day and desire to swear in their votes. In order that all voters may understand perfectly what is required to swear in their votes the city clerk has caused the following instructions to be printed and circulated:

"The voter desiring to swear in his vote on election day as being unregistered must appear before the city clerk and be sworn.

"His affidavit must also be signed and sworn to by two freeholders residing in the precinct in which he desires to vote. The fact that these freeholders are residents of the ward in which he desires to vote is not sufficient; they must be residents of the same voting precinct.

"The affidavit made by the voter in order to entitle him to vote need not be confined to 'sickness' or 'absence from the city,' but may include 'at work and did not have time to register.'

"If any of these reasons shall be assigned they will be deemed sufficient and the voter applying November 7 will be given a certificate showing his qualifications to vote on that day. A careful observance of these rules will save much time and trouble to all concerned."

Beal is Popular Candidate.

Herman Beal, republican candidate for county surveyor, is gaining in popularity every day, and he is sure to get a large vote in South Omaha next Tuesday. During his twelve years' service as city engineer of South Omaha Mr. Beal has been faithful in the discharge of his duties and has shown himself to be competent in every way. Mr. Beal is not a mere draftsman, but is a first-class civil engineer, and the many letters of recommendation from railroad companies with whom he was employed before locating in South Omaha show that his services in constructing lines of railroads was appreciated by his employers.

A vote for Herman Beal means the filling of the office of county surveyor by a competent engineer. On account of his duties as city engineer Mr. Beal has not had the time to devote to the campaign that he desired, but as it is he has made hosts of friends all over the county and his many friends predict his election by a heavy majority.

Bad Weather for Registration.

Saturday was the last day of registration and on account of the disagreeable weather the registration was not as heavy as expected. Efforts were made by both republicans and democrats to get out the voters, but there did not appear to be a great deal of interest.

Monday morning City Clerk Gillin will put a number of clerks at work making copies of the third day's registration. Until all of the registration books are turned in the total registration will not be known. This information can most likely be given to the public about noon on Monday.

Bond Histories Delayed.

Last Monday night the city council sold to Moore, Baker & Co. of Boston refunding bonds to the amount of $70,000. The premium bid was $1,078. This bid was made by an Omaha representative of the eastern buyers. City Clerk Gillin was ready to forward a history of these bonds, but Saturday discovered a discrepancy between the contract drawn by the Omaha representative and the resolution of the city council. The forwarding of the history will be delayed until this matter is straightened out.

Unofficial Bond Returns.

City Clerk Gillin has prepared printed slips to be filled out by the judges and clerks of election giving the returns on the sewer bond proposition. This return is to be made to the city clerk outside of any official report and should be delivered at the earliest possible moment after the vote is canvassed. By following these instructions the city officials and voters generally will know the result of the bond election without having to wait for the official canvass. The polls for state and county candidates will close at 6 o'clock, when the machines will be reset and voting on the bond proposition will continue until 7 o'clock.

Hawthorne School Entertainment.

The pupils of the Hawthorne school will give an entertainment at the high school auditorium on the evening of November 10. One of the objects of the entertainment is to secure funds for the purchase of pictures for the school building. A program of more than passing interest has been prepared, and from the number of tickets already sold the prospects are excellent for a large attendance. Among the features of the entertainment will be a Mother Goose cantata by the little folks.

The Bond Question.

SOUTH OMAHA, Nov. 4.—To the Editor of The Bee: Home owners and taxpayers of the Magic City have the privilege Tuesday of plastering their homes and other property with another stupendous mortgage of a quarter of a million of dollars, or can vote no and reject the unwarranted and unjust bond proposition. I, myself, have usually been classed as a corporation sympathizer, and am a friend to the corporations today. I believe in the proper concentration of capital to promote and carry on the great enterprises and industries of this strenuous and progressive age, and yet I never saw the time when these useful and lawfully organized bodies were willing to meet the plebians and the public half way where the question of taxation was an issue.

