Several More Large

Interest in building circles centers in four of the largest buildings planned this year, contracts for which have not yet been let. Two contracts are to be disposed of shortly. Bids were returned last week for the erec-tion of the warehouse which John A. Creighton will build for the Byrne & Hammer Dry Goods company at Ninth and Howard streets. The contract for the building proper will be awarded Tuesday.

Specifications for the Young Men's Christian association building are almost completed. The building committee will pass final judgment on them at a meeting which is to be held Tuesday and it is thought bids will be advertised for before the end of the week.

The contract for driving the piling for the Parlin, Orendorff & Martin warehouse was let Saturday to the Nebraska Bridge Supply and Lumber company, but the plans for the building have not been finished. Until this building is erected, the new one of Paxton & Gallagher cannot be begun. The grocery stock will have to be moved into the old home of Parlin, Orendorff & Martin after this firm has moved. Then

An understanding was reached between the two whereby Mr. Cronk did not oppose the granting of the decree. The record of real estate transfers shows Mr. Cronk deeded to Mrs. Cronk certain property in Omaha. Mrs. Cronk, with the children, goes west, where else will make her home with relatives, and Mr. Cronk is stopping at one of the Omaha hotels. The property conveyed was a lot and a half in Windsor Place.

CLOCK GOES TO ST. PAUL Timepiece that Ticked Off Thousands for Y. M. C. A. Will Work in Minnesota.

The big wooden clock used in the Young Men's Christian association building fund campaign was expressed to St. Paul Mon-day for a similar campaign there. Secretary Wade has suggested a placard for the clock as follows: "This is the clock which raised $168,600 for Omaha. What will it do for St. Paul?" The clock idea originated that the St. Paul association decided to adopt it. The secretary at that city was anxious to get possession of the famous