It is generally conceded that a practical sewerage system is needed in South Omaha, but the intelligent conscientious citizens should know that what is supposed to be a valid contract with the Stock Yards company was entered into away back in 1888, and is now on file in the city clerk's office, wherein that company agreed to build and maintain a main sewer to convey the offal originating in the yards and packing houses to a suitable place of deposit.

The district court in May last, I might say, indirectly recognized the lawfulness of said contract by ordering the Stock Yards company to abate the nuisance and the nauseating smell arising from the flow of Stink creek, as it is usually called, before April, 1906. I am informed this order was promulgated by the court in the suit of Guy C. Barton against the Stock Yards company and the city of South Omaha.

The city council has agreed by resolution to separate the $250,000 and appropriate a few thousands towards the laying of sewer mains in the various sewer districts. What assurance have citizens that this pledge would be fulfilled? They could, and probably would, rescind the resolution at any time, especially if it became necessary to use more than $150,000 to construct the main sewer. And why should our people be taxed at all to erect this main sewer, when the Stock Yards company is obligated under the law to build and maintain it?

A Reliable Remedy for Croup.

With the dry, cold weather of the early winter months, parents of croupy children should be on the alert for ominous symptoms. There is no cause for anxiety when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is kept in the home. If this medicine is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough has appeared, the attack may be warded off. Mrs. S. Rosinthal of Turner, Mich., says: "We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for ourselves and children for several years and like it very much. I think it is the only remedy for croup and can highly recommend it."

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. They are composed of the finest powdered willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form, or, rather, in the form of large, pleasant-tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in the stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but 25 cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

Royal Arcanum.

The only recourse left the members of the Royal Arcanum who have protested against the payment of the increased rates which went into effect, that of injunction, seems to have gone glimmering, and hence the payment of the increased rate is all that is left for the members to do. The rates went into effect October 1, and the time for final payment was October 31. One of the most important of the cases growing out of the increase of rates was that of James Mock of Brooklyn, N. Y., who secured a temporary injunction in the supreme court of Brooklyn early in October restraining the supreme council of the order from suspending him for refusal to pay the increased rate. The injunction was, however, dissolved by Justice Maddox of the Brooklyn supreme court October 30, on the ground that counsel for both sides would bring the case on trial on November 20. In denying the motion to make the injunction permanent and in dissolving it, Justice Maddox said that it was his desire to protect the interests of the widows and orphans of dead members, as a permanent injunction would have the effect of tying up the funds of the order.

A similar injunction was asked by the members of the councils of the Royal Arcanum of Nashville, Tenn. United States Judge Clark of Nashville, before whom the bills were filed, dismissed the bills on October 31. The court held that it was not sufficiently clear under the law of Massachusetts, in which state the order was incorporated, that this plan of assessment and the effect on members impairs the obligation of the contract, and until it did so appear, the court would not interfere.

In Massachusetts Attorney General Parker has been asked to petition the supreme court of that state for an injunction restraining the enforcement of the increased assessment. He replied that the matter was before the attorney general's department, but no decision has yet been reached.

Attorney William A. McAllister of Columbus, Neb., brought a similar suit to enjoin the collection of the increased assessment, but by agreement of counsel for both sides the hearing of the case is postponed to March 1, 1906. This agreement was made in order to await the decisions in other states where similar suits are brought.

In the province of Ontario, Canada, the courts have refused to grant injunctions similar to these enumerated.

Attorney F. H. Bacon of St. Louis, an authority on fraternal insurance law, was in Omaha recently and he is of the opinion that the order will win out generally. W. M. Giller of Omaha, who is handling the cases for the order in Nebraska, said a few days ago:

"I am confident the right of the supreme council to make the change in the assessment plan will be upheld by the courts. It is provided in the policies and contracts that the constitution and bylaws may be amended at any time in the proper manner. This is one of the conditions upon which the insured accepts the policy. The only question involved is as to the reasonableness of the rates. This can be established in favor of the Royal Arcanum without difficulty."

Court of Honor.

Loyal District court No. 1018 will meet regularly hereafter on the first and third Thursday evening of each month in Myrtle hall. The next regular meeting will be November 16, at which all members are urgently requested to be present. Important business is to be transacted and several candidates will be initiated.

Ladies of the Grand Army.

Garfield circle No. 11 will give a camp fire Monday night at its new hall, Nineteenth and Farnam streets. Refreshments will be served and a general good time is promised.

Members of the Union Veterans' union will be special guests of the evening and all members of that order are cordially invited to be present.

Over 65 per cent of the adult population of the United States is in some way affiliated with fraternal societies.

The press dispatches indicate that the recent meeting of the executive castle of the Royal Highlanders was an extremely stormy session. The Sharp brothers still continue at the head of the organization, W. E. Sharp having been re-elected president and F. J. Sharp secretary. Charles Sharp was, however, dropped from the executive committee.

The members of the Modern Woodmen of America are rejoicing over the fact that there will be no assessment on them for the month of November.

Supreme Oracle Mrs. E. D. Watt of the Royal Neighbors of America reports the new plan of field work as working finely. It is patterned after the deputy system of the Modern Woodmen. A large number of new deputies have been appointed, and the most encouraging reports are being received from all over the jurisdiction.

THOUSANDS AT A DOLL PARTY

J. L. Brandeis & Sons Delight Throngs of Little Tots with Presents of Doll's Stockings.

The biggest doll party ever seen in Omaha was held at J. L. Brandeis & Sons' store yesterday. Every little girl in Omaha was invited, and to judge by appearances nearly every one was there. Thousands of dolls of all descriptions are more completely dressed this morning than they were before, because every one was carried from the store fitted with a new pair of Burson hose, a present from the Brandeis firm.

The children came in response to a general invitation from J. L. Brandeis & Sons and most of the little ones seemed to fear the distinction of being fashionably late. At any rate they crowded the Brandeis annex at the earlier hours in the morning. By 7 o'clock there were many tots on the streets making for street cars and bearing their dolls in their arms. Crowds of them stood outside the doors waiting for the store to open. They carried big dolls and little dolls, pretty dolls and dolls that had once been pretty. Rag dolls were few and "nigger dolls" uncommon, but all kinds were represented and every one got a pair of Burson hose.

The system of handling the children with dispatch necessitated a "one doll to a child" rule, and this was adhered to until a bright-eyed youngster called with a big doll and a small toy goat and demanded one pair for the doll and two pair for the goat. The audacity of the request won the admiration of the young lady who was in charge and the child triumphed. One little mite confessed that she had brought her old doll out in the rain merely to get new stockings for her new doll, which she left safe at home beyond the danger of pneumonia. There were few apologies for the appearance of dolls. The little one with her charge clad in fine raiment was no prouder than the child whose doll evidently served at odd moments as an object of affection and at other as a tackhammer.

The Brandeis firm estimates that during the course of the day fully 6,500 dolls were fitted with new stockings.

Woman's Nightmare

No woman's happiness can be complete without children; it is her nature to love and want them as much so as it is to love the beautiful and pure. The critical ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so fraught with dread, pain, suffering and danger, that the very thought of it fills her with apprehension and horror. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend so prepares the system for the coming event that it is safely passed without any danger. This great and wonderful remedy is always applied externally, and has carried thousands of women through the trying crisis without suffering.

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

Mrs. Eva Perry Moore has issued the following communication regarding the next biennial convention of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs:

The work of the local biennial board in regard to the meeting next spring at St. Paul is progressing finely. The committees have been appointed as follows: Finance committee, Miss Obenauer, chairman; places of meeting, Mrs. J. W. Edgerton, chairman; press committee, Mrs. J. G. Pyle, chairman; music committee, Miss Elsie Shaw, chairman; hotel committee, Mrs. V. J. Hawkins, chairman.

The board of the General Federation appointed one of its members to act upon each committee of the local board as an advisory member. This has met with the heartiest approval of the St. Paul board and is sure to be a helpful precedent.

The places of meeting have been practically settled, using the People's church for the day sessions, the old state capitol for state headquarters and the Ryan hotel for hotel headquarters.

Other committees will be arranged in the immediate future. Mrs. Decker expects to attend the state meeting at Minneapolis and to spend several days afterwards in consultation with the local board. The biennial committee will hope to go to St. Paul some time in February, at the request of many of the local board.

The Fifth district of the Iowa Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its annual convention Tuesday and Wednesday of this week at Glenwood. All clubs of the district, whether federated or not, are urged to send representatives to the meeting. Entertainment will be provided for the delegates and visiting women. There will be a reception and program in the chapel of the institution Tuesday evening and the convention proper will open Wednesday morning at 8:45 in the club rooms. Mrs. D. L. Heinsheimer, chairman of the district, will preside. The following program has been announced:

8:45 a. m.—Vocal solo, "Murmuring Zephyr," Mrs. M. J. Williams; invocation, Mrs. A. H. Beaver; address of welcome, Mrs. W. F. Hill; response, Mrs. C. G. Walker of Atlantic; two-minute reports of clubs; address, "The Value of Federation," Mrs. J. J. Seerley of Burlington, president of the Iowa Federation of Women's Clubs; recitation, Miss Carroll White; luncheon.

1:30 p. m.—Vocal solo, "Snowflakes," Miss Louise Woodruff; subject of afternoon program, "Domestic Science," opened by a talk on "The Leadership of Departments" by the leader, Mrs. F. A. Bixby of Council Bluffs; discussion, "What Is the Cornerstone of a Happy Home?" paper, "Domestic Science in the Public Schools," Mrs. Garst of Coon Rapids; discussion, "At What Age Should Children Be Taught Housework?" talk, "The Study of Domestic Science," Mrs. Page Morrison of Council Bluffs; the serving of a dinner, with demonstrations, Mrs. W. I. Smith of Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Thomas Kilpatrick, president of the local Needlework Guild of America, has announced November 15 and 16 as the dates for the collection and distribution of garments by the guild, and asks all members and all who wish to become members to have their garments ready by that time. The giving of three new garments once a year is the only membership fee and the only obligation of members outside the board of directors and officers. This year the garments will be received at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday, November 15, and sorted for distribution. Thursday, the 16th, they will be assigned and that afternoon from 1 to 6 o'clock a reception will be held that people may get some idea of the work of the guild. A committee consisting of Mesdames Draper Smith, Isaac Coles, A. J. Love, H. H. Baldridge, Bertha Offutt, G. A. Joslyn, Munger, Power, Coutant and T. J. Mackay will receive and serve tea and wafers. Last year the guild aspired to collect 3,000 garments, but the number fell somewhat short and this year they hope to reach that number. The garments are distributed entirely among the charitable organizations of Omaha, and being all new, can be used to much better advantage than second-hand garments. The guild is one of the most practical and worthy charities of the city and has done much toward relieving the demand for clothing, that is one of the heaviest of the local charitable institutions.

Mu Sigma Woman's club will hold its meeting Wednesday morning of this week at the home of Miss Raile at Fortieth and Cuming streets. Mrs. H. D. Neeley will act as leader, "Early Russia" being the subject of the morning.

The manual for the Omaha Woman's club will be out this week. Its issue has been unavoidably delayed.

Mrs. F. H. Cole will be in charge of the program of the literature department at Friday morning's meeting, which calls at 10 o'clock. "Hawthorne" will be the author and Mrs. Edward Johnson will give a talk on the man and his environment.

A practical demonstration in first aid to the injured will be a feature of the next meeting of the household economics department of the Woman's club. Dr. Jacobi will conduct the demonstration, which will occupy the second hour of the meeting.

Mrs. W. H. Wilbur will act as leader at Tuesday afternoon's meeting of the current topics department of the Woman's club. Mrs. Samuel Rogers will give a talk on "Russia Today" and Dr. Pinto will also speak from personal experience of the causes of yellow fever.

Some uncertainty regarding speakers has made it impossible to definitely announce the program for Monday afternoon's meeting of the social science department of the Woman's club. It is expected that Mrs. M. E. Holland of Chicago, assistant editor of the Detective, will be present and address the department. Mrs. Holland was one of the speakers at the recent prison conference held at Lincoln. Mrs. Harriet Heller will speak in a general way of the juvenile offender and in the event of Mrs. Holland's failure to reach the city the paper written recently by Superintendent Paddleford of the Golden Colorado Industrial school and read before the convention of the Colorado Federation of Women's clubs will be read.

There will be a meeting of the department of ethics and philosophy of the Woman's club Tuesday, November 7, at 3:45. The program will consist of a reading from Plato's "Apology" by Miss Cosgrove and a paper, "The House of Laius," by Miss Boutelle. This paper is in explanation of conditions preceding the events narrated in the Greek drama, "Antigone." Members of the department are rehearsing for a character reading in costume of selected scenes from a translation of Sophocles' "Antigone," to be given at the general meeting of the club November 13.

The first musical of the season under the auspices of the musical department of the Woman's club will be given at the First Congregational church Friday morning, November 10, at 10:30 a. m. A splendid program has been arranged, to which the women of the club are urged to be present.

Judge Sutton issued the order on a showing made by Balthas Kramer to the effect that if the company is permitted to lay tracks on the street abutting property belonging to himself and others will be greatly damaged. A formal hearing on the merits of the controversy will be had some time the coming week.

The Clothes-Doctor

How His Dope Is Administered, and How To Avoid It.

ISN'T it wonderful what beautiful effects you see in clothes now-a-days?

The Salesman, or tailor, gives the Coat a hitch here, and a pull there,—passes his hands over the shoulders and back, and says:—"What a Bea-u-tiful Fit."

He would get "FITS" if he didn't. Of course the effect is good.

But how about the De-fects?

Ah! there's the point. You don't see them because Dr. Goose (the Hot Flat-iron) has attended to them;—covered them up temporarily to Sell.

So "everything is lovely, and the Goose hangs high" when you first wear the coat.

But alas! when the first Damp, Rainy day comes.

Then the weak points—the defects—begin to appear.

They have been Stretched or Shrunk from your sight by the Tricky Flat-iron. After the dampness gets in its work, then your coat must go to the Hospital for more Flat-iron Dope.

Defects will creep into clothing, no matter who makes it.

And fully 80 per cent. of all clothing is Doctored by the process mentioned.

But—there's another way to remove these defects permanently.

It's the way that Sincerity Clothes are made—and revised. We mean by painstaking Hand-Needle work.

We would like you to see our big, airy Factory,—as Clean and Wholesome as a Kitchen. And the hundreds of Men-Tailors—paid the highest wages for their Ability to sew Sincerely.

If you have no other means of knowing a "Sincerely-made" Garment—

TRY THIS METHOD:—

Lay the Coat flat on a table, as shown in the picture. If the Collar lies straight and true at turnover line and outer edge, then the Coat is free from Flat-iron Faking. If top edge is wrinkled and wavy, then look out when you wear the coat on a rainy day.

It Costs us more to make Clothes by the "Sincerity Method," but we get the Style-quality and Needle-quality.

Sincerity Clothes hold their shape until worn threadbare—because of this Needle-Work.

There are no excessive Shoulder-Pads to twist the coat out of shape. No heavy Inter-lining to "buckle-up."

The average American is careful what he buys—when he knows there is a Difference.

It's worth while to know these things.

Therefore, if Shape Insurance, Style, and Sincerity Tailoring is worth anything to you, it will pay to insist on getting it.

If your dealer doesn't handle Sincerity Clothes, we will tell you who does.
